German Emperor Telegraphs Quatrais to Twenty Young Ladies.

Berlin, July 19 .- Twenty German girls who are studying physical culture at Loftus, near Odde, sent a telegraphic request to Emperor William last week that they be permitted to visit his majesty and bring an offering of fruit and flowers while the imperial yacht Hohenzollern was in the vicinity of Odde.

The emperor replied, inviting the girls to tea. The delighted young women arrived in due season, bringing with them a quantity of chocolate to make doubly sure their welcome. After the yacht had sailed the emperor telegraphed to the girls a quaread as follows:

You who with us your chocolate drank, Fair maidens, one and all, we thank; And wish your lives as sweet may seem. As sugared chocolate crowned with cream. The verses were signed "William II.

and Travelling Companions." FORMER LONDONER GETS ST. THOMAS HOTEL
