

Sappho's new mode of addressing a letter,—

To My DEAR MOTHER,

BUCKINGHAM,

QUE.

"Dic" must have been punting for notoriety when he asked the Prefect to let him take down

—.

The time of osculating (?) depends upon the length of the pendulum.

Who stole M—g—n's lunch?
Where's his blank Association ticket?

"HIT ME AGAIN." — Mr. M—n—y.

A POPULAR CANDY—Donovan Drops.

UP THE STUMP.—M. E. C.

A BAD HABIT.—"Bobbie's" old coat.

A SLIM FISH.—"Shad."

A SUITOR.—A Taylor.

A PORK DESTROYER—Linch.

ALWAYS ON THE BAWL.—The rag-man.

Gently he pulled at his worn out pipe,
While he sat contented a picturesque sight,

But tug and pull as best he might,
The "tobac" in the pipe refused to light.

Then some kind-hearted innocent gent

Stepped up to our Angus, on charity bent,

And kindly told him his pipe to clean,
But his only reply with a troubled mien

Was a "silent curse."
