forget her, and that in et some one else whom I . That made me never could do that. If would go away to Afto see her and so I stay-net her for weeks until them full of tears. Per-, but something seemed she was sorry, almost about our trouble, and smiled in a sad sort of roke me all up, and I if the room, or I should there before them all. meeting in heaven, you. were running down the heeks, "and I couldn't and came out here. When and came out here. When own a bit I'm going to her. waiting about somewhere. thing, but she's never the thing, but she's never the drew his hand and smiled. "I came out nat I guess I must have two who were here, they left in such a hurry." He . "I hope you won't think speaking of this," he went dding his head. Then as said anything, he looked eally loved me after all.

red oath Jack arose from He went to the other end h, quickly down the steps garden. Douglas turned nis arms still folded on his slowly back to the ballstood as in a dream until t of a blue dress approach the dearest voice in the some one whom he could to the other verandah.

be Swiss valleys the inhabi-filicted with goirre or "thick I of regarding this as a de-seem to think it a natural sical development, and tourthe goitrous inhabitants, bewithout this offensive swelorm of disease may become t it is regarded as a natural condition of life. It is so, t, with what are called disen. Every woman suffersrom irregularity, ulceration, dins, or female weakness, and s so common and so univerwomen accept it as a condiad necessary to their sex.
ddition as unnatural as it is.
The use of Dr. Pierce's Fav-

ALVERT'S ic Tooth Powder

6d., and 1 lb. 5s. tins, or lic Tooth Paste

1s., and 1s. 6d Pots,

g the teeth and strengthening the gums.

repared with Calvert's purest e best dental preservative. They breath and prevent infection ations which are numerous and

VERT & CO., MANCHESTER. 35 Gold and Silver Medals, &c. AGENTS: RSON BROS., DRUGGISTS, VICTORIA.

S'S COCOA

COMFORTING uished everywhere for y of Flavour Superior, and Highly Nutritive ies. Specially grateand dyspeptic. Sold 1-1. tins, labelled EPPS & CO., Ltd. condop England.

OL&STEEL Ladies. PILLS

all Chemists, or post free for EVANS & SONS, LTD., Vic-

Pharmaceutical Chemist, Southampton.

nd Ornamental Trees

M. J. HENRY

The Semi-Weekly Colonist.

FORTY SECOND YEAR

THE VICTORIA SEMI-WEEKLY COLONIST THURSDAY, APRIL 5, 1900

VOLUME XLII -- NO. 50

The Prince Menaced.

Boy Anarchist at Brussels Fires Two Shots at Prince of Wales.

His Royal Highness Travelling Birthday Party.

No injury Sustained and the Boy Secured-Effect on the Queen's Visit.

London, April 4.-The Prince and Princess of Wales started for Copenhagen this morning for the purpose of celebration of King established in cities. attending the Christian's birthday, which occurs on April 8th.

Brussels, April 4.—The Prince of Cecil Rhodes Wales was shot at as the train was leaving the northern railroad station but the shots missed His Royal High-

The would-be assassin is a tinsmith natural Sipido, a resident of Brussels, 16 years of age. His pockets were found to be full of anarchist literature. He fired two shots at the Prince of Wales. The Princess of Wales and others were in the car but no one was touched. When examined by the railroad station officials Sipido declared he intended to kill the Prince of Wales, that he didn't regret his act, and that he was ready to do it again if given, a chance to do so.

Hearing the shots, the station master rushed to the scene and knocked down the would-be assassin's arm as he prepared to fire a third shot, and a number of persons threw themselves on the Prince's assailant. In the confusion a second man who was quite innocent was wish is now being fully told. It appears that the relations between the of persons threw themselves on the Prince's assailant. In the confusion a second man who was quite innocent was seized, roughly handled and beaten. After the Prince of Wales ascertained that the man who fired the shots had been arrested he declared himself and the Princess uninjured and the train started. Intense excitement prevailed for the moment, as it was feared the Prince had been hit, the shots having been fired almost point blank. The railway carriage door was hastily thrown open, and great relief was felt when the Prince himself appeared at the window unhurt. Both the Prince and the Princess, however, had a very narrow escape.

The policeman on duty took Sipido in charge. The latter appeared proud of his exploit, and seemed quite calm.

All the authorities that he lived a Forge, at Sainte Gilles. The attack is condemned even at the labor headquarters here and at the Maison du Peuple, where the extreme anarchists meet, a leading member of the young socialists' guard was loud in his denunciation this evening of Sipido's action. Le Patriote, in a special edition denounces the attempt as "cowardly and senseless," and says it will create general indignation, and the worst enemy of Belgium could not have dealt the country a fouler blow.

attempts are contagious. On the other hand, those who are best acquainted with Ireland, contend that the only effect would be to increase the determination of the Irish that no untoward incident should mar the success of the Queen's

The news of the attempt on the life the Prince of Wales was immediately elegraphed to Queen Victoria.

NOTES FROM THE CAPITAL. Kettle River Railway Bill in the Bal ance-No Report on the Stumbles Mission.

tle River bill will be decided to-morrov Sir Louis Davies told Col. Prior to day that it is not the intention to pu not been read for years.

Mr. Maxwell has left for home owing to the illness of his mother.

The Senate has adjourned until the tween Mr. Cecil Rhodes and Col. Kekepears that the relations between the out of the house. The dispute is told

When Mr. Rhodes saw the danger to the time had arrived for the facts of the case to be placed on record. He accordduly forwarded to Col. Kekewich, ac- their glorious past. I pray that the

At Dublin

Her Majesty Makes Touching Reply to Mayor's Address of Welcome.

Ottawa, April 4.—The fate of the Ket- Much Affected by the Warmth of Welcome by the Irish Populace.

lish a report of Officer, Stumbles, who visited British Columbia last year. He also said it is not intended to place additional tide gauges in that province. The records of the two existing gauges have Dublin, April 4.-Queen Victoria landed in Ireland this morning for the first time in 39 years. The debarkation from the royal yacht was accomplished at in Ireland, the Duke of Connaught, the lord lieutenant, Eard Cadogan, and staffs greeted Her Majesty on her arrival at Kingstown. The journey from And Kekewich Kingstown to Dublin commenced in splendid weather and before a huge, good-natured crowd. The Queen's progress from Kingstown to the vice-regal lodge was marked with great enthusiasm. There were no untoward incilents. At the entrance to the city she received an address of welcome and handed the Lord Mayor a reply, in which she said she had come to Ireland for rest and quiet, and that it gave her great gladness to return to the land of so many happy associations, whose soldiers had recently fought so gallantly.

The following is Her Majesty's reply in "I thank you heartily for the loyal welcome and good wishes which you 'empire-maker," and the Colonel commanding at Kimberley reached such a pass that Mr. Rhodes ordered the officer mains. I come to this fair country to spek a change and rest, and to re-visit scenes which recall to my mind the warm welcome given to both myself and my beloved husband. I am deeply dratified that I have been able at this valor, as conspicuous now as ever the top of the gate came a fanfare of trumpets. The Queen was in sight. Out upon a scarlet cloth, laid Raleighlike upon the muddy road, stepped the Lord Mayor and the corporation, their robes glowing in the bright sunshine and their wands and maces flashing brilliantly. The gate creaked open. The Eary of Denbigh rode through, then came the Life Guards. Ireland had not seen the Life Guards for over thirty years, and many were the curious then came the Life Guards, Ireland had not seen the Life Guards for over thirty years, and many were the curious comments made as they galloped past. Behind them were carriages containing the home secretary, Sir Matthew White Ridley; the Duchess of Connaught and her daughters, accompanied by members of the court and attended by mounted equerries; in the end more Life Guards.

Amidst almost silence save for the echo of cheers and the hum of "God Save the Queen" from outside the city limits, came the Queen herself. Opposite her in the carriage sat Princess Christian and Princess Henry of Battenberg. The moment Her Majesty passed the gate the enthusiasm broke out. Bands played; men cheered, shouted and sang, all bareheaded; and the women waved their handkerchiefs and struggled to get a better view, many of them even weeping for joy. Beside the Queen's carriage rode the Duke of Connaught, commander of the forces in Ireland. During the five minutes when the Queen was receiving and anywaring Connaught, commander of the forces in Ireland. During the five minutes when the Queen was receiving and answering the address of welcome, there was scarcely a lull in the frantic cheers from the crowds. Frequently Her Majesty nodded; in fact she scarcely ceased nodding during the entire nine-mile drive. Princess Christian also took a prominent part in the exercise the scarce of the control of a prominent part in the ceremony ing the Queen to take the sword, keys and casket containing the address, for despite her ability to go through the functions it was evident the Queen was functions it was evident the Queen was really very frail and weak.

After the Lady Mayoress had presented a bouquet to the Queen, the procession moved on. Behind Her Majesty came a dazzling escort of staff officers, more Life Guards and Dragoons, and finally the Inniskillings, who were loudly cheered as they moved into line.

During the evening the Queen, through Sir Arthur Bigge, her private secretary, sent to the Lord Mayor a message, saying that she was not overfatigued by the morning's drive and had been deeply touched and gratified by the welcome she had received. The message concluded as follows: "Her Majesty looks forward with much pleasure to her stay in Ireland."

LULL IN THE CAMPAIGN. End of Cavalry Pursuit East of Bloen

London, April 4.-General Colville and General French have given up the tinguished themselves in the defence of Roberts a vain thing to send from ten to companied by the request that he transmit it by telegraph to the high military you in the high functions which you probably moved elsewhere, and if to the

Baking Powder

Dr. Price's Baking Powder is the true friend of all the people, rich and poor alike. It supplies a pure, wholesome leavening agent, which makes the biscuit and cake of highest healthfulness at medium cost and protects the food from alum, which is the greatest dietary danger of the day.

The foremost baking powder in all the world.

PRICE BAKING POWDER CO.

Note.—Alum baking powders are low priced, as alum costs but two cents a pound; but alum is a corrosive poison and it renders the baking powder dangerous to use in food,

Slowly Killing The Emperor

Latest Rumors of Efforts to Remove Nominal Ruler of China.

The street is a street in the common more to the theory of the latting of the same and the langer of passed containing data, and the langer of the latting o

A sensational side feature of the Chinese political puzzle has developed in the arrest on Portuguese soil of Klang Lien Shan, one of those listed to be assassinated. He was apprehended at Macao, the arrest being made on a charge of embezzlement from the Imperial Chinese Telegraphs, of which he had charge at Shanghai. The Portuguese authorities, although they made

PRETORIA'S DEFENCES.

nent American Who Has Viewed Them Gives an Interesting

New York, April 4.-Interviewed by Another Casualty in the First Canadian this morning announcing the death from enteric fever of Private H. Forrest, of the 61st Battalion (Montmagny and L'Islet, who went with the Quebec com-