It is prop sed to meet this sum by subscribing $75,000 stock, halt of which has been already subscribed, issuing 60,000 in County bonds, and securing a provincial subsidy of $10,000 a mile or $300,000 in all. The bonds will, no doubt be really voted, for, rich as Albert County now is, it would become doubly so hy being intersected by the railroad. The Provincial subsidy is a heavy item, and the hope is entertained in Albert that the Government will deal as liberally with that County as with other se will permit. -St. John Telegraph.
