

at present enjoying success in his work at Haverhill, Mass., U.S.A. He is now secretary of the French Pastoral Union in the New England states.

The Rev. E. F. M. Smith, B.A., and the Rev. J. Lindsay, fellow-graduates of last spring, whom we reported as having been called to Lucan and Collingwood Mountain respectively, have since been ordained and inducted. The welcome socials given on their behalf were most enjoyable, and the addresses were full of encouragement and good advice.

A visit was paid us quite recently by the Rev. C. W. Whyte, B.A. He and Mrs. Whyte have been spending a lengthy vacation among their friends here, at the same time lecturing on their work among the redskins of the West, where they have been laboring for a few years past. They are doing successful work in their Crows Stand Indian Mission in the North-West.

Calvin Presbyterian Church, Pembroke, is steadily progressing under the energetic labors of the Rev. Dr. Bayne. This congregation contains many of the leading families of the town, who contribute liberally to the schemes of the church. Dr. Bayne is said to be a good preacher, and to have a great influence over the young people with whom he comes in contact.

The Rev. J. C. Stewart, B.A., a graduate of last year, who some time ago was inducted into Kamloops Presbyterian Church, B.C., was married on the 13th ult., to Minnie, daughter of Wm. Norris, Esq., of Montreal. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. E. D. MacLaren, B.D., in St. Andrews Church, Victoria, B.C. Mr. MacLaren was assisted by the Rev. J. S. Gordon, B.A., a fellow-student of Mr. Stewart's.

Good work is being done in the Taylor Presbyterian Church of this city, under the pastorate of the Rev. T. Bennett, who has just completed his tenth year in that congregation. At the last communion, twenty more were added to the church. The congregational singing is most hearty, which, with the activity of the members, is a source of encouragement to the pastor.
