Political Pars.

Voters of St. John's East, young and old, give the Squires candidates the frozen nict. Don't let them pull the wool over your eyes. Take this advice of the Telegram, the people's paper and you will never regret it.

Bennett, Mullaly and Martin are meeting with most popular enthusiasm in their canvasses of the district, and receiving genuine offers of support everywhere they go in contradiction to the cool reception given the Coaker-Squires trio.

Don't take the advice of the Squires heeler to split your votes for one of his candidates. Let Coaker and Squires fight it out among themselves. Have nothing to do with their faction fights.

Shades of our Liberal forefathers who ever thought that a Coaker Guppy-Squires combination should arise in this enlightened age and endeavor to get intelligent people to swallow them as representative Liberals.

The Coaker, Guppy-Squires candidates in St. John's West will receive such a trimming at the polls on the third of November as will cause them to hide from public view for many long days to come.

Electors of St. John's East, you are doing your duty nobly in ignoring the Squires trio. You were always to the forefront in studying by the principles of true Liberalism which Squires has always opposed.

Even the women in St. John's are interesting themselves to bring about the defeat of the candidates which Squires has foisted on the city. They desire that their husbands will throw down every Squires candidate.

Port de Grave will have no other but Crosbie, so the Coaker employee, George Grimes, will no longer represent that district.

Harbor Grace knows well the name of R. A. Squires and hence will not be fooled into supporting any candidate who offers himself on his behalf.

A vote for a Squires candidate in St. John's will be a vote wasted and thrown away, for not one of the unsavory leaders' teams will go near the record of the Liberal Progressive Candidates.

Hickman and Whiteway will be the winning ticket for Bay de Verde. Both are extremely popular in that district and will walk over the Squires nominees.

Arthur English, in allowing himself to be made a football of by Coaker and Squires, shows how utterly he disregards his sense of intelligence.

FRANCE DEMOBILIZING.
PARIS, Oct. 14. President Poincare to-day signed a decree of general demobilization, effective upon cessation of hostilities.

BRITISH MISSION SAFE.
LONDON, Oct. 14. Official telegrams from Riga report the safety of the British Mission and also the return to that city of the Lettish Government. Efforts are proceeding to bring about the co-operation of the Baltic States against the Russo-German army.

POSITION CRITICAL.
COPENHAGEN, Oct. 14. The position of the Bolsheviki is declared in a report from Russia to be critical, owing to General Denekine's advance. One newspaper says that Denekine will enter Moscow within a month and that the Reds no longer hope for victory. If Tula, 120 miles south of Moscow, is taken, says the newspaper, the Bolsheviki commissioners intend to flee into Turkestan.

ence. He will get the cobwebs pulled out of his eyes by the sturdy fishermen of Ferryland.

Harry Brownrigg harps upon a single string and that is to put the Reds in their proper place. What does he take the sensible men of St. John's West to be in the light of the charge made by Coaker with regard to the $5,000 which Squires got from the Reds.

Curtin will require a lot of yeast cakes to take the rise out of the East End Liberals. Who told him that Squires was an old stock Liberal. Has he been asleep all his life to try and snuff the intelligence of St. John's East.

Torbay and every other portion of the external portions of St. John's East despises the unsavory Squires. Not ten men out of over two thousand who will vote there will give a vote for a Squires candidate.

The ratepayer of St. John's who put Brownrigg into the Council to defend their interests do not forget how he abandoned them because his "dignity" was offended by some high toned official during the visit of the Prince of Wales. That was a matter for which the people who elected him were not responsible. Hence he only displayed a lack of backbone in running away from the position he was elected to serve in.

The electors of St. John's West will therefore have no use for this "don't-tread-on-the-tail-of-my-coat" kind of candidate, more particularly when he offers himself as a colleague of the unsavory Squires.

Port Rexton once the stronghold of Coakerism has changed completely and will cast a solid vote in favor of Stone, Matthews and Carnell.

Around Greenspond, Waulavilla, Newtown and other large sections of Bonavista Bay North, the life has swung completely in favor of Morris, W. Winsor, and Forbes. Coaker is sick at the outlook.

The third day of November will furnish once for all Coaker's desire to foist his servants on the intelligent people of Newfoundland.

Beware of Squires is the warning by those who have been up against him in the past. And the men who speak thus know their sorrow their reason for speaking thus.

NOTE OF THANKS.—Mr. Jno. Murphy of Carter's Hill, wishes to thank Matron Winslow and husband, Nurses Taylor and Green; also Dr. Roberts and the employees of St. George's Hospital for their kindness to him during his stay at the institution.

Wonderful Meeting!

Petty Harbor Will Give Sir M. P. Cashin's Candidates a Big Vote—Bennett Mullaly and Martin Will Carry West End With a Record Majority.

The biggest political meeting in the History of Petty Hr. was held last night. The gathering which included practically every voter in the settlement, as well as many from Maddox Cove and the Goulds, assembled in St. Andrew's Hall, on the South Side of the Harbor. Upwards of 300 voters were present, and the attention given the different speakers was a complete answer from Petty Harbor that they will not allow outsiders from here, there and everywhere to rob Hon. John R. Bennett and his colleagues of their seats in St. John's West. At last night's meeting, some of the oldest men in Petty Harbor attended, as also did the young voters in full force. Mr. Thos. Whitten, one of the most highly respected among the fishermen of the Harbor was moved to the chair, and on taking his position was greeted with hearty applause. The chairman in his opening remarks complimented St. John's West in their choice of the Liberal Progressive candidates, and paid a splendid tribute to the work done by Hon. Mr. Bennett for the district during the last sixteen years. Petty Harbor has not been forgotten during that time and he was sure the voters of the settlement would stand shoulder to shoulder in again sending back to the House of Assembly Mr. Bennett and also his colleagues, Messrs. Mullaly and Martin. Mr. Mullaly was the first candidate called upon to address the meeting, and in a twenty minute speech he outlined the policy of the Liberal Progressive Party, and what it meant for the uplift of the fishermen and workmen of the Dominion. Sir Michael Cashin's Manifesto was not made up of a lot of useless words and empty promises as was the Coaker Manifesto. It was clear and concise. No promises were made that could not be fulfilled, while on the other hand the Coaker-Squires combination were holding out all kinds of promises, with neither desire nor intention of carrying them out.

The only thing that he saw in the Coaker-Squires manifesto was the promise to keep further taxation on the fishermen, and take it off the wealthy, and it could not be expected otherwise, as Squires who is half blamed for drafting the manifesto, knew as much about the needs of the fishermen as did the man in the moon. Cashin has proven his worth when an attempt was made to devote the Colony's revenue to other sources than for which they were collected and he (Mr. Mullaly) desired to throw out a warning to the whole Colony to be careful, and not to turn the ship of state over to a crowd that were already bankrupt, and only waiting to get aboard to clean her from "keelson to truck" and then scuttle her. No money from the corporations was paying his way in the election. He wanted no job, and he asked no terms when he lined up with the Liberal Progressive Party. He was sorry to say, however, that such could not be said by those on the other side. Mr. Mullaly, after urging upon the voters to be true to their past traditions and guard themselves against being swayed by catch cries, and false promises, asked the voters of Petty Hr. on Polling Day to mark their ballots for BENNETT, MULLALY and MARTIN.

Mr. J. T. Martin was the next speaker and was given an enthusiastic reception when he came forward. Mr. Martin, who is known throughout the whole of St. John's, East and West, as the poor man's friend dwelt at length with the issues before the country. He was a follower of Sir Michael Cashin because he well knew that he stood for an honest and good Government. Government for the whole people and not for a few. An attempt at the present time, he said was being made by a gang of political desperados to get control of public affairs, and in their hand the country over to corporations after they had well provided for themselves. It was a poor policy to swap horses crossing the stream, and to change the men who had been in charge of the country's destinies for the last six months would be a mistake that probably could never be overtaken. Petty Hr. would send them back to where they came from by polling up a record vote for BENNETT, MULLALY and MARTIN.

Hon. J. R. Bennett being introduced by the Chairman, was given one of the warmest receptions ever accorded a public man at Petty Hr. Mr. Bennett, who has served the district well for almost sixteen years, in a speech of one and a half hours, gave a full account of his stewardship as representative of St. John's West during the last six years. After a splendid tribute to the work of the late M. J. Kennedy and Lord Morris, in the interests of St. John's West, he told of the great task which was laid upon him when he was obliged to personally look after the welfare of St. John's West. It was no easy matter, he said, but he challenged any man in Newfoundland to say that he ever shirked his duty. In the absence of Sir Edward Morris, while acting Prime Minister when the merchants complained there was not a ton of salt in Newfoundland, he made with Governor Davidson such an appeal to the Home Government that several steamers of large tonnage quickly arrived with a supply, and the situation was saved. Again, our local ships having been disposed of to the Russian Government, we were faced with one of the most serious matters in our history: We were unable to get our fish to market. But acting on strong representation being made to the British Government that if Newfoundland was to survive she should first market her produce, and again the situation was saved. Mr. Bennett also dealt lengthily with his work as Minister of Militia. He had nothing to be ashamed of in this connection. Everything that it was possible for a man to do he had done while head of the dept. He had been vilified and abused by the Opposition press, but without any justification. He was abused because he went to England and France in the interests of the Regiment. It was no easy time for him. He had to cross the Atlantic at the very time the submarine menace was at its worst, and while in England he spent his time in the hospitals and at the Convalescent homes, and at the War Office. While in France he obtained leave for the Blue Puttees boys, who were being refused every other Colonial regiment. Those who were abusing and vilifying him shirked and went to the tall woods when they should be giving some service to the Empire. His villifiers took no part whatever in trying to help on the great fight. They were more contented hiding behind fat fees, and for that matter gloated over German victories. Mr. Bennett in continuing, reviewed the Cashin manifesto, which he considered a very sane policy, and one that could be easily carried out. The Squires-Coaker manifesto was nothing more nor less than a jumble of empty words, a mess of clap-trap which he was sure very few of the intelligent people of the country would go to the trouble of reading. At this critical period in our history a policy of reconstruction was needed, not a policy of destruction as the dual leaders were handing out. Their policy was the protection of the corporations and the monied interests, and it was probably from some of these concerns that they were getting the thousands of dollars they were throwing about in their political campaign. A lot of penniless men in their own right, were offered as candidates by the Opposition, but since they announced themselves as candidates they were talking in thousands. The country could not afford to trust its destinies at such a particular time in the hands of men who only a few days ago were at each others throats. Their only one desire was to get charge of the Colony's funds. If the electors of Newfoundland wanted to keep the Colony's credit sound and keep themselves at home and in comfort, they would elect the Liberal-Progressive Government. If they desired to kill the Colony's credit, and wanted to see out an existence abroad, they could do so by selling out to the corporation and electing the Coaker-Squires candidates. Hon. Mr. Bennett in conclusion said he knew what the verdict was so far as St. John's West was concerned and particularly the voters of Petty Hr., who would mark their ballots on polling day for Bennett, Mullaly and Martin.

Mr. L. G. Chafe, Chairman of the West End Liberal-Progressive Committee, and a native of Petty Hr., being called upon by the chairman, delivered a brief address. Mr. Chafe dealt with the catch cries of the Squires candidates and the price of fish. Coaker, a couple of years ago, said Mr. Chafe, told the fishermen of the north that the price of fish was what he made it. Last year he tried to get the Government to fix the price at $12.00, which would have meant a loss of several millions of dollars to the fishermen, and the present year Coaker was sulking in his bungalow in Port Union, and sending out circulars, but very much unable to put up the price of fish. Give Coaker and Squires charge of the public funds, said Mr. Chafe, and they will fix prices alright and fix everything else as well. Your money and your homes are in danger, continued the speaker, if you hand over authority to the crew of political wreckers who are stopping at nothing to get aboard the ship of State, and once aboard, with the one object of getting away with the cargo. Mr. Chafe also referred to the filthy literature being circulated by the Squires-Coaker clique. He asked the men to destroy the rotten stuff as soon as it reached them, and not have it get about their homes or into the hands of their children and wives. No more backwardly attempt to degrade the voters of the country and insult their decency was ever made, and he felt sure that the people all over the Island and certainly the honest Christian people of Petty Hr. would resent it.

After cheers had been given for the Chairman, for Petty Hr., the Liberal-Progressive candidates and Mr. Chafe, the meeting closed at 11 o'clock with the National Anthem.

Petty Hr. will poll a solid vote for Bennett, Mullaly and Martin.
