

Grand Duke's Requiems

Bells of Moscow Toll All Day and Masses Celebrated Before Shrines.

MOSCOW, Feb. 21.—The bells of Moscow's 500 churches are tolling today, requiem masses are being celebrated, and before many shrines priests are constantly chanting prayers for the repose of the soul of the murdered Grand Duke Sergius. His remains will rest in the cemetery, whether they were removed yesterday.

The widowed Grand Duchess Elizabeth is prostrated. She was not even able to attend the requiem mass.

Touching messages have been received by the Grand Duchess from Emperor Nicholas, and her sister, the Empress. Troops are patrolling inside the Kremlin, all the entrances of which continue to be closed to the public.

All the shops are closed, and the newspapers appeared with mourning borders. Some students have been roughly handled in the streets.

A memorial service today at the memorial church of the Tschu monastery was attended by Grand Duchesses Elizabeth and Grand Duchesses Maria, and Grand Dukes Constantine and Dimitri, all high civil and military officials, representatives of the municipal body and Zemstvo and of different classes of society and foreign consuls.

Body of Sergius Still Rests in Kremlin Guarded by the Sentinels.

Terrific Explosion of Bomb Left But Small Fragments of Victim.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 18.—President Roosevelt has not abandoned his idea of effecting arrangements for international arbitration. Instructions will be given to the representatives to press the matter.

The body of Grand Duke Sergius lies in an oak coffin with silver eagles at its head and foot. It stands on a silver bier among a mass of growing palms. There are two wreaths on the casket, one from Grand Duchesses Elizabeth and the other from the late Grand Duke's suite.

The coffin is guarded daily by a grand duke palatine, a second grand duke palatine, and a grand duke palatine by a grand duke palatine. The coffin is guarded by a grand duke palatine, a second grand duke palatine, and a grand duke palatine.

Lungs

is inhaled it catches organs, sore spots, catarrh, etc. An in five minutes; from the first pain in the chest, it brings new nose and lungs. I caught it on my lungs, up of Bedford, quickly and happily, rhosone highly, es two months' ment to cure. Get a druggist today.

BIGAMIST.

path of One of continued.

The inquest into the Walcker-Hoeh Henry Schwann, the man who married in Schultz, had eker in St. Louis was the mother. Not long after ess stated his on ill and died. Louis to take a Charles Reinhardt, me that the doctor-lawyer had 1 of arsenic poi-law and myself. a decent man, an our mother-in-law chronic nephritis e of death at the wedding. Two days later I get that Hoch had paying the doctor's nerve, sudden of the scalp or back of head, sparks before the speckles, pains and irritability, weakness and gening the symptoms. enough and still us rostration, but ther mind or body tually fatigued. Get air, suitable rest. persistent use of d will thoroughly extreme case of nd prostration. You to such ex- of Mrs. James Woodside, Ont., 33 Murray street, Mrs. S. Cleaveland, street, Montreal, an physician was her assistance. Nerve Food regu- be long before the ore overcome and action begun. Note of strength and red. Foot, 50 cents, at son, Bates & Co., and signature of the famous receipt every box.

NERVES

Case's Food

Governor-General of St. Petersburg Marked for Assassination

To Settle the Songhees Puzzle

Senator Macdonald Offers Practical Plan to Meet Victoria's Wishes.

OTTAWA, Feb. 18.—(Special.)—Senator Macdonald is greatly interested in the removal of the Songhees Indians to another reserve for the benefit of the citizens of Victoria and in their removal to a scheme for ameliorating the existing condition of affairs. In substance his proposal is as follows: A new reserve to be selected in the following manner, the Dominion government as trustees for the Indians, to take the land and a commission of three persons to be appointed to deal with the question of the removal and the selection of a new reserve. The Dominion government to appoint one commissioner, the provincial government to appoint one, and the chief of the Songhees to be the third commissioner; the reserve to be selected and paid for by the province, and buildings of a house for each family to be commenced at once, and since a building to serve as a school-house and church to be erected. The Indians to be compensated for the cottages erected on the old reserve within a limit of $1500 per family; and the chief to receive $15 per month for one year. The money to be credited of the Songhees to be first applied to defray the charges on the reserve, and to be met in such proportion and manner as the Dominion and provincial government may determine. In the event of the Indians to be allowed, although the determination with regard to the proposed scheme is to be exercised. Thirty days' notice to be given the Songhees' chief to be ready with his people to move to the new reserve. The Dominion steamer Quadra, at the end of thirty days' notice to anchor off the Songhees' village, take the Indians and their effects on board and their canoes to tow and proceed to the new reserve and there disembark.

Manitoba and Enlargement.

In an interview tonight with the Colonist, Hon. Mr. Rogers, Manitoba's minister of public works, who with Attorney-General Campbell, had been in several days in conference with the Dominion government respecting Manitoba's status in the creation of the new province, says that he had seen a report of the strong claims of his province would be recognized in the autonomous manner, and he had seen a report of the strong claims of his province would be recognized in the autonomous manner, and he had seen a report of the strong claims of his province would be recognized in the autonomous manner.

Further Evidences of Unrest

That unrest is still prevalent within the empire is evidenced by the fact that a district official at Igarka was assassinated by revolutionaries for political reasons yesterday and that at Vagarshad the mayor was shot and killed while at Kishenev an attack was made by an unknown man on the prefect of police of that city.

The Emperor of Russia, by a ukase issued yesterday, restored to favor in the imperial family the Grand Duke Paul Alexander, who some years ago was degraded of rank and honors because in opposition to the will of the Emperor and the wishes of the imperial family he contracted a morganatic marriage with Mme. Olga Platonovna. In accordance with the decree, Grand Duke Paul is reinstated with his title and military status and as general aide-de-camp to His Majesty will attend the funeral of Grand Duke Sergius, his brother.

The body of the Grand Duke Sergius lies in the Choudoff monastery at Moscow, where an honorary guard keeps vigil and priests intone prayers for the repose of his soul.

BATTLESHIP REFLOATED.

Berlin, Feb. 18.—The German battleship here from Berlin, on the Austro-Serbian front, was reported to be moving toward Goudzhou pass, Mongolia.

JAPANESE CAVALRY MOVING.

Mukden, Feb. 18.—Large bodies of Japanese cavalry are reported to be moving toward Goudzhou pass, Mongolia.

SIR CHARLES TUPPER SAILS.

Boston, Feb. 18.—Among the passengers who sailed today for Europe were Sir Charles Tupper, formerly prime minister of Canada, Lady Tupper and Miss Tupper.

SHRAPNEL FOR BULGARIANS.

Vienna, Feb. 18.—A despatch received here from Berlin, on the Austro-Serbian frontier, says some 20 freight cars loaded with shrapnel and other ammunition passed there today bound for Sofia, Bulgaria.

UNCLE SAM'S PENSION LIST.

Appropriation Bill Amounting to $138,250,000 Passes Congress.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 18.—The House today passed the pensions appropriation bill, carrying $138,250,100. The bill was passed in the form in which it came from the committee.

AN AUDACIOUS ROBBERY.

New York, Feb. 18.—One of the most audacious of the recent robberies in this city occurred in the Bronx early this morning when a highwayman attacked Mr. and Mrs. John W. Cornish in front of their home, snatched a $5,000 brooch from Mrs. Cornish's throat, fired two bullets through the clothing of Mr. Cornish and escaped after an exciting chase with a policeman, in which several shots were exchanged.

THE SITUATION AT LODZ.

Printers' Strike and Hand Bills Temporarily Take Place of Newspapers.

Lodz, Feb. 18.—The town is quiet. There is no change in the strike situation excepting that the composers struck Friday evening and newspapers are not being printed.

The announcement of the Grand Duke-Sergius assassination was circulated by means of handbills.

AUSTRIAN INSINCERITY.

Vienna Journals Express Hypocritical Regrets at Sergius' End.

Vienna, Feb. 18.—Some of the newspapers here express regret that the assassination of Grand Duke Sergius in terms that do not have a sincere ring. They declare that the deed did not cause surprise, and that it was quite to be expected when the man and his policy were considered. Other papers do not veil the satisfaction they feel at the death of the Grand Duke.

GERMAN COURT IN MOURNING.

Berlin, Feb. 18.—Owing to the assassination of Grand Duke Sergius, Emperor William has ordered eight days' court mourning. An hour after the news of the assassination of Grand Duke Sergius reached Berlin, Emperor William drove to the Russian embassy and expressed personally to Von Assolowsky, the Russian ambassador, his horror and requested him to confer his deepest sympathy to Emperor Nicholas. An informal regatta was held at the Russian embassy at noon today for the repose of the soul of Grand Duke Sergius.

AT A GREEN OLD AGE.

Portage, Wis., Feb. 18.—Mrs. Sophia Westover died today at Wyocena, Wis., in her 105th year. Her father assisted in the capture of Fort Ticonderoga under Ethan Allen.

Development of Island

Intention of the C. P. R. in Near Future to Extend Line to North.

OTTAWA, Feb. 19.—The railway committee of the House of Commons today passed the Kootenay, Cariboo and Pacific railway bill, granting an extension of time of five years.

Charles Drinkwater, secretary of the C. P. R., today confirmed the report from the Pacific coast that the company had secured an option upon the B. & N. railway. Today Ralph Smith, of Nanaimo, presented the company's petition for legislation to ratify the proposed purchase. The acquisition of this line by the C. P. R. will, it is expected, lead to considerable development on the island, as it is the company's intention to extend the line northward to Comox, and possibly farther.

The Northwest delegations now here are united in protesting against federal interference in the school affairs of the Territories.

Hon. Mr. Fisher will introduce a bill to provide for the incorporation of agricultural societies.

Lady Grey is ill with a cold, and her two daughters have the measles. The trip to Toronto has been postponed.

The Lake Superior Company claim first bounty on steel rails, $3 per ton for twenty thousand tons.

Today the approval of the plan of the Pacific coast terminus of the Grand Trunk Pacific were withheld, as it would be premature to give it. Premier Laurier said it was impossible to say when Hon. Mr. Sifton would be back in the house, as his progress to the west has not been as rapid as was to be hoped.

Mr. Casgrain introduced a bill to provide that the clerks of the Senate and Commons respectively, shall issue certificates to members, and they shall be recognized by all railway conductors as entitling them to free transportation in the provinces. It has been promised.

The G. T. P. Terminus.

Judging from the action of the government this week, it is the intention to keep the exact location of the proposed Grand Trunk terminus on the Pacific coast a secret for some time. It is said the official records of the station on the Tsimpsian reserve is to be utilized, and as certain claims have already been filed for land grant locations on the Pacific coast, it is possible that the exact location of the terminus is already known to the public where the exact location of the terminus is already known to the public.

The Canadian Pacific Navigation Co. is getting an increase of $2,500 to its subsidy for steam service in the Pacific waters. Hon. Mr. Patterson, who handles the steamship appropriation, in the House said this small grant was to improve the service on the Pacific coast, but in replying to questions from Hon. Geo. E. Foster he showed that he knew little about the matter. He said Sir Richard Cartwright's desire was to get more frequent trips and although no arrangement had been reached with the company, he was hopeful that $2,500 would accomplish this. Hon. Mr. Foster insisted that before the vote passed, the House must know exactly what the company would be expected to do for the additional amount. Accordingly the vote stood over.

GRAND DUKE'S CHARACTERISTICS.

Fought Hard for Orthodoxy and Autocracy and Was Coarse and Cruel.

London, Feb. 18.—The correspondent at St. Petersburg of the Daily Telegraph asserts that the acting minister of justice on hearing of the news of the assassination of Grand Duke Sergius, exclaimed: "In my country I do not work by compromise. What will happen next?" The correspondent in appreciation of the Grand Duke's character has written several paragraphs in which he has admitted that Sergius was perfectly consistent and that his career was rounded off in a dignified manner. He was a devoted and loyal subject of his Emperor and was highly respected by his subjects, who admired his energy and his forceful personality. He was a very strong character, and his decisions were based on his own principles, and he was not easily influenced by others. He was a very strong character, and his decisions were based on his own principles, and he was not easily influenced by others.

A WONDER WORKER OF SCIENCE.

Scarcely ten years ago Luther Burbank was denounced as an enemy to all true scientific progress, misleading prophet of a new order of things, and a devotee to pass. Today he has become the most eminent man in the world in the production of new and interesting forms of fruits, flowers, vegetables, grasses and nuts. Mr. Burbank is a genius of high rank, and he has been honored by the award of the Lincoln Medal of the National Academy of Sciences. He has been honored by the award of the Lincoln Medal of the National Academy of Sciences.

RAILROAD FIREMEN'S TROUBLE.

New York, Feb. 17.—The sub-committee of the directors of the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railway Co. met here today and considered the grievances presented by the firemen's association. Later the announcement was made that a decision had been reached to the effect that the position of President Mollen, who rejected the firemen's demands, had been sustained. This was made known by Secretary John G. Parker of the company after he had communicated the finding of the committee to the firemen's organization. Major Bromley, advertising agent of the company, issued a statement reviewing the history of the difficulty, and declaring that the company would have the support of all the employees of the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railway Co. looking for a strike, but had made preparations for one. It was said here tonight that the company has 1,500 men ready to replace the firemen in case of a strike.