Special Sale Shantung Silk

1,850 Yards, Fine Quality, 50c Yard SEE WINDOW

TO ADVANCE in the price of these silks with us this season, notwithstanding if we had our purchases to make today we would be obliged to pay at least an advance of 20%. It may have been more by good luck than good management, however. We were advised or rather forewarned that prices for this season would be advanced, and our orders were rushed to headquarters months ago. The shipment just received is superior to the samples of last season, being much finer and more even in weave and color in this particular line, and with only 1,850 yards in the shipment, we would advise securing your supply while this lot lasts, as such quality at this popular price will create a demand for more than we will have

Shantung (linen color) Silk is now generally used for ladies' and children's underwear, dresses, waists, night dresses, etc., also for men's and boys' shirts, pyjamas and underwear. Also for interior decorations for the home, draperies, curtains and hangings. These silks come in about 181/2-yard pieces. Sold in any quantity or same price by the piece. 34 inches wide,

Mail orders filled while it lasts. Samples sent on request.
