

Christmas Presents.

Christmas, that delightful season of Peace and Good Will, is once more drawing near, and as it is the homecoming time for the family, the table and its appointments must be just right.

Perhaps there is some new linen needed. A tablecloth, napkins, tray-cloth. Or there may be a few sets of curtains required to brighten up a certain room. A mantle drapery, a chenille or tapestry table cover, a few cushions. Or it may be a pair of blankets, a down comfort, a counterpane, sheets, pillow cases, all ready made up, or perhaps a few nice towels for the guest-chamber. We have them all, also bureau scarfs, pillow shams, tablecovers, toilet sets, etc., and whether you need them for the house, or for presentation purposes, the proper place to get the best value at honest prices is right here. We can save you money as we have others.

Again we would remind you that it is much better not to delay your Christmas shopping until the last few days. You will find every department in this progressive store filled with an almost endless variety of Christmas suggestions, and you will experience an added pleasure in having an opportunity to view them at leisure.

Notice the superb display of Furs of all kinds, from the baby's hood at $1.50 up to the magnificent Persian Lamb Jackets $225.00. Take an extra peep at the Fur-lined Coats for both ladies and gentlemen.

Take a good long look through our Dress Goods, and you will say with us, that they are unequalled here, either in quality, variety or price. Be sure and see our fancy goods and novelties, and lastly, don't fail to give special attention to our Millinery, our Gent's Furnishings, and our Ready-Made-Clothing departments.

Following are lists of suggestions for gift-giving:

The railway station at Stowicks, between Truro and Halifax was blown open with dynamite Monday night and the safe opened and robbed.

Captain R. H. Cass of Lunenburg, well known in shipping circles, was found dead in his room at the Burnham House, Halifax, Friday morning. He weighed 265 pounds.

The Minister of Marine has ordered an inquiry into the circumstances which prevented prompt aid being sent to the wrecked bark "Sovinto," near Priest Pond on Nov. 6th.

In consequence of Christmas and New Years coming on Tuesday, the market will be open for the accommodation of the public on the Mondays proceeding these days.

A fire broke out in the Chapter House of Cornell University last Thursday night and destroyed that fine edifice. Several students were buried beneath the ruins and three volunteer fire men were killed.

This is nomination day for the first district of Queens. News from the district indicates that Mr. Kennedy Conservative will likely be elected. Notwithstanding the stormy weather, the contest goes on in full swing.

The Minto brought a mail from Pictou on Monday and again to day. The Stanley has been engaged for the last two or three days assisting steamers and sailing vessels that were caught in and near Charlottetown when winter set in. She goes from Pictou to Summerside to day to run between that port and Cape Tormentine as long as possible.

In the city of Toronto, on the 7th inst. the Grand Jury returned a true bill against Alexander Nelson and Adam Nelson, proprietors of the Rosin House, on a charge of stealing electricity from the Toronto Electric Light Company. The Rosin is one of Toronto's leading hotels. The scheme employed is said to be tapping wires with a switch.

These medals were donated by his Worship Mayor Ford.

Miss Margaret McDonald of Bailey's Brook, one of the Canadian nurses who went to South Africa during the Boer war, has been appointed to the Permanent Army Medical Service with the rank of Lieutenant, and is assigned to duty at the general hospital at Halifax. She has recently held an important position in the health department of the Isthmian Canal Commission at Panama.

Last year there was much talk about the intention of the Dominion Government placing a third steamer on the winter service between this Province and the mainland. All this is now exploded and the service is to be by the two old steamers, the Minto and Stanley. The Government's statement is that there is not enough water at Pictou for the Minto, and that the Lady Grey is not adapted for this service.

An Ottawa despatch has the following:—According to authoritative information received here, Hon. C. S. Hyman is a very sick man. His weight has dropped from 210 to 185 pounds, and a specialist who was consulted declared that the Minister's complete recovery depended upon immediate and absolute rest. So shattered are Mr. Hyman's nerves that he cannot even lift a glass of water to his lips. All business matters are withheld from him, and he is not allowed to receive any letters.

Four persons were killed and three injured in a head on collision between a special and a freight train on the Maine Central railway near the small station of Annabess last Thursday night. The wreck was due to a misunderstanding of orders. Both trains were going so fast when they met that eight of the thirteen cars of the special were hurled over the engine and demolished with a greater part of their contents. The track was blocked for hours. The dead are: Fireman Hodges; Engineer Forest; Engineer Harrison; and brakeman Lowe. They were all riding in the engine.
