Our Leading Premium.

TO BEE-KEEPERS.—A beautiful virgin queen, for delivery in the spring of 1890 will form the leading premium in this department of the CANADIAN BEE JOURNAL AND POULTRY WEEKLY. The price of these when sold singly is 60 cents, but we will send one by mail, prepaid, to all those who send direct to this office $1.00 as a years subscription either new, or for a renewal of one full year. We also give choice of other premiums, and subscribers are at liberty to choose which they will have.

EDITORIAL.

EVERY little while some subscriber will remit us $1.00 to continue their subscription to the C. B. J. & P. W." and they have perhaps allowed their subscription to run into arrears a couple of months. But when they remit they generally remember to designate which premium they desire. The object in giving premiums is to induce subscribers to remit promptly in advance, and to remove any doubt which may be in the minds of the subscribers as to when their subscription expires, we invariably notify all subscribers a week in advance. We have time and again mentioned that we cannot possibly afford premiums except under the above conditions, and we must ask all those who are desirous of obtaining such, to note this fact and remit in time.
