of Atrocious Crime.

Auburn, N. Y., Aug. 30.-Crucifix in hand and muttering a prayer in Italian Atonio Giorg'o was speedily put to death in the electric chair at 6:28 o'clock this morning. As he appreached the chair and during the strapping process his utterance became greatly tremolo. His Italian spiritual advisor tried to calm him, but nothing could stay the torrent of words short of the death bolt itself, and the victim was in the midst of a sentence when the first shock came. Rev. Father Cannali, of Rochester, who had received his confession the night before, and who attended him to the finish said that his incoherent words were an invocation for forgiveness, After the first contact of 1,740 volts, 61/2 amperes, the stethoscopes still detected a slight flutter and two more shocks were turned on, although State Electrician Davis was positive death was caused by the first. Giorgio was rather a repulsive under-sized Sicilian, his head coming but half way to the top of the chair. He was 27 years old.
