variable winds, fair to cloudy, with showers in western points to-night.
Sunday, moderate to fresh easterly winds, fair to cloudy and cool showers in western portion.

The following figures were registered to-day at 7 a. m. at Turner & Platt's weather bureau:
Thermometer 57.
Highest yesterday 70.
Lowest yesterday 49.
Direction of wind, east.

THE LOCAL BUDGET

Theodore Bourassa, of Wallaceburg, is in the city.

W. E. Campbell and wife moved to the Eau yesterday.

Mrs. Darwin Pelett, who is in the hospital, is not much improved.

The Chatham mill of the Canada Flour Mills Co. is running to-day.

Will Outance, of the Milner carriage works, had his thumb badly smashed at the factory yesterday.

Arch. Park and wife and family spent yesterday at Eriksen and will move into their cottage next week.

Mrs. Kingsmill has moved to Bond Eau, and will occupy the Ryan cottage, occupied by F. B. Stevens last year.

W. E. Gundy, Ridgetown, was in the city to-day. He will become a permanent resident of this city on Wednesday next.

Mrs. Geo. B. Bernbe, Church street, left yesterday afternoon for Detroit, visiting her daughter, Mrs. Simond, who is very ill.

Robert and Mrs. Fraser will sail on Saturday, July 5, and will visit friends in Dublin and vicinity during the holiday season.

Wanted—A large unfurnished room in private family, or over some store, convenient to the post office. Apply C. B. Box 372, Chatham.

The band concert at the Eau last evening was fairly well attended. The band had to respond to several en-cores and played well.

Felix, the happy peasant pedler, found a bunch of keys on the Park which the owner can have by paying for the advertising.

Harvey Boyce, of Dresden, who underwent an operation in the General Hospital for strangulated hernia, has recovered nicely and returned home to-day.

Chas. Gammage leaves on Monday for Toronto to visit his brother Arthur, who is manager of the shoe department of the large T. Eaton store.

Wednesday a wedding dress and wrapper were stolen from the room of Miss McIsaac, at the Hotel Garner.
The police have samples of the cloth in both dresses.

The School Board have men engaged to-day removing the seats from the Queen street school. They will be stored in either the Payne street school or the King street school. An offer has been received for the Payne street school and there is strong prospect of the property being sold. For this reason the trustees are not anxious to store the seats there and would prefer to store them in the King street school, but in some way the key to the King street school has been lost. Everybody is looking everywhere for the key, but it cannot be found. It is just possible that the trustees may decide that a new lock is cheaper than moving the seats again.

Holidays And Kodaks

from Hamilton, where he attended the funeral of his sister-in-law, Mrs. Duncan A. Macnabb. The funeral was a private one, only immediate friends and relatives being present. Two sons D. A. and Peter Macnabb, of Buffalo, attended the funeral.

MAN IN TROUBLE

Edward Hopper, Northwood, was in the city to-day seeking aid to recover his wife who eloped with another man about a month ago. Hopper had found a letter from a man in the case and the former was mad as a hopper. The author of the letter and of the husband's troubles, said that he cried himself to sleep at night thinking about Mrs. Hopper. The letter was very loving and endearing and made Mr. Hopper feel bad, but the authorities here could do nothing to help him.

SCHOOL CONCERT

The closing exercises of Miss Bar-foot's school on the 5th concession, Harwich, were held yesterday afternoon and were largely attended by the parents of the scholars. Aid.
Cowan and school trustee Geo. Heyward, of this city, attended. Aid.
Cowan acted as chairman. After the program dancing was indulged in, music being furnished by the Sumner's orchestra. The following was the program:

Chorus by school.
Chairman's address—Aid. Cowan.
Recitation—Miss Hornick.
Song—Miss Barfoot, with chorus by the school.

Recitation—Over the Hills to the Poor House, by Mabel McKellar.
Recitation—Over the Hills from the Poor House, by Mattie McKellar.

STRENGTH AND ENDURANCE.

Are factors of the greatest success.
No person can do full justice to himself without them.

In no season of the year are they more easily exhausted than in the spring.

We need not discuss the reason for this here. It's enough to say there is one, and that Hood's Sarsaparilla gives strength and endurance, as thousands annually testify.

Keep Minard's Liniment in the House.

DOING WELL

Continued Progress of his Majesty is Reported To-day—Official Bulletins.

Special to The Planet.

London, June 28.—At 2.30 p. m. it was officially stated at Buckingham Palace that the King's progress was fully maintained, that His Majesty was quite comfortable and that he had seen several members of the royal family during the day.

London, June 28.—10.53 a. m.—At 10.45 o'clock this morning the following official bulletin was issued from Buckingham Palace on the condition of the King Edward:

The King had a good night and his improved condition is maintained. We are happy that we are able to state that we consider His Majesty to be now out of immediate danger, and the general condition is satisfactory. The operation wound, however, still needs constant attention and such concern as attaches to His Majesty's condition is connected with the wound. Under the most favorable conditions, His Majesty's recovery must, of necessity, be protracted. The 2 p. m. bulletin will be discontinued. (Signed) LISTER, TRAVES, BARLOW, SMITH, LAK-ING.

The Duke of Connaught drove to Buckingham Palace at 9.30 this morning, and after a short visit, repeated the gratifying report:

"The King has had natural sleep.
He is comfortable, and his condition is satisfactory."

father's clock.

GOOD WORK

It was Exhibited by Musical
Students at an Enjoyable Recital Last Night.

A very creditable recital was given in the I. O. O. F. Auditorium last evening by the vocal students of Miss Urula Archer, assisted by Miss Man-bel Cowan, of Tilbury, and Miss Annie Bogart, piano students of R. Victor Carter.

Miss Archer has now been in Chatham for about two months, and this is the first recital she has given. It was indeed a credit to her and all of her pupils acquitted themselves admirably.

While everyone on the program is deserving of great praise, special mention should be made of the piano playing of Miss Cowan and Bogart. Both of these ladies are senior pupils of Mr. Carter and are well worthy of the name of pianists. The following was the program:—

PART I.

Dennee—Sleep, Little Baby of Mine
Vocal.

Miss Rena Langford.
(a) Chopin—Nottwino; (b) Schumann Novelette—Piano.

Miss Annie Bogart.
Denza—May Morning—Vocal.

Miss Lola Dunkley.
Buck D.—Sunset—Vocal.

Miss Nellie Rhody.
Haberbeer—(a) prelude—Piano.

(b) Locatelli—Piano.
Miss Mabel Cowan.

Schumann—The Two Grenadiers—
Vocal.

Mr. Noble Gardiner.
Saint Saens—"Mon Coeur S'ouvre a ta trix"—Vocal.

Miss Edith Dolsen.
Beethoven—Sonata op 2 (Allegro Con Brio)—Piano.

Miss Annie Bogart.
PART II.

Gounod—More Regal in his low Estate—Vocal.

Miss Pearl White.
Beethoven—Scherzo (from Sonata)—
Piano allegretto vivace.

Miss Mabel Cowan.
Adams J.—To be Loved by you—
Vocal.

Mrs. S. C. Walker.
De Koven—For This—Vocal.

Miss Edith Dolsen.
Sapellinkoff—(a) prelude—Piano.

Miss Annie Bogart.
Schubert—Serenade—Vocal.

Miss Pearl White.
Kullak—Octave Study—Piano.

Miss Mabel Cowan.
Trio—Summer Fancies—Metia.

Misses Dolsen, White and Rhody.
High Priced Service.

The death of the famous Paris restaurateur Bignon recalls some staries of interest. He was among the first to see that the enormously high priced cafes had seen their day and, selling the famous house in the avenue to the opera, he retired into private life.

An amusing story of his revenge is told. One night after an opera ball a gay party trooped in and persisted in being served by Bignon himself. The old gentleman was in bed, but he got up and threw the traditional serviette of the waiter across his arm. When the bill was sent up, there was a grief that could have been photographed among the party. At the end of a financially much spiced note appended "For being served by Bignon 1,000 francs." He got the money after many protests and handed it over to a charity.

Cecil Rhodes and Stead.

William T. Stead states that up to the year 1899 he was the sole executor of the will of Cecil Rhodes. It had been the intention of himself and Mr.
Rhodes to found an international newspaper, with offices in London and New York, which should be largely conducted on educational lines. Mr. Rhodes had resolved to devote his fortune to the scheme, as he considered it would be a step toward the realization of his dream of Anglo-American reunion. Mr.
Stead's name was removed from the list of executors in consequence of his opposition to the Boer war, and the scheme was then abandoned.

New Deal in Bookselling.

Hung in a conspicuous place on the newstand at each station of the New York elevated railway lines is a package of blanks, and if a passenger wishes to order any book published he fills out the blank places and hands it to the news agent on the platform or mails it to the headquarters of the agency. He gives his name and address, the name of the book and its publisher, the style of binding desired, whether paper or cloth, and when the book is to be delivered. At the appointed hour a man will call at the address given with the book and collect the price for the same.

Gotham Eats Horse Meat.

It is said that horse meat is now being sold in many of the small restaurants in New York. Equine roasts and steaks promise to be on the bills of fare there for some time to come as a natural substitute for the more expensive beef. As yet the substitution of the doubtful meat is said to have been attempted only in the cheaper restaurants. It is asserted by one of the downtown eating house proprietors that not one customer in ten or even more is able to detect the difference.

A Serious Joke.

Friends played a grim joke on the Rev. R. G. Roscamp of Kokomo, Ind., three years ago, the seriousness of which is just now appreciated. He was on a trip to Denver when an acquaintance, in a spirit of banter, gave him a block of supposedly worthless mining stock. He has now sold the stock for $500,000.
