Dick O'Leary Passes Away-A Jersey Meeting Declares Against Guttenberg -Echoes from Woodbine Park-Foo ball at West Toronto-Opening of the al Baseball Season

Richard O'Leary, perhaps the best known tockey in Canada, died in the city early yesterday morning. Dick was known in almost every town in Ontario where race meeting were held. He was born at Port Credit in 1839, and was thus 52 years of age. O'Leary wasknown overywhere as an honest, straightforward and outspoken man. He had marvelous courage, good ideas and the courage of his convictions. He lived at various times in London and Ottawa, where he was ronnected with training stables. His first great Canadian triumph was when he rode Fearnaught to yictory for the Queen's Plate at Ottawa in 79, Among the other four years in which Her Majesty's guineas fell to his prowess was in 89, when he rode Calonist ahead of Bonnie Ino, Long Shot, Evangeline and other cracks at Woodbine Park. O'Leary was successfully on many United States tracks. Among the horse owners the deceased trained for were Sheriff Powell, Ottawa; John Foster, Woodstock, and James White, Hamilton. His last effort on a track in Toronto was at the O.J.C. fall races last year, when he rode W. Hendrie's Sunbonnet in the Juvenile Stakes without getting a place. Among the horses owned by O'Leary was Bonnie Brae, imported from the States and afterwards sold to Mr. J. Duggan. Consumption was the diseases that carried him off. HAS TENNY BROKEN DOWN?

The New York World Says His Lameness Is Fast Disappearing.

Every lover of a great racehorse will be delighted to learn that Tenny is considered out of all danger of a break-down, and that his lameness is fast disappearing. There is now little doubt that he will be in racing condition this summer, and there is a hope that he will be able to start in the Suburban.
