From day to day since the opening of these departments new things have been added to our stocks and the new and spacious display rooms were never so interesting and attractive as at the present time. This floor is well worthy of a visit and will repay you even if you take it only from an educational standpoint. Our model furnished home is ready for your inspection. Here you may pick up some ideas in furnishing which you can put into practical use in your own home, the hanging of a curtain or the draping of a window. See the oldfashioned lambrequins that were in vogue in our great grandmother's days, and are coming back with the quaint furniture of the good old times.
