THE Acta Diurna, of ancient Rome, is the earliest approach to the newspaper of which we have any authentic record. The Acta appeared daily until the downfall of the Empire, A. D. 476. It was published under the auspices of the government and posted in some public place, the contents consisting of a digest of public dockets, a summary of daily occurrences and all news of a general character. ACCORDING to the laws of good society in China young widows should not remarry. Widowhood is, therefore, held in the highest esteem, and the older the widow grows the more agreeable her position becomes. Should she reach 50 years she, by applying to the emperor, gets a sum of money with which to buy a tablet, on which her virtues are named. The tablet is placed over the door at the principal entrance to her house. PROFESSOR FALB, of Berlin, prophesies a very probable collision between the earth and the of 1866 on Nov. 13, 1899, when the comet will cut the point where the earth arrives every year at that time. But he does not think harm could come of such a collision, the material of the comet being so light, unless the carbonic acid gas of which it is probably composed should poison our atmosphere. But, anyway, he says we may look out for a magnificent shower of meteors on that date. THE United States Government is seeing by precept and example to induce towns with names ending in the forms burgh, borough, bore, and burg to adopt this last form. Burg is the usual pronunciation in the United States of the form burgh, and most Americans refuse to sound the final h." even of Edinburgh. These several suffixes, and, as well, bury, brough, and barrow, are related to the Anglo-Saxon verb beorgan and the German bergen, to hide or to shelter. The several suffixes are also related to several Anglo-Saxon forms meaning an earthwork, and from this came the application of such suffixes to indicate a fortified town. Among the pains and aches cured with marvelous rapidity with Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil is earache. The young are especially subject to it, and the desirability of this Oil as a family remedy is enhanced by the fact that it is admirably adapted not only to the above ailment, but also to the hurts, disorders of the bowels, and affections of the throat, to which the young are specially subject. The word with the most syllables is lati-
