the employees marched to the marches sadag. They found the approaches to the building and to the Royal Palace guarded by police and sol-diers. The crowd was noisy and threatening, and tried to overturn street car. The mounted police charged and drove the crowd back, while M. Branting emerged from the Rikksdag, and vainly attempted to persuade the demonstrators to leave the vicinity. The mob made an at tempt to rush the police, who char-ged fiercely, with drawn swords. Many heads were slashed and other rioters were knocked down and trampled upon. The platoon of sol-diers guarding the Bridge leading to the palace fixed bayonets and load-ed their rifles, but did not fire. There was much bottle and stone throwing but ultimately the triumphed and the mob melted away The police estimated that the rioters, including onlookers numbered 10, 000, mostly youths. Action of Liberal Leader in Rejecting Proposal of Sir Robert Borden For Union Cabinet Compels Government to go to the People

By Courier Leased Wire

Toronto, June 7.- A despatch from Ottawa to the Daily News says:

"The proposals made by Sir Robert Borden for a union cabinet have been decisively rejected by Sir Wilfrid Laurier. As a result a general election is certain and will be called as soon as the necessary steps can be taken. The situation was explained to members of the house this morning when both parties held a caucus.

"Sir Robert Borden will now endeavor to secure a group of liberals for the government from inside parliament or if necessary from outside parliament.

Ottawa, June 7-The Conservative Caucus today after hearing a report from the Premier on the failure of coalition negotiation gave what is said to have been practically unanimous approval to a proposal of Sir Robert Borden that the conscription bill should be brought down next week and forced through the house. So far as known there is no intimation of a general election but that may eventuate from development after the bill is introduced.

Correspondence on the coalition negotiations showed that the Premier had made his proposal to the leader of the opposition, who had replied in effect that it should have been broached before conscription was announced. The Premier suggested a cabinet of eight liberals and eight conservatives, with himself as the odd member, giving the present government a majority of one. The Premier also suggested that the coalition bill should be introduced with the pledge that it would not be given effect until the coalition had gone to the country and asked for a mandate on the measure.

The two leaders were unable to agree upon the composition of the cabinet and finally negotiations came to an end yesterday and the deal was declared off.

Amsterdam, ... via .. London, June 7.—The Lantag of Alsace-Lorraine was opened at Strass-burg, on Wednesday by the Im-perial Stadholder, Dr. von Holl-witz, who said: "This unbend-ing will end the war victorious-ly, and will further protect our German Alsace-Lorraine." ly, and will further protect our German Alsace-Doraine." At the first session of the chamber, Dr. Georg Ricklin, a Centerest was re-elected Presi-ident by 29 out of 46 votes. Dr. Ricklin said: "We Alsatians and Lorrainers will never for-get that our Emperor, by his peace offer, showed his readi-ness to end the miseries of the war. We bless every nation tending to shorten the war by a single day and reject every-thing which, allegedly under-taken to better our lot, in fact only serves to prolong the war and our sufferings. An over-whelming majority of Alsatians and Lorrainers did not want the war and only wanted to work out to completion their position as members of a state in union with the German Em-pire and to further proceed with peaceful labor. In this connection the war has made no change as far as we are con-cerned. We make this confes-sion of faith in the face of the whole work! May it be heard everywhere and may peace be restored soon." restored soon." Copenhagen, via London, June 7—A leading article in— the Berlin Vorwaerts, to-day, signed by the Socialist deputy. Herman Wendel, argues that the only possible solution of the Alsace-Lorraine question is the formation of the two provinces in the Federal state on the same hasis as the other states of the Empire. Herr Wendel does not even contemplate the possibility of a voluntary return to the provinces of France. He re-jects the principle of a plebis-cite to determine the fate of the provinces, owing to the dif-ficulty of those entitled to vote. Though admitting that Lor-raine is largely French, he says that the Socialist solution is autonomy within the German Empire.
