Sparkles.

A LITERARY man who recently tried the power of the human eye on a ferocious bull, is recovering from his wounds and bruises, but has lost all faith in such mesmerism.

"WHAT a lovely little snowdrop that is!" said a friend to a wag, as a blonde beauty, with flowing tresses, passed them in the park. "A snowdrop? I should say she was a hair belle," said the wag.

PROFESSOR (to class in history): "Why does an Indian usually make up his mind more quickly than a white man?" Small boy (near the door): "Because he has mostly less mind to make up."

"MY case is just this," said a citizen to a lawyer: "the plaintiff will swear that I hit him. I will swear that I did not. Now, what can you lawyers make out of that if we go to trial?" "A hundred dollars, easy," was the reply.

"CHILDREN," said a school examiner, after hearing some of their essays read—"Children, you should never use a preposition to end a sentence with." "Isn't with a preposition?" shouted a boy. The examiner made no reply.

PATERFAMILIAS: "I cannot conceive, my love, what is the matter with my watch; I think it must want cleaning." "Oh no, papa dear! I don't think it need's cleaning, because baby and I had it washing in the basin for ever so long this morning."

TEACHER: "John what are your boots made of?" Boy: "Of leather, sir." Teacher: "Where does leather come from?" Boy: "From the hide of the ox." Teacher: "What animal, therefore, supplies you with boots and shoes, and gives you meat to eat?" Boy: "My father."

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a most valuable medicine for ladies of all ages who may be afflicted with any form of disease peculiar to the sex. Her Remedies are not only put up in liquid form but in Pills and Lozenges in which form they are securely sent through the mails.

A COUNTRYMAN applied lately to a solicitor for legal advice. After he had given the circumstances of the case, the lawyer asked him if he had stated the facts exactly as they had occurred. "Oh, ay, sir," rejoined the applicant, "I thought it best to tell ye the plain truth. Ye can put the lies to it yourself!"

"GOOD morning, children," said a suburban doctor, as he met three or four little children on their way to school; "and how are you this morning?" "We durstn't tell you," replied the oldest, a boy of eight. "Dare not tell me!" exclaimed the doctor. "And why not?" "'Cause papa said that last year it cost him over £10 to have you come in and ask us how we were."

ON one occasion Rowland Hill was preaching for a public charity, when a note was handed up to him, inquiring if it would be right for a bankrupt to contribute. He noticed the matter in the course of his sermon, and pronounced decidedly that such a person could not do so in Christian honesty. "But, my friends," he added, "I would advise you who are not insolvent not to pass the plate, this evening, as the people will be sure to say, 'There goes the bankrupt!'"

"PLEASE, mum," said Bridget, "I've come to give ye notice." Mrs. Beaconsfield: "Why, Bridget! What do you mean? Haven't you always been treated well, and haven't you more privileges than most domestics?" Bridget: "Pr'aps I have, mum, but iver since I've been here, I've noticed that all the magazines go into the parlour, and its not until everybody in the house has rid 'em that we see wan of 'em in the kitchen. All me friends be talkin' of the issays an' the papers, an' I feels like a fool not to be able to talk intelligently wid me company."

BOWLES, the poet, was in the habit of daily riding through a country tumpike gate, and one day, says Mr. S. C. Hall, he presented, as usual, his two-pence to the gate keeper. "What's that for?" he asked. "For my horse, of course." "But, sir, you have no horse." "Dear me!" exclaimed the astonished poet, "am I walking?" Mrs. Moore told Mr. Hall the anecdote. She also told him that Bowles on one occasion, gave her a Bible as a birthday present. She asked him to write her name in it. He did so, inscribing the sacred volume to her as a gift "From the author."

JOSEPH RUSAN, Percy, writes: "I was induced to try Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil for a lameness which troubled me for three or four years, and I found in the first article I ever used. It has been a great blessing to me." Friends may imitate Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil in appearance and name, but in everything else they are dead failures.

No. 1. Vital Questions!!

Ask the most eminent physician Of any school, what is the best thing in the world for quieting and allaying all irritation of the nerves and curing all forms of nervous complaints, giving natural childlike refreshing sleep always? And they will tell you unhesitatingly "Some form of hops!"

CHAPTER I.

Ask any or all of the most eminent physicians:

"What is the best and only remedy that can be relied on to cure all diseases of the kidneys and urinary organs; such as Bright's disease, diabetes, retention or inability to retain urine, and all the diseases and ailments peculiar to women?"

"And they will tell you explicitly and emphatically 'Buchu.'"

Ask the same physicians

"What is the most reliable and surest cure for all liver diseases or dyspepsia; constipation, indigestion, biliousness, malarial fever, ague, etc.?"

"Mandrake! or Dandelion!"

Hence, when these remedies are combined with others equally valuable

And compounded into Hop Bitters, such a wonderful and mysterious curative power is developed which is so varied in its operations that no disease or ill health can possibly exist or resist its power, and yet it is Harmless for the most frail woman, weakest invalid or smallest child to use.

CHAPTER II.

"Patients Almost dead or nearly dying"

For years, and given up by physicians of Bright's and other kidney diseases, liver complaints, severe coughs called consumption, have been cured.

Women gone nearly crazy!

From agony of neuralgia, nervousness, wakefulness and various diseases peculiar to women.

People drawn out of shape from excruciating pangs of Rheumatism.

Inflammatory and chronic, or suffering from scrofula!

Salt pelias!

Stalk rheum, blood poisoning, dyspepsia indigestion, and in fact almost all diseases frail

Nature is heir to

Have been cured by Hop Bitters, proof of which can be found in every neighbourhood in the known world.

DR. W. ARMSTRONG, Toronto, writes: "I have been using Northrop & Lyman's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil and Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda for Chronic Bronchitis with the best results. I believe it is the best Emulsion in the market. Having tested the different kinds, I unhesitatingly give it the preference when prescribing for my consumptive patients, or for Throat and Lung affections."

CHARLOTTE RUSSE.—One ounce of gelatine dissolved in two gills of boiling milk, whites of four eggs beaten to a stiff froth, one and a half cups of white powdered sugar, one pint thick cream whipped to a stiff froth, and rose water or vanilla for flavouring, line a large mould with sponge cake; mix the gelatine, sugar, cream, and flavouring together, add lightly the frothed whites of the eggs, pour into the mould and set away on ice till required for use.

IMPORTANT CHANGES.—There are two periods in the life of every female when the system undergoes great changes. First, the change from childhood to womanhood, next, that of womanhood to old age. These are the critical changes of life, and the system should be nourished and regulated by that matchless tonic, Burdock Blood Bitters. It is invaluable in all diseases peculiar to females.

THE rock on which many a constitution goes to pieces is Dyspepsia. The loss of vigour which this disease involves, the maladies which accompany it, which are aggravated by it, the mental despondency which it entails, are terribly exhausting of vital stamina. Its true specific is Northrop and Lyman's Vegetable Discovery and Dyspeptic Cure, which likewise overcomes bilious maladies, female ailments, and those coupled with impurities of the blood.

COFFEE CAKE.—One egg, one-half cup of molasses, two-thirds cup of sugar, one-half cup of cold coffee, one-half cup of butter, one scant teaspoonful of soda, two and one-half cups of flour, one cup of raisins, and spice to suit the taste. This makes a good sized loaf.

For Coughs and Colds, use Allen's Lung Balm. Each bottle is warranted or money refunded. See adv.
