THE ACADIAN.

WOLFVILLE, N. S., APRIL 2, 1896.

Local and Provincial.

Good Friday.

Soon be time for fish stories!

The regular monthly meeting of the Fish Co. will be held in their rooms this evening, at 8 o'clock.

The trout fishing season opened yesterday. Trout shall not be fished for or caught by any other means than by angling with hook and line.

Case Ladies' Wrappers opened to-day at Caldwell's.

Mr and Mrs Armstrong wish to express their thanks, through the ACADIAN, to the friends who have given help and sympathy in their time of severe affliction.

Messrs B. H. Landis & Co., of Halifax, are now in town. Their business is the renovating of old silk hats, and they bring with them a recommendation for first-class work. See their adv in another column.

Have you not some pictures to frame? Bring them along now. Wolfville Book Store.

A meeting of the Town Improvement Association will be held in the Town Hall on Thursday evening, April 2nd, at 8.30 o'clock. A full attendance of the members and all interested in the improvement of the town is requested.

A number of Wolfville's music-loving people attended the concert given by Madame Albani in the Academy of Music, Halifax, this week. They were all delighted with the performance of the great prima donna and her excellent company.

Room paper at 4 cents per roll at the Wolfville Book Store.

Over 150 different patterns Room Paper to select from, at Wolfville Book Store.

Mr W. H. Duncanson purchased from Mr Geo. Harvey, of Grand Pre, this week a handsome pair of oxen for the Easter trade. They are exceptionally good ones. The chances for Easter dinner to obtain a prime roast for less than this year are good.

Carver's, Windsor, N. S., take pleasure in sending their customers samples and price lists when requested.

Don't forget that we are selling out a lot of Room Paper at less than half price, at the Wolfville Book Store.

Last week we recorded the sudden death of a little daughter of Mr and Mrs J. F. Armstrong, of this town. On Sunday her little twin sister was taken ill and died on Monday. The case is a most sad one, and the doubly bereaved parents have the heart-felt sympathy of the community at large. They were bright and pretty children of nearly five years.

No need of it—to go out of town for a bicycle. You can buy the best at lowest prices from the Wolfville Book Store.

FOR SALE.—Two new Houses on Gaspean Avenue, of 7 rooms each. Apply to C. A. PATRIQUIN.

Rev. Edwin Crowell, president of the King's County Prohibition Convention, is to give an address, explaining the object and working of the Convention, in Temperance Hall on Monday evening of next week. Mr Crowell is a pleasing speaker and the subject he will discuss is before the voters of this county. The public is cordially invited to be present, and it is hoped there will be a large attendance.

Reynolds, High Class, American Make and Low for Cash, or on Instalments, at Wolfville Book Store.

DENTISTRY.

Dr. A. J. McKenna,

Graduate of Philadelphia Dental College. Office in Herbin's building, Wolfville.

Personal Mention.—Contributions to this department will be gladly received. Mr. William Hill, son of C. R. Hill, Esq., of this town, left on Friday last for Nings, Manitoba.

The many friends of Dr. and Mrs. S. E. Kempton, of Dartmouth, will regret to learn of the present illness of Mrs. Kempton.

We are glad to see our enterprising and popular young jeweller, Mr. A. H. Westover, out again. What would Wolfville be without "Westy"?

Miss Julia Elderkin left on Tuesday evening for Halifax, where she will spend a few weeks visiting her sister, Mrs. Davison.

Among the list of names of "Sweet girl graduates" of Dalhousie College for the present year appears the name of Miss Mary McKay, daughter of Alex. McKay, Inspector of Schools for Halifax city. Mr McKay was formerly principal of the Wolfville school.

C. E. Starr & Son have now in a supply of extra quality Salmon Trains, for fishermen's use.

What's the matter with the town of Wolfville having some baseball this year? Two good teams could be formed without any trouble, and a series of games might be arranged for the championship of Main street—those employed in the stores and offices on the right side of the street vs. those on the left side. Just imagine! "Champions of Main street" wouldn't the possibility of having his team win that title, spur every man on to play with his utmost ability? We would be glad to hear what our young men think about it?

The best variety of Dress Goods in town opened at Caldwell's to-day.

We are indebted to Professors Tufts and Caldwell for copies of the catalogue of the Summer School of Science, which holds its tenth session at Parrboro, from July 9th to 24th, next. The staff of teachers includes Professors Tufts and Caldwell, and Miss Reade, of Acadia University. The meeting will no doubt be a very profitable and interesting one.

To Let.—The Barn Cottage at Church Hill, recently occupied by Keirstead's. For particulars apply to J. W. Vaughn, or J. W. Keirstead, Chipman Hall.

Mr M. G. Allison, one of Windsor's most prominent citizens, died suddenly at his residence in that town on Thursday evening last.
