

THIRD YEAR.

PRICE ONE CENT

H. STONE, THE LEADING UNDERTAKER, 239 YONGE ST.

RETAIL CLOTHING NOTICE.

We beg to inform the public that our stock of New Spring Tweeds, Serge, Worsteds and Trowserings, etc., is now complete, we will continue to make up fine clothing to order as usual, at close prices for cash.

PEILEY & Co, GOLDEN GRIFFIN.

To Her Royal Highness PRINCESS LOUISE I

GRAND SPRING SHOW OF MILLINERY, Feathers, Flowers and FANCY GOODS.

MISS STEVENS, 25 Mounting a Specialty.

SITUATIONS WANTED.

WANTED - WIFE WITH EXPERIENCE.

WANTED - IMMEDIATELY - A YOUNG MAN.

WANTED - A RESPECTABLE PERSON TO WORK FOR.

WANTED - A HOUSEKEEPER TO A GENTLEMAN.

WANTED - A RESPECTABLE WOMAN - WORK BY DAY.

WANTED - A BOY ABOUT 15 YEARS OF AGE.

WANTED - WIFE WITH EXPERIENCE.

SPECIFIC ARTICLES.

THE QUEEN'S WEST, HIGHEST PRICE.

HIGH CASH PRICE PAID FOR CAST-OFF.

REPAIRS REPAIRED AT WILLIAM.

BITTERS AND OTHER HERB REMEDIES.

REPAIRS REPAIRED AT WILLIAM.

ROOMS TO LET.

NICELY FURNISHED DOUBLE AND SINGLE ROOMS.

EDUCATIONAL.

A GENTLEMAN EXPERIENCED IN TEACHING.

LAUNDRIES.

DOMINION STEAM LAUNDRY, 54 AND 56.

FOR SALE.

GOOD SAFE FURNISHED BOAT, WITH OARS.

LOST.

RETURN OF THE PRINCESS.

Arrest of Wm. A. Hall for Embezzling City Funds.

LEGAL.

A - A - ROSE, MACDONALD, MERRITT & CO.

BEATTY, CHADWICK, THOMSON & BLACK.

W. M. HERRICK, J. H. MACDONALD, J. H. COATSWORTH, JR.

W. H. HERRICK, J. H. MACDONALD, J. H. COATSWORTH, JR.

W. H. HERRICK, J. H. MACDONALD, J. H. COATSWORTH, JR.

W. H. HERRICK, J. H. MACDONALD, J. H. COATSWORTH, JR.

W. H. HERRICK, J. H. MACDONALD, J. H. COATSWORTH, JR.

W. H. HERRICK, J. H. MACDONALD, J. H. COATSWORTH, JR.

W. H. HERRICK, J. H. MACDONALD, J. H. COATSWORTH, JR.

W. H. HERRICK, J. H. MACDONALD, J. H. COATSWORTH, JR.

W. H. HERRICK, J. H. MACDONALD, J. H. COATSWORTH, JR.

W. H. HERRICK, J. H. MACDONALD, J. H. COATSWORTH, JR.

W. H. HERRICK, J. H. MACDONALD, J. H. COATSWORTH, JR.

THE REPRESSION BILL.

STILL UNDER DISCUSSION IN THE IMPERIAL PARLIAMENT.

Mr. Davitt's Speech Yesterday - Mr. Parnell Writes a Letter to Bishop Nally - A General Election Imminent.

THE REPRESSION BILL.

In the house of commons to-day Mr. Parnell resumed the debate on the repression bill.

Mr. Davitt's speech yesterday was unwarranted. He regretted the government had not confined itself to the arrears bill, which would have brought about settlement in Irish affairs.

He defended boycotting to a limited extent, as "exercised by English workmen."

He said he and his friends in prison certainly never thought the transfer of land to the occupiers could be effected by any other means than by purchase.

He treated the government, even at the moment, not to shut the door of conciliation.

Mr. Russell (liberal), though sympathizing with Irish aspirations, cordially approved of the provisions of the bill for the abolition of juries, levying fines on dissenters, the right of search and against the importation of alienable literature from America.

Mr. Collings (liberal) predicted a great outcry in England if anybody was hanged in Ireland on judgments arrived at without the verdict of a jury.

Mr. Trevelyan said Earl Spencer had determined that all cases of interference with huts for shelter of evicted persons be submitted to him before the police are allowed to enter.

Mr. Trevelyan said that Clifford Lloyd would not sit in any court under the bill - (Cheers by Irish members) - as the Powers act could only be decided by special magistrates.

Mr. Powers granted that the part relative to public meetings would only be exercised where the meetings took the part of violence.

Mr. Cowen's amendment declaring that while the house is in session, no government in the detection of crime, it disapproves of the restrictions upon a free expression of public opinion in Ireland, was rejected, 344 to 47.

THE TIMES says it cannot be doubted that the speech of Dillon in the commons yesterday was intended to prove to his constituents that he is no party to the Kilmainham compact.

The Standard, discussing the correspondence between Minister Lowell and Secretary Frelinghuysen, says it is a pitiable spectacle to witness the foreign office of the nation to which the story of Weston and Kent belonged, repudiating the elements and principles of international law at the bidding of a few Irish rascals in New York and electing wire-pullers.

A LETTER FROM DAVITT.

A letter from Davitt to Nally, bishop of Meath, violently denouncing the landlords and demanding how the Irish have been misled. Davitt says the Irish have been accused of not giving the land act a fair trial, but the truth is they refuse to give landlordism any more trial.

THE MARQUIS OF SALISBURY, speaking at Sturford, dwelt upon the importance of constitutions, preparing for a general election.

EARL SPENCER, replying to a deputation from the assembly, hoped the improvement already made in the condition of the country would continue, and application of the severer powers of the repression bill would consequently be unnecessary.

MR. PHILIP CANNAN (liberal), member of parliament for Luth, was expelled from the reform club to-day.

A DWARF DEAD.

POSTAL, Mich., May 25 - Mayor Chas. Burdett, a dwarf, 32 inches high, 32 years old, is dead.

QUEEN'S BIRTHDAY AT WASHINGTON.

THE MANITOULIN.

Full List of Passengers and Crew Lost and Saved.

COLLINGWOOD, May 25 - The following is a correct statement of the passengers who took passage on the ill-fated steamer Manito.

Mr. Fanny Ponto, a little girl of Owen Sound; Robert Henry, of Toronto; Thomas Hanbury and wife, of Owen Sound; James Little, employed by Sullivan, Macpherson & Co.; John Hogan, of Toronto; Patrick Fitzpatrick, of Ottawa; and an unknown sick passenger.

Three deck hands also perished; George White, of Muskoka; Joseph Lewis, supposed to be of Chatham; and one whose name was David H. Evans, township of Marrow; James Anson, Ottawa; Joseph Gerwin, Peterboro'; Ellen Guin, Villa Guin, Peterboro'; Jos Parusid, Quebec; Baptiste Fruchette, Pontagnac, Quebec; Mr. McConroy; John Reynolds, Malton; George Jos Dollar, Bracebridge, Chas and John Healy, Stayner; John McDonald, Stayner; John Healy, Stayner; Robert May, Greenham and daughter, and Mrs. Joly and daughter, of Owen Sound; D. Ellison, Perth; M. Ross, St. Joseph's Island; George Batz, Alimra, Waterloo; Thomas (Archie) and Michael O'Leary, Toronto; E. C. Carroll, Canada Pacific railway; George H. Abbott, Canada Pacific railway; John Gray, Mudge Bay; A. B. Spencer, Collingwood; Robert McBride, township of Stayner; George D. McDonald, Gravelly; J. Connel, Mr. Green, and Prof. Galbraith.

Four Hundred of their Homes Burned - The Franco-English Hittinham.

Four hundred houses belonging to Jews were recently burned at Vaelahki, in the government of Gordonia. The agrarian agitation in the Baltic provinces is increasing. It has been quiet in Courland, but in the districts of Livland, have now revived.

THE SUN DO ME.

Mr Isaac Newton Retained by the British Legation - The Rev. Mr. Johnson.

The colored philosopher Mr. Johnson, editor of the British Lion (Hamilton), gave a lecture in refutation of Copernicus, Galileo, Kepler, Newton and other ignorant white men, at Albert Hall last night.

The audience was small and apparently prejudiced in favor of the Newtonian system of astronomy. For they kept talking and cracking nuts during the lecture, for they received deserved rebukes from the lecturer.

Mr. Johnson was next to Sir John Macdonald, the determined cause of the popular man in the country. He next proceeded to Sir Isaac Newton and scientists in general, and endeavored to measure the distance from the earth to the sun.

He (the lecturer) did not understand how the earth was round, and he was round and did not know of earth. It was a flat surface. The planets did not move, they were fixed in the sky. The sun did not stand still but revolved round the earth every day. This was proved by the Bible.

Mr. Johnson commanded the sun to stand still, and the earth to revolve round the sun. He said that the sun stands still! At this point several school girls and young men who had finished their nuts, and were hungry, begged for a nut from Sir Isaac Newton, who had held in a nut a nut.

The lecturer next proceeded to read Dr. C. P. Malvern's letter to the Rev. Mr. Johnson. He claimed that when the doctor asserted a distinct difference of race between the white man and the black, he had no learning, and did not tell the truth. Contrary to what Dr. Malvern said, the lecturer of every kind came from Africa. A letter from the postmaster in reference to Mr. Johnson's letter, which asserted the new duties to be performed by his diocese, who received it with enthusiastic applause.

A GENERAL ELECTION.

ALBANY, N.Y., May 25 - Mr. Schrieber, wholesale retailing, notified by shooting.

ARRESTED IN KILPATRICK.

ALBANY, N.Y., May 25 - Jacob West, alias Poles, was arrested here to-day on his arrival from New York for excessive forgeries.

THE B. W. G. T.

CHARLESTON, S. C., May 25 - The grand jury of the government, in the world to-day, elected G. B. Katzenstein of Sacramento, Cal., R. W. G. T.

REV. GAVIN LANG'S DEPARTURE.

MONTREAL, May 25 - St. Patrick's society presented an address to Rev. Gavin Lang to-day, regretting his departure from the city.

A FRENCH DUEL.

PARIS, May 25 - A duel occurred yesterday near Meudon, between M. Pallain, chief of department of central administration in ministry of finance, and M. Dreyfus, private secretary to M. Wilson, under-minister of finance. Both were wounded, but neither seriously. It is said Dreyfus is responsible for violent articles in the Lanterne against the finance department.

THE COSTIGAN-RYAN MILL.

OPENING OF THE CAMPAIGN IN TORONTO LAST NIGHT.

The New Irish Minister Meets His Match in Mr. Ryan - Both Sides Out in Force - The Issues Discussed.

The newly appointed Irish representative minister, Mr. John Costigan, was honored with an excellent meeting in the Adelaide street rink last night, on the occasion of his first speech to a Toronto audience.

Although both sides were out in full force, Mr. Costigan received a good hearing, which, unhappily, is more than can be said of his antagonist on the occasion, Mr. Peter Ryan. The latter, however, made the best of his opportunity and proved in every respect a foeman well worthy of Mr. Costigan's steel.

Shortly after 8 o'clock Mr. Costigan, surrounded by eight or ten gentlemen, including Messrs. James Beatty, ex-James Beatty, jr., C. W. Bunting, N. F. Davis, Robt. Hay, Ald. Boswell and Dr. Caniff, ascended the platform. The number was increased by Hon. Adam Clarke, ex-Ald. Morris, Crooks, Ald. Clarke, ex-Ald. Morris, and after a few remarks called on Mr. Costigan to address the audience.

Ald. Peter Ryan, who was sitting in a front seat, at once rose and asked if he would be allowed to reply to Mr. Costigan. All he wanted was fair play and no favor. [Loud cheers.]

The chairman - After Mr. Costigan and others get through, if it is the desire of the meeting, we will only give credit for the energy with which other gentlemen who desire to address the meeting. [Hear, hear, and calls of "Ryan" and "platform."] Mr. Ryan then ascended the platform, loudly cheered by his friends.

Mr. Costigan, who was warmly received. He began by saying that he had represented Ontario for twenty-one years, and always as a conservative, because he believed the conservative party was the party most likely to give credit for the energy with which other gentlemen who desire to address the meeting. [Hear, hear, and calls of "Ryan" and "platform."] Mr. Ryan then ascended the platform, loudly cheered by his friends.

Mr. Ryan said that he had represented Ontario for twenty-one years, and always as a conservative, because he believed the conservative party was the party most likely to give credit for the energy with which other gentlemen who desire to address the meeting. [Hear, hear, and calls of "Ryan" and "platform."] Mr. Ryan then ascended the platform, loudly cheered by his friends.

Mr. Ryan said that he had represented Ontario for twenty-one years, and always as a conservative, because he believed the conservative party was the party most likely to give credit for the energy with which other gentlemen who desire to address the meeting. [Hear, hear, and calls of "Ryan" and "platform."] Mr. Ryan then ascended the platform, loudly cheered by his friends.

Mr. Ryan said that he had represented Ontario for twenty-one years, and always as a conservative, because he believed the conservative party was the party most likely to give credit for the energy with which other gentlemen who desire to address the meeting. [Hear, hear, and calls of "Ryan" and "platform."] Mr. Ryan then ascended the platform, loudly cheered by his friends.

Mr. Ryan said that he had represented Ontario for twenty-one years, and always as a conservative, because he believed the conservative party was the party most likely to give credit for the energy with which other gentlemen who desire to address the meeting. [Hear, hear, and calls of "Ryan" and "platform."] Mr. Ryan then ascended the platform, loudly cheered by his friends.

Mr. Ryan said that he had represented Ontario for twenty-one years, and always as a conservative, because he believed the conservative party was the party most likely to give credit for the energy with which other gentlemen who desire to address the meeting. [Hear, hear, and calls of "Ryan" and "platform."] Mr. Ryan then ascended the platform, loudly cheered by his friends.

Mr. Ryan said that he had represented Ontario for twenty-one years, and always as a conservative, because he believed the conservative party was the party most likely to give credit for the energy with which other gentlemen who desire to address the meeting. [Hear, hear, and calls of "Ryan" and "platform."] Mr. Ryan then ascended the platform, loudly cheered by his friends.

Mr. Ryan said that he had represented Ontario for twenty-one years, and always as a conservative, because he believed the conservative party was the party most likely to give credit for the energy with which other gentlemen who desire to address the meeting. [Hear, hear, and calls of "Ryan" and "platform."] Mr. Ryan then ascended the platform, loudly cheered by his friends.

Mr. Ryan said that he had represented Ontario for twenty-one years, and always as a conservative, because he believed the conservative party was the party most likely to give credit for the energy with which other gentlemen who desire to address the meeting. [Hear, hear, and calls of "Ryan" and "platform."] Mr. Ryan then ascended the platform, loudly cheered by his friends.

Mr. Ryan said that he had represented Ontario for twenty-one years, and always as a conservative, because he believed the conservative party was the party most likely to give credit for the energy with which other gentlemen who desire to address the meeting. [Hear, hear, and calls of "Ryan" and "platform."] Mr. Ryan then ascended the platform, loudly cheered by his friends.

Mr. Ryan said that he had represented Ontario for twenty-one years, and always as a conservative, because he believed the conservative party was the party most likely to give credit for the energy with which other gentlemen who desire to address the meeting. [Hear, hear, and calls of "Ryan" and "platform."] Mr. Ryan then ascended the platform, loudly cheered by his friends.

Mr. Ryan said that he had represented Ontario for twenty-one years, and always as a conservative, because he believed the conservative party was the party most likely to give credit for the energy with which other gentlemen who desire to address the meeting. [Hear, hear, and calls of "Ryan" and "platform."] Mr. Ryan then ascended the platform, loudly cheered by his friends.

Mr. Ryan said that he had represented Ontario for twenty-one years, and always as a conservative, because he believed the conservative party was the party most likely to give credit for the energy with which other gentlemen who desire to address the meeting. [Hear, hear, and calls of "Ryan" and "platform."] Mr. Ryan then ascended the platform, loudly cheered by his friends.

Mr. Ryan said that he had represented Ontario for twenty-one years, and always as a conservative, because he believed the conservative party was the party most likely to give credit for the energy with which other gentlemen who desire to address the meeting. [Hear, hear, and calls of "Ryan" and "platform."] Mr. Ryan then ascended the platform, loudly cheered by his friends.

Mr. Ryan said that he had represented Ontario for twenty-one years, and always as a conservative, because he believed the conservative party was the party most likely to give credit for the energy with which other gentlemen who desire to address the meeting. [Hear, hear, and calls of "Ryan" and "platform."] Mr. Ryan then ascended the platform, loudly cheered by his friends.

Mr. Ryan said that he had represented Ontario for twenty-one years, and always as a conservative, because he believed the conservative party was the party most likely to give credit for the energy with which other gentlemen who desire to address the meeting. [Hear, hear, and calls of "Ryan" and "platform."] Mr. Ryan then ascended the platform, loudly cheered by his friends.

Mr. Ryan said that he had represented Ontario for twenty-one years, and always as a conservative, because he believed the conservative party was the party most likely to give credit for the energy with which other gentlemen who desire to address the meeting. [Hear, hear, and calls of "Ryan" and "platform."] Mr. Ryan then ascended the platform, loudly cheered by his friends.

POLITICAL POINTERS.

THE UNEXPECTED HAPPENS. The veteran Joe Rymal, late member for South West-

Mr. Ryan said that he had represented Ontario for twenty-one years, and always as a conservative, because he believed the conservative party was the party most likely to give credit for the energy with which other gentlemen who desire to address the meeting. [Hear, hear, and calls of "Ryan" and "platform."] Mr. Ryan then ascended the platform, loudly cheered by his friends.

Mr. Ryan said that he had represented Ontario for twenty-one years, and always as a conservative, because he believed the conservative party was the party most likely to give credit for the energy with which other gentlemen who desire to address the meeting. [Hear, hear, and calls of "Ryan" and "platform."] Mr. Ryan then ascended the platform, loudly cheered by his friends.

Mr. Ryan said that he had represented Ontario for twenty-one years, and always as a conservative, because he believed the conservative party was the party most likely to give credit for the energy with which other gentlemen who desire to address the meeting. [Hear, hear, and calls of "Ryan" and "platform."] Mr. Ryan then ascended the platform, loudly cheered by his friends.

Mr. Ryan said that he had represented Ontario for twenty-one years, and always as a conservative, because he believed the conservative party was the party most likely to give credit for the energy with which other gentlemen who desire to address the meeting. [Hear, hear, and calls of "Ryan" and "platform."] Mr. Ryan then ascended the platform, loudly cheered by his friends.

Mr. Ryan said that he had represented Ontario for twenty-one years, and always as a conservative, because he believed the conservative party was the party most likely to give credit for the energy with which other gentlemen who desire to address the meeting. [Hear, hear, and calls of "Ryan" and "platform."] Mr. Ryan then ascended the platform, loudly cheered by his friends.

Mr. Ryan said that he had represented Ontario for twenty-one years, and always as a conservative, because he believed the conservative party was the party most likely to give credit for the energy with which other gentlemen who desire to address the meeting. [Hear, hear, and calls of "Ryan" and "platform."] Mr. Ryan then ascended the platform, loudly cheered by his friends.

Mr. Ryan said that he had represented Ontario for twenty-one years, and always as a conservative, because he believed the conservative party was the party most likely to give credit for the energy with which other gentlemen who desire to address the meeting. [Hear, hear, and calls of "Ryan" and "platform."] Mr. Ryan then ascended the platform, loudly cheered by his friends.

Mr. Ryan said that he had represented Ontario for twenty-one years, and always as a conservative, because he believed the conservative party was the party most likely to give credit for the energy with which other gentlemen who desire to address the meeting. [Hear, hear, and calls of "Ryan" and "platform."] Mr. Ryan then ascended the platform, loudly cheered by his friends.

Mr. Ryan said that he had represented Ontario for twenty-one years, and always as a conservative, because he believed the conservative party was the party most likely to give credit for the energy with which other gentlemen who desire to address the meeting. [Hear, hear, and calls of "Ryan" and "platform."] Mr. Ryan then ascended the platform, loudly cheered by his friends.

Mr. Ryan said that he had represented Ontario for twenty-one years, and always as a conservative, because he believed the conservative party was the party most likely to give credit for the energy with which other gentlemen who desire to address the meeting. [Hear, hear, and calls of "Ryan" and "platform."] Mr. Ryan then ascended the platform, loudly cheered by his friends.

Mr. Ryan said that he had represented Ontario for twenty-one years, and always as a conservative, because he believed the conservative party was the party most likely to give credit for the energy with which other gentlemen who desire to address the meeting. [Hear, hear, and calls of "Ryan" and "platform."] Mr. Ryan then ascended the platform, loudly cheered by his friends.

Mr. Ryan said that he had represented Ontario for twenty-one years, and always as a conservative, because he believed the conservative party was the party most likely to give credit for the energy with which other gentlemen who desire to address the meeting. [Hear, hear, and calls of "Ryan" and "platform."] Mr. Ryan then ascended the platform, loudly cheered by his friends.

Mr. Ryan said that he had represented Ontario for twenty-one years, and always as a conservative, because he believed the conservative party was the party most likely to give credit for the energy with which other gentlemen who desire to address the meeting. [Hear, hear, and calls of "Ryan" and "platform."] Mr. Ryan then ascended the platform, loudly cheered by his friends.

Mr. Ryan said that he had represented Ontario for twenty-one years, and always as a conservative, because he believed the conservative party was the party most likely to give credit for the energy with which other gentlemen who desire to address the meeting. [Hear, hear, and calls of "Ryan" and "platform."] Mr. Ryan then ascended the platform, loudly cheered by his friends.

Mr. Ryan said that he had represented Ontario for twenty-one years, and always as a conservative, because he believed the conservative party was the party most likely to give credit for the energy with which other gentlemen who desire to address the meeting. [Hear, hear, and calls of "Ryan" and "platform."] Mr. Ryan then ascended the platform, loudly cheered by his friends.

Mr. Ryan said that he had represented Ontario for twenty-one years, and always as a conservative, because he believed the conservative party was the party most likely to give credit for the energy with which other gentlemen who desire to address the meeting. [Hear, hear, and calls of "Ryan" and "platform."] Mr. Ryan then ascended the platform, loudly cheered by his friends.

Mr. Ryan said that he had represented Ontario for twenty-one years, and always as a conservative, because he believed the conservative party was the party most likely to give credit for the energy with which other gentlemen who desire to address the meeting. [Hear, hear, and calls of "Ryan" and "platform."] Mr. Ryan then ascended the platform, loudly cheered by his friends.

Mr. Ryan said that he had represented Ontario for twenty-one years, and always as a conservative, because he believed the conservative party was the party most likely to give credit for the energy with which other gentlemen who desire to address the meeting. [Hear, hear, and calls of "Ryan" and "platform."] Mr. Ryan then ascended the platform, loudly cheered by his friends.

Mr. Ryan said that he had represented Ontario for twenty-one years, and always as a conservative, because he believed the conservative party was the party most likely to give credit for the energy with which other gentlemen who desire to address the meeting. [Hear, hear, and calls of "Ryan" and "platform."] Mr. Ryan then ascended the platform, loudly cheered by his friends.

Mr. Ryan said that he had represented Ontario for twenty-one years, and always as a conservative, because he believed the conservative party was the party most likely to give credit for the energy with which other gentlemen who desire to address the meeting. [Hear, hear, and calls of "Ryan" and "platform."] Mr. Ryan then ascended the platform, loudly cheered by his friends.

Mr. Ryan said that he had represented Ontario for twenty-one years, and always as a conservative, because he believed the conservative party was the party most likely to give credit for the energy with which other gentlemen who desire to address the meeting. [Hear, hear, and calls of "Ryan" and "platform."] Mr. Ryan then ascended the platform, loudly cheered by his friends.

Mr. Ryan said that he had represented Ontario for twenty-one years, and always as a conservative, because he believed the conservative party was the party most likely to give credit for the energy with which other gentlemen who desire to address the meeting. [Hear, hear, and calls of "Ryan" and "platform."] Mr. Ryan then ascended the platform, loudly cheered by his friends.

Mr. Ryan said that he had represented Ontario for twenty-one years, and always as a conservative, because he believed the conservative party was the party most likely to give credit for the energy with which other gentlemen who desire to address the meeting. [Hear, hear, and calls of "Ryan" and "platform."] Mr. Ryan then ascended the platform, loudly cheered by his friends.