SATISFACTORY TO NONE.

LONDON, March 29.

John R. Clynes, Labor member for Manchester Northeast, and who was a member of the parliamentary group which early in the year visited Ireland, to investigate conditions there, in moving the rejection of the Home Rule Bill in the House of Commons to-day, referred to the effect, on British American relations, of the present system of Government in Ireland, of imprisonment and deportation without redress. Mr. Clynes declared that the Bill had been accepted by few, and approved by none of what he termed the undue tenderness the Bill displayed toward Ulster, and the proposal to partition Ireland on a religious basis. Lord Robert Cecil, former assistant Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, agreed that it was a very bad bill without an atom of Irish opinion behind it, and lacking in Irish approval. He said he failed to see how it would conciliate American opinion. If that were the object of British policy he declared that British would get the respect and affection of the American people "not of politicians, or of the people who governed as a trained body in the Senate," if Great Britain did the right thing from the view point of justice and good administration and left American opinion to follow and understand what our actions mean. Lord Robert added that the Bill would not restore order in Ireland and he declared it was fantastic nonsense to force a scheme of self government on a country that utterly rejects it.

ENTIRELY INADEQUATE.

WASHINGTON, Mar. 29.

COWARDLY ASSASSIN.

MONTREAL, Mar. 29.

The Star to-night publishes the following Dublin cable: "Thomas Dwyer was called from his home at Thurles early to-day by an armed party, and was shot to death. The circumstances of his murder was almost identical with those in the murder of James MacCarthy, Sinn Fein leader, who was shot and killed in the bedroom of his home at Thurles Saturday. The Dwyer murder was believed to be another proof of the belief that two rival murder societies were warring upon sympathizers of Sinn Fein and the British Government throughout Ireland."

DEATH LIST INCREASING.

CHICAGO, Mar. 29.

The death list of the Palm Sunday tornado, that swept sections of eight states, to-night stood at 160. Telegraph and telephone service with many isolated communities in the middle west had only been partly restored to-night, and indications were that the toll of death and destruction would be augmented. The property loss in the Chicago area alone was estimated at $5,000,000, while in the other states affected the material loss was large. Elgin, Illinois, suffered the heaviest property loss, the damage there being $4,000,000. Illinois was the hardest hit of the central states with 50 dead, more than 1000 injured, and two thousand made homeless.

CHANGE IN IRISH POLICY.

LONDON, March 29.

The appointment of Sir Neville MacCreedy, Chief of the Metropolitan Police, as military commander in Ireland, foreshadows a change in the Irish policy of the British Government, according to the Daily Mail. The Government intends to abolish some of the vexatious restrictions, the Mail says, and in that respect the new regime will be more tolerant. At the same time the new administration will be empowered to obtain greater efficiency for police service in Ireland.

Summary of Home and Foreign News.

HORSEA, Mar. 30.—Following this meeting which was held by the Government last night to consider coal miners demands, the executive had a further interview with the Premier this morning, when an opening offer was made by the Premier on behalf of the Government. The new proposal is a twenty per cent. advance upon gross earnings, excluding special increases granted during and since war, with guaranteed minimum rates of two shillings per day for men, one shilling for youths between sixteen and eighteen, and nine pence for boys under sixteen. The original demands of the miners were for three shillings per day for men, and one and sixpence for boys. In the afternoon the new offer was submitted to conference of the miners delegates, when conference decided to have a ballot of the individual miners as to whether the Government offer should be accepted or a strike should be declared. The ballot is returnable by April fourteenth, and the result will be declared on the following day. Moderate leaders expect victory for the policy of no strike.

Grand Sacred Concert.

The united choirs of the R. C. Churches are now practicing for a Sacred Concert to be held in the R. C. Cathedral some time next month. The united choir will consist of nearly 300 voices, the largest choir ever assembled here.—The Church choirs taking part are, Cathedral, St. Thomas's, St. Mary's, St. Michael's, R. C. Cathedral, St. Patrick's, St. Joseph's, Cochrane St., Gover St., George St., Wesley, St. Andrew's, and Congregational. A practice was held in the C.C.C. Hall last night, Mr. Charles Hutton being conductor. The proceeds will be used to defray expenses in connection with the organ in the R. C. Cathedral. Five choruses have been prepared as follows: "The Heavens are Telling," "The Marvellous Work" from "The Creation," "Worthy is the Lamb" and the "Hallelujah Chorus" from "The Messiah," "The Infamatus Est" from "Rossinis Stabat Mater." There will also be sacred solos, duets, trios, and some leading artists. In the year of 1893, a somewhat similar concert was held but only about 150 people took part.

Novel Distribution.

For some time past the detective force have been shadowing a West End man who was suspected of violating the prohibition law. Of late this man was noticed to be getting rather corpulent. The police having an idea that it was not from the result of over-eating, a strict watch was kept. Yesterday the house of this man was visited and in a search the result of this artificial distention was disclosed. A large tin (like a curie-cut tobacco tin), measuring 1 inch thick by 12 inches square made to shape to fit snugly on the person, was seized. This tin which holds one gallon was used to carry moonshine which it is thought was delivered to various customers. The police have not ceased their efforts and in a day or so may bring other interesting facts to light. The workmanship and skill used in making this latest aid to illegal selling, is of a high order. (For useful inventions, Newfoundlanders can't be beaten.)

A Reasonable View. The city lies as much exercised over the present unsatisfactory working of the Prohibition Law. Both the Prohibitionists and Antis have held meetings on the subject and quite a discussion is going on in the newspapers. The moderates are in favor of improvement in the present law and would like to have some new regulation, presumably favoring the Swedish system. The Prohibitionists are also for improvement, but want the law amended so as to do away to a large extent with the evils that result from the law as it now stands. The Prohibitionists seem to take the position that all who hold that the present law is not a good one are against Prohibition. A very extreme view, and one that is not borne out by fact. There are many teetotalers, and scores of moderate drinkers, who do not hesitate to say that the Prohibition laws have proven unworkable and are not what they were expected to be. There are thousands of people in the Dominion to-day who voted for Prohibition who would reverse their vote if it were to stand in its present form. No one wants the open bar. The abuse reported about the issuing of scripts by some of our medical men, is sufficient for hundreds to hesitate in adding their help to such an unfair and unjust use of the privileges granted in the Prohibition law.—Hr. Grace Standard.
