LINEVITCH IN COMMAND

The Russian Front Now Extends Sixty-Six Miles.

Russian Cannons of Terrific Intensity Broke the Quiet On the Morning of Nov. 7. But There Is No Sign of Japanese Advance—Japs Had a Success But Russians Re-occupied Lost Positions—Japs Ignore Stossel.

Mukden, Nov. 9.—Lieut.-General Linevitch, recently appointed to the command of the first army, arrived yesterday by special train and was met by Gen. Sakharoff. He was enthusiastically welcomed by all the troops. His escort consisted of men who had been decorated with the St. George's cross. Gen. Linevitch will command the offensive on Nov. 7 along the line from Changtiao to Khenan, and occupied the villages of Outskate, Kitaitow and Paosintung, from whence, however, the Russians afterwards expelled them, re-occupying the original line. There was no fighting yesterday.

No Fighting Yesterday.
St. Petersburg, Nov. 9.—Gen. Sakharoff reports that the Japanese vanguard assumed the offensive on Nov. 7 along the line from Changtiao to Khenan, and occupied the villages of Outskate, Kitaitow and Paosintung, from whence, however, the Russians afterwards expelled them, re-occupying the original line. There was no fighting yesterday.

JAPS IGNORE STOSSSEL

Offer Terms of Surrender to the Russian Soldiers in Port Arthur.

Che Foo, Nov. 9.—The Japanese besieging Port Arthur, ignoring Lieutenant Stossel's offer, have offered terms of surrender to the Russian military forces there, according to advices leaving Port Dalay Monday. In the meanwhile the ceaseless activity of picks and spades, gradually advancing the trenches, spells inevitable fate, to the watching Russians.

A Russian prisoner, captured Oct. 26, said the soldiers composing the garrison of Port Arthur, in want and dispirited, saw the hopelessness of the struggle. Despairing of relief, with food scarce and medicine, and hospital supplies insufficient it was admitted by the Russians that a Japanese victory was ultimately inevitable. The soldiers, according to the prisoner, see no reason to prolong the resistance which brings glory to their officers, but chiefly hardship and death to them. Upon hearing the prisoner's story General Nogi drafted a letter to be circulated among the soldiers themselves, the prisoner having promised to deliver it in mercy to his comrades. The letter related General Kuropatkin's retreats and his inability to make an impression on the army of Field Marshal Oyama, to say nothing of breaking through his forces and relieving Port Arthur. The letter also pointed out that the second Russian Pacific squadron has just started on its voyage. Continuing, it called attention to the resistance of the Japanese trenches, making it a matter of weeks when the Japanese would walk into the main Russian strongholds.

In conclusion the letter offered humane treatment to all who surrendered, saying it was in the interests of humanity to prevent further useless slaughter.

Several copies of the letter, written in Russian were given to the prisoner, who regained the Russian lines unobserved by his officers. That night the Russian returned, saying his comrades would answer within a few days. He said the temper of the men seemed to show that while they were mutinous to show their fate, they also did not like the idea of an unofficial surrender. The letter did much, however, to dispel among the Russian troops the impression fostered by their officers that a massacre would follow a Japanese victory. The company in which the prisoner belonged originally numbered 800, and now totals thirty men.

Proceeding Satisfactorily.
Tokio, Nov. 9.—Unofficial news received from Port Arthur since Saturday's report of the progress made by the besiegers, indicates that the Japanese operations are proceeding satisfactorily, though slowly. Lineaments formations and rocky ground interfere with firing. It is now considered that the capture of Rihlung Mountain and East Kechwan Mountain without Antse and Elise Mountains is not sufficient to force the Russians to abandon the city proper.

Both Armies Passive.
Tokio, Nov. 9.—Reports from the Shakkie River state that both armies are still strengthening their positions along the river and are otherwise busily preparing for another great battle. The scouts are constantly in touch and frequent outpost skirmishes occur, but there is no likelihood of a general engagement. Reinforcements of Russian troops, guns and supplies are constantly arriving at the front, filling the gaps caused by the crushing losses at the battle of Shakkie River.

None Ever Returns.
New York, Nov. 9.—A Berlin despatch to The Times says: A circular, widely distributed to the Russian army, despite the strictest control, has reached here. It contains the following: "No one going to war returns. It is better to defend our rights than to shed blood unnecessarily. We workmen cannot look on with indifference while our comrades perish." As a result of these circulars further riots were reported Monday at Kaner, where several persons were killed or wounded. At Rodesack in a clash between reservists and police several men were killed.

Firing Continuous.
Mukden, via Pekin, Nov. 9.—Artillery firing was continuous all along the lines on Monday and intermittent yesterday morning. A battle might commence at any hour. It will be a question of many days, if not weeks, to decide the position which is the most interesting since the commencement of the war. Each side is waiting for the other to attack.

Shanghai, Nov. 9.—It is reported in British naval circles that a Japanese man-of-war has been sunk by a mine off Port Arthur.

Chinese Spy Executed.
Shanghai, Nov. 9.—It is reported here that a Chinese official of high rank was executed by the Japanese on Nov. 2 at the village of Shaka. The official was discovered in the act of spying on the movements of Japanese troops, it is said, on the order of the military Governor of the Province of Szechwan.

Recalled By War Department.
St. Petersburg, Nov. 9.—Captain Reichmann and Lieut.-Col. Walter Schuyler, the United States military attaches with Kuropatkin's army, are returning to the United States, having been recalled by the War Department.

Russia Will Not Join.
St. Petersburg, Nov. 9.—Foreign Minister Lamsdore has received through Charge d'Affaires Eddy the American proposal for a second peace conference at The Hague to proceed with the work begun in 1899. Russia will decline to participate so long as the war lasts.

One of Foremost Holders of Municipal Office in the Province.

Toronto, Nov. 9.—In the death of William Tyrrell, which occurred at his residence in Weston yesterday morning, there passed away one of the foremost holders of municipal office in the Province, reckoned by length of service. Mr. Tyrrell, who was 88 years of age on March 5 last, was the first reeve of Weston and was reeve of York for a continuous period of 23 years, besides having been warden of that county for several terms. Death was due to a paralytic stroke.

Hamilton, the noted explorer, and H. G. Tyrrell of New Britain, Conn.

Killed By a Train.
Kincardine, Nov. 9.—Yesterday John Kirkpatrick, an old and highly respected resident of the Township of Huron, lost his life. Mr. Kirkpatrick was driving to town on the Saugeen road with a load of grain in a crossing. The Grand Trunk Railway track was struck by the engine of the incoming train. He was instantly killed. One of the horses was killed and the other so badly injured that it died shortly afterwards. Mr. Kirkpatrick leaves a family, consisting of wife, one son and one daughter at home, and three daughters married. Mr. Kirkpatrick was sixty years of age.

Gave Himself Up.
Toronto, Nov. 9.—D. A. Weeger of the village of Northfield, in Stormont County, came to Toronto yesterday and gave himself up to the police. He was given his liberty upon substantial bail bonds being furnished. Weeger carried on business as an implement agent in Northfield. He ordered two bicycles from the Toronto Cycle and Motor Co. This company was not satisfied with the settlement made by Weeger. They wrote him to that effect. He replied in such terms that a charge of sending indecent literature through the mails was laid against him.

Glad Suspense Is Over.
Montreal, Que., Nov. 9.—A cable dated Havana, Nov. 8, states Cuba officially delivered Hamel, the ex-paymaster of the City of Montreal, to the English minister yesterday morning. The latter immediately released the prisoner to Chief Carpenter of Montreal. Hamel is resigned, and says that while he regrets being forced to return to Montreal he is glad the suspense is over.

Fell From Scaffold.
Stratford, Nov. 9.—A nasty accident happened at one of the houses being erected by the building syndicate. Thomas Lennon and Thomas Keith fell from a scaffold, a distance of some eight feet to the ground. Mr. Keith had his shoulder hurt, and Mr. Lennon, who is a heavy man, had two ribs broken. The latter will be incapacitated from working for some weeks.

On Suspended Sentence.
St. Thomas, Nov. 9.—Edward Johnston, Albert Boughner and Leonard Graham, who pleaded guilty to twice burglarizing S. A. Crawford's store, and also burglarizing two creameries and George Wegg's carriage shop, were yesterday morning arraigned before Police Magistrate Glenn and discharged on suspended sentence.

Duck Hunters Drown.
Detroit, Nov. 9.—Jas. H. Foote and Alfred Gaines, electricians, were drowned while duck hunting at the St. Clair flats on Sunday and their bodies were recovered in the north channel in shallow water, about 150 feet from the shore, yesterday.

Hunter Shoots His Eye Out.
Kingston, Nov. 9.—J. Kenny, who lives near Arden, met with a serious accident Monday. While cleaning out his gun one of the cartridges exploded and the bullet entered his left eye. He was brought to the Kingston General Hospital and the eye removed.

Fall in Line for Your Fall Suit.

We put more care into the making of our garments than the ordinary wholesale manufacturer does.

Natural that we should, we have to stand behind them and sell them to the man who wears them, and who can easily get back at us if anything is wrong. Not so with the regular wholesale manufacturer. He never sees the man who wears the clothing. Natural too, that he should not be quite so careful as we are compelled to be.

We never had so many smart styles in new suits as we are showing just now.
