Town Talk.

For good tea try J. L. Mader.

A. FARRELL is having a new stable erected on his village property.

MISS LOVE, of Trowbridge, is employed as tailoress with Geo. Currie.

MISS ANNIE BROOKS and brother, of Listowel, spent Sunday in the village.

THURSDAY, Nov. 5, has been proclaimed as the annual Thanksgiving Day for Canada.

Now that the Local Option Prohibitory law has been sustained by the Courts and Hon. Oliver Mowat's reputation as a great Constitutional lawyer received another attestation, we expect the temperance element will begin another campaign against the liquor traffic. The Crooks Act is said to be the best license law ever placed upon the statute but we make bold to say there are a dozen amendments required yet and it won't make what is wrong right then.

The Listowel correspondent to the Stratford Herald pays this compliment to one of our rising young men:—Rev. J. Livingstone preached harvest home sermons in the Methodist church, Warton, yesterday, his pulpit here being filled in the morning by the Rev. Mr. Caswell, Listowel, and in the evening by Mr. McBain, of Atwood. Mr. McBain is a young man of rare abilities, and at no far distant day we expect to see him holding a prominent position in the Methodist ministry.

The two Georgia evangelists, Sam P. Jones, and Sam W. Small, have been ordered to appear before the grand jury. They conducted a revival at Rome some days ago and charged corruption so pointedly upon the people and the administration of justice that the Superior Court, Judge Myddox, charged the grand jury to compel Jones and Small to make their charges in legal form and prove their truth or shut up. Attachments have been issued for the gentlemen. Small is now in Mississippi.

"The bride was the recipient of many beautiful and costly presents." Of all the stereotyped phrases in existence, the above one is perhaps as frequently used in a newspaper as any. Take up whatsoever paper you choose, containing a marriage account, and in nine cases out of ten you will find after a few preliminary remarks to the effect that Mr. So and So were married last night to Miss So and So by Rev. So and So, in the presence of So and So, and that the bride was charmingly attired; bridesmaids ditto; ditto, groom and groomsmen; that "the bride was the recipient of many beautiful and costly presents." THE BEE would suggest that hereafter all newspapers keep a standing notice to that effect, and insert it after each account of a wedding. It would save expense in typesetting.

DIED.—It is with feelings of sadness we chronicle the death of one of Atwood's most worthy and highly respected citizens, John Hoar, who passed away to the great beyond on Tuesday last, at the age of 41 years and 8 months. Deceased was born in Crewes, in the north of England, and came to this country about six years ago, settling in this village, and for some years followed the blacksmithing trade, but his health became so impaired that he was finally compelled to abandon it and seek other employment. For several years he was sexton of the Presbyterian church, here, filling the arduous duties with much satisfaction to all, notwithstanding at times he should have been in bed rather than working in the cold church in the dead of winter. But Mr. Hoar did his duty at all times and feared not danger. He was afflicted with a complication of diseases, but what pained him most was spinal trouble. He was a kind, obliging neighbor, and a consistent Christian. He was never known while we knew him, to speak an unkindly or ungentlemanly word to anyone, but minded his own affairs, and in a quiet way did what he could for the good of his fellow-men. He will be missed on our streets, but God's will be done in all things. The funeral, which took place Thursday forenoon, was largely attended, the interment being made in the Elma Centre cemetery. A wife and two children are left to mourn the loss of a faithful husband and kind father.

GLANCE over M. E. Neads' advt. J. L. MADER is offering new prints very low.

THE Territorial elections take place on Nov. 7th.

A stock train represents a great deal of money—countless cents.

Do you want dry goods of any kind? J. L. Mader's is the place for a good assortment.

R. H. KNOX will accept the editor's thanks for a copy of The Varsity and a neatly bound copy of the Toronto University Students' Hand-book for 1891-2. R. H. is associate editor of The Varsity.

REMEMBER the Methodist church Sunday school tea-meeting, to be held in the Town Hall, Atwood, on Monday evening, Oct. 19th. Tea served from 5 to 7 o'clock. Admission, 25c.; children, 10c. An excellent program is being prepared for the occasion.

On the occasion of his leaving for Toronto University, T. M. Wilson was presented with a beautiful travelling set by the pupils of his Sunday school class. Mr. Wilson having taken a deep interest in the Presbyterian Sunday school and in the church work, generally.

OCTOBER FASHIONS.—We enclose to our readers this week a copy of the October Fashion Bazaar, which is presented by Messrs. Carson & McKee, of Listowel. This is a very useful sheet for the ladies, and we are sure they will appreciate the generosity of the proprietors of the Golden Lion store at Listowel. Carson & McKee carry a fine stock of the newest styles of dry goods and millinery, and are always pleased to show their goods. Give them a call.

THE Foresters' concert Friday night, Oct. 9th, exceeded expectations as regards attendance, the hall being filled to the doors, and in consequence the receipts amounted to about $70. The great character vocalist, Sam Fax, fairly brought down the house with his selections, and again and again was he encored. D. Lamont sang a comic song very acceptably, and Mr. Mason, of Wingham, likewise contributed to the interest of the program. The local record, the committee in charge of the preliminaries of the entertainment are deserving of praise for the splendid success attending their efforts. In this connection it might be said that Court Lansdowne, Atwood, is in a very healthy condition at present, new members being constantly added to its membership. May the Order's numbers increase and its popularity grow none less.

FOOTBALL TOURNAMENT.—The tournament held on the agricultural grounds last Saturday was witnessed by a large number of spectators, including a goodly number of the fair sex. At about one o'clock three teams, Brussels, Gorrie and Atwood, were on deck. Gorrie drew the bye, and at 1:30 Brussels and the Atwood Marlboros' faced the ball. They played a good game, but it was soon noticed that the Brussels defence were too weak for their nimble opponents. J. L. Wilson scored three times and Frank Wilson scored two. Brussels failed to make a single goal, and at the close of the hour the Marlboros' were declared winners by five straight. Half an hour's rest was granted the Atwood team, after which they played Gorrie. And again the home team were declared victors by two goals, Chas. Clark and Frank Wilson doing the needful. Atwood thus won the 1st prize of $15. Then Brussels and Gorrie lined up for second money, which was won by Brussels by three goals to two. The Atwood Marlboros' comprised the following men:—Goal, G. Mitchell; Backs, B. Tughan and J. Mulvay; Half-backs, G. Bridge, G. Anderson and D. Graham; Centre, J. F. Wilson; Right wing, C. Stewart and J. L. Wilson; Left wing, C. Clark and J. W. Ward; Referee, H. B. Hamilton; Captain, J. W. Ward. The place kick was won by W. Sloan, of Brussels. The prize, given by M. E. Neads, consisted of a napkin ring. The gate receipts netted about $10. This was the first appearance of the new aggregation known as the Atwood Marlboros'. Altogether the tournament was a marked success and reflects great credit upon the captain of the home team, together with the energetic committee of management.

FARMERS, ATTENTION!—Grain chopping done at the Gotham mills every Tuesday.

PARTIES owing this office wood had better bring it in at once and thus save further annoyance.

ON Nov. 1st I will discontinue my prize tickets, please to hand them in by that date. J. L. MADER.

THE Minnesota Presbytery has protested against the opening of the World's Fair on Sunday.

It is rumored that a new boot and shoe store will be opened out shortly in R. M. Ballantyne's new store.

THE weather at present is very disagreeable, but it is the best we could expect for this season of the year.

If you need anything in the parlor or cook stove line call on Bonnett & Bowyer, Listowel. See change of advt.

Now that the wet weather has come, you should not fail to see what J. L. Mader can do for you in boots, shoes and rubbers.

THERE is a rumor afloat that the Grand Trunk Railway contemplates the erection of a bridge north of the Suspension Bridge.

MRS. J. L. MADER and daughter, Frances, are expected home to day, (Friday) from their four weeks' visit to friends in Jackson, Mich.

No more beside the moonlit sands, Do young folks wander, holding hands While Love's old tales are being told, Because—it's growing too blamed cold.

ALL changes of advertisements must be in this office not later than Tuesday noon of each week. Merchants will do well to make a note of this.

It is supposed that some sneak poisoned James Irwin's Newfoundland dog this week. It was a harmless dog, hence there was no cause for such a mean act.

THE season's exports of wheat and flour from all American and Canadian ports to date total 62,680,000 bushels, as against 27,293,000 bushels for the same period last year.

THE traffic earnings of the Grand Trunk railway for the week ended Oct. 3rd, were $124,912; for the corresponding period in 1890 the earnings were $114,611; increase 1891, $10,301.

THE Free Press says there is a large apple crop in some sections of the London district this year, and a number of farmers have as high as 200 to 300 barrels of marketable fruit to dispose of.

MRS. JOHN FOX was seized with a paralytic stroke the other day, and from the effects of which she will be laid up for some time. She has the sympathy of the community in her severe illness.

THE protest against the return of Mr. Magwood will commence in the Court House, Stratford, on Monday, Oct. 26. Mr. Trow's will commence on Wednesday, 28, and Mr. Grieve's on Friday, Oct. 30.

In speaking of a recent pastor of the Methodist church, here, the Clinton News-Record says:—The Methodist church was nicely decorated with flowers in honor of the return of the pastor, Rev. J. Ferguson.

FEW, very few have "bought golden opinions from all sorts of people," still fewer have had them thus goldenly expressed, and none have been able to make such a purchase except those who have grown rich in deserving.—The Varsity.

THE reception of Mr. Lister Tuesday at Sarnia was a magnificent affair. Thousands of people were present, and the hero of the day and Hon. David Mills delivered two brilliant speeches. Mr. Lister stated that the disclosures made during the past session were but a tithe of what will be forthcoming next session.—Globe.

THE Stratford Herald remarks:—The newspaper press of Canada in growing up with the country is keeping full pace with the general march of progress. The tone and character of our provincial and country journals, so-called, has constantly improved, and with that their influence and financial prospects. Printing offices located in dingy, shabby premises are no longer the fashion; journals that are worthy the name being generally able to afford and often to own premises that compare favorably with the best business structures in their respective localities.
