FIFTEENTH YEAR

RESIGNATION OF GLADSTONE

ANNOUNCED BY A LONDON PAPER,
BUT DENIED.

The Fall Mail Gazette stated it was the Premier's intention to retire. Mr. Gladstone replied that he has not decided, but intimates that he will retire from public duty if desirable.

LONDON, Jan. 31.—Political circles are keenly agitated over a rumor that has already gained credence in the London press to the effect that Mr. Gladstone's resignation as Prime Minister is imminent.

The Fall Mail Gazette to-day has the following: "We have no reason to know from any authority that we are unable to disclose, but in which we have every confidence, that Mr. Gladstone has decided to resign almost immediately."

The Gazette adds: "We understand that a letter announcing this resolution will be sent to the Queen by Mr. Gladstone before the opening of Parliament."

"Mr. Gladstone's decision is due to a sense of his advanced age and to the great strain to which he was subjected during the late autumn session of Parliament. He is also deeply disappointed because of the rejection of the Home Rule bill by the House of Lords. Domestic matters also had a considerable influence in determining his mind at last. Who will succeed him and what will be the result?"

The Fall Mail Gazette's article caused much excitement in political and other circles in London. The Government offices were besieged by inquirers who wanted to know if the statement was true. As a matter of fact the statement is regarded seriously.

His Secretary Insistent of It.
A reporter showed The Fall Mail Gazette article this afternoon to G. W. Spenser, M.P., Mr. Gladstone's secretary. He declared he knew nothing about the report that Mr. Gladstone would shortly resign office. He added that he would be glad to state the statement to Mr. Gladstone, who is now at Biarritz, and that he would inform the reporter what reply he received.

No Hint Given to Roosevelt.
Lord Rosebery has received three letters from Mr. Gladstone, and in none of them does he make the slightest allusion to an intention to resign.

Has Not Decided to Resign, Mr. May.
Mr. Gladstone authorized Sir Alcock West, who is his companion in Biarritz, to send out the following statement to the press: "The statement that Mr. Gladstone has definitely decided or decided at all to resign is untrue. It is true, however, that for many months past he has been suffering from his sight and hearing have, in his judgment, made it impossible for him to continue to discharge his duties of office as Prime Minister. It remains exactly as it was. He is ignorant of the course which events in Parliament, and in the House of Commons, anything which could in any degree restrict his absolute freedom of that of his colleagues regarding the performance of his duties now lying or likely to lie before them."

Scenes of Personal Inquiries.
Mr. Lyttleton, Mr. Gladstone's secretary, did not receive at 11:45 any answer to a letter concerning The Fall Mail's announcement, which was telegraphed to Biarritz. The National Press Club, London, has been deluged all the evening with inquiries from the press regarding Mr. Gladstone's resignation. Scores of personal inquiries have been telegraphed to Mr. Gladstone in Biarritz, among them several from his ministerial colleagues.

The Death Unattainable.
The Liberals in London were disappointed by the statement sent out by Sir Alcock West, as they all had hoped for a plain unqualified denial of the rumor. The managers are convinced that nothing would so completely demoralize the party as a statement concerning Mr. Gladstone's resignation which would leave the impression that he was resigning under certain conditions to force the situation.

Central News Agency.
The Central News Agency, which is the firm which has been entrusted with the task of distributing the news of Mr. Gladstone's resignation, has received a statement from Mr. Gladstone's secretary, Mr. Lyttleton, stating that he has no intention of resigning.

Conservatives Refer to Approaching Elections.
Arthur J. Hallour, leader of the Unionists, in speaking in Manchester this evening emphasized the necessity of immediate action. He said the general elections would soon be held.

The Duke of Norfolk, also in addressing a meeting at Durham, said he was in favor of proceeding elections, and urged his hearers to make their final preparations for the appeal to the country.

How the Press Views the Assertion and Denial.
London, Feb. 1.—The Daily News refers editorially to The Fall Mail's article, saying: "The world may be sure he has no thought of quitting his place at the head of the Liberal host."

The Standard regards the statement authorized by Mr. Gladstone as the highest honor "his effect upon the fortunes of the country and its program," says this Tory daily, "cannot fail to be most damaging and discouraging to his colleagues. They are left virtually without head, their leader holding himself at liberty to retire at a moment's notice. A Gladstonian ministry, with Gladstone on the shelf, is absurdity, as well as constitutional anomaly. We have this conclusion, the position cannot be prolonged."

The Daily Chronicle ridicules The Fall Mail's article, and its announcement, saying: "The leader with the words, 'Examiners never sleep now.'"

The Times ventures The Fall Mail's article, a little remarking that it is sufficiently serious to be regarded with the gravest concern, and then says: "There is no question, however, of his resignation. It is a common sense might have reflected upon when reading the article. The inspired paragraph which caused the perturbation. The moment is an absolutely wrong one. With all its faults Mr. Gladstone has never been wanting in political foresight."

Inactivity of the Stomach.
Persons having imperious food or suffering from constipation of the bowels, or from indigestion, should use Alopecia Wine which contains natural Sals of Iron, and the most valuable of the medicinal herbs. It is sold by the London Dispensary, 10 King-street West, Toronto, sole agents for Canada. Sold by all druggists.

Decrease in the Death Rate.
During the month of January there were 213 interments in the various cemeteries, compared with 278 in 1903. There was but one death from typhoid fever, and diphtheria and scarlet fever are also on the decrease. There were 19 deaths from pneumonia and 4 from grip. Twenty-three, or 10 per cent, had passed the allotted age of four years and over.

There were 7 interments in the Humberside cemetery during the month.

ROSS COMMITTED SUICIDE.

A Post Mortem Reveals Traces of Carbolic Acid in His System—Inquest to Be Held To-day.

Andrew Ross, formerly an employe of the Ontario Bolt Works in Swanton, who fell from his seat unaccountably on a bolt line car at midnight Monday, and was taken to the hospital, where he died in a few hours, is believed to have committed suicide.

A post mortem examination of deceased was conducted at the hospital yesterday. The result showed unmistakably that death had been caused by carbolic acid. The stomach was found to be coated with a thin crust occasioned only by this poison. The swollen condition of the intestines and the presence of the same crust. The color of the carbolic acid was also discernible.

It is supposed that, after leaving his brother-in-law, Frank Knight, at Simpson-Queens-street at 10:45 Monday night, Ross returned to King-street and boarded a Bolt line car and took the bolt line. He had been in ill-health for some time.

CALLED DOWN BY THE ARCHBISHOP.

Le Canada's Statutes Repealed To-Canada as the Midwinter Fair—Reduction of License Sought.

The Department of the Interior has received from Mr. Anderson, who has charge of the exhibit of the Department at the midwinter fair, a letter asking that the Statute 24th inst. in which he says that the exhibition is in a very backward state owing to the heavy rains, be repealed.

The Department is of the opinion that the Statute is in a very backward state owing to the heavy rains, and is of the opinion that the Statute should be repealed.

BARLEY TAX STILL UNFIXED.

THE INCOME TAX BILL ADDED IN COMMITTEE.

The Tariff Debate Closed To-day—The Bill Expected to Pass With the Income Tax Bill.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 31.—A careful canvass of the House indicates that the Wilson bill will pass to-morrow with the income tax amendment by a fair majority of not less than 80 and possibly as high as 90 votes.

The income tax, which is proposed solely by New York, New Jersey and Connecticut Democrats, has brought every Republican and crank in the House over to the bill.

Jerry Simpson said to-night: "We Republicans have got what we want and we will give it ten votes. Without the income amendment we should have voted against the bill."

Several polls have been made by Congress. The majority in its favor is at least 80 at the lowest estimate, and 70 at the highest.

Mr. Pickler, the Republican member from South Dakota, says 35 Republicans will vote to put the income tax amendment on the bill. "If we cannot have protection," he says, "and must have internal revenue, the income tax is the best thing for us out West."

Income Tax Adopted.
The last day of general debate on the tariff bill opened with a fair attendance in the galleries and a rather small attendance on the floor. After the committee had been called for reports, the House went into committee on the whole to consider the bill.

The House to-day discussed the income tax question, and two or three important amendments were agreed to, after which by a vote of 110 to 56 the income tax feature was added as an amendment to the tariff bill, the entire New York delegation voting in its favor.

Mr. Wilson (Dem. N. Y.) then offered an amendment to increase the tariff on barley from 30 per cent. to 25 per cent., and on barley malt from 30 per cent. to 25 per cent. Mr. Tracy (Rep. N. Y.) offered an amendment to increase the tariff on barley from 25 to 35 per cent. To this Mr. Payne (Rep. N. Y.) offered a substitute providing for a duty of 20 per cent. on barley, 20 per cent. on malt, and 20 per cent. on hops.

Mr. Tracy (Rep. N. Y.) offered an amendment to increase the tariff on barley from 25 to 35 per cent. To this Mr. Payne (Rep. N. Y.) offered a substitute providing for a duty of 20 per cent. on barley, 20 per cent. on malt, and 20 per cent. on hops.

DIVINITY STUDENTS' FEES.

Twenty-five Cents Not Sufficient—A Strike Among the Students a Possibility of the Near Future.

Editor World: Have just been reading Mr. J. G. O'Connell's article in the University Review re small pay given University students. I beg to refer him to the following from Matthew X:

3. Provide further gold, nor silver, nor brass in your purses.
Nor carry for your journey neither two coats, neither two shoes, neither a staff: for ye are worthy of more than these things.

From The Trinity University Review.
For the students whose allowances are narrow it is necessary sometimes to consider how best to make use of the hours in a day. It is not right that these truths should be borne in by the people who make use of the services of stipendiary lecturers and professors. It seems that many of our divinity students are not able to meet the nominal fee of $25—sum stipulated by the University—giving what is in fact the best part of the whole to the lecturers.

Several polls have been made by Congress. The majority in its favor is at least 80 at the lowest estimate, and 70 at the highest.
