ON THE EDGE OF THE MOOR

Illustrated. 12mo, cloth, $1.00.

"A delightful story of a quiet country life, of one who was eager to do good to her fellow-beings, and who improved every opportunity to do so. Especially may those whose home is in the quiet country, and who think that there is no opportunities for doing good to be found there, find hints of ways in which much good may be done. The lives into which the least sunshine comes—these are the ones which need our help the most."—Christian Herald.

"This is another of those charming and healthy stories for young people for which this author has become distinguished. It is a good book for the home or the Sunday-school library."—Zion's Herald.

DWELL DEEP

Illustrated, 16mo, cloth, 75c.

"A story of a girl who, being left without a home, went to live with her guardian, who had a number of children. Hilda Thorn was trying to be a Christian, and her associates were very worldly, which made it hard for her. It is an interesting story, with the reality of experience."—The Religious Herald.

"An intensely interesting story. The author plainly illustrates the possibility of magnifying Christian life and character amid the whirl of gayety and pleasure in social life. Character speaks with effectiveness, and the world bows in acknowledgment to practical Christianity in a positive religious character. The author evidently has succeeded in making her characters seem to be real and possible."—Christian Intelligencer.

HIS BIG OPPORTUNITY

Illustrated. 12mo, cloth, 75c.

"Aside from its lively interest, this story will be good for boys to read. It does not preach, but its influence is strong for the right, and it leaves a smack of hearty encouragement in the youthful mind."—The Independent.

"Here is a capital little story for boys, for girls, or for grown people. Of course, it is a story with a moral, and the moral is always obvious; but it does not interrupt the story, which is good."—Church Standard.

The story is a very pretty one, and nice to give little children or to put in a Sunday-school library. The sentiment is not mawkish nor the religious element overdone.
