a. I systematic beneficence, were submitted and read by the conveners of the respective committees and, having been adopted, were or level to be forwarded to Synod. A conference on Sabbath observance was held. JAMES GOUBLAY, Clork.

Presbytery of Brockville.

This Presbytery met at Prescott - Nearly all the ministers were present - Mr. Gordon Watson's name was or-leved to be added to the roll - Dr. Muir, of Huntingdon, was nominated Moderator of Synod of Montreal and Ottawa, and Rev. D. M. Gordon of the treneral Assembly. The clerk, on behalf of the Committee on Aged and Intim Minister's Femal, reported that a system of exchange of Fund, reported that a system of exchange of pulpits had been arranged throughout the bounds of the Presbytery, and where canvassing had been done much liberality had been shown. It was agreed to allow Mr. Madill to remain in California until the first of May, Mr. Rame to supply his congregation. The report on remits presented by the moderator, Mr. J. J. Wright, recommended: 1. That a group of mission stations supplied by one missionary be regarded as one congregation for purposes of representation. 2. As regards the enlarging of the powers of Synod, that no change be made. 3. That College Boards should have the right to make appointments of professors, subject to the approval of the General Assembly, and that the latter should have the right to ask for the removal of any toacher when such seemed necessary for the good of the Church. 1. That the Hymnal should be revised, enlarged and given better binding; that hymns for the younger members of the Church should be issued in separate volumes with a suitable number in separate volumes with a suitable number in the larger Hymnal, and that selections from the l'aaiter would be sufficient. A special committee consisting of Messrs. J. H. Macdiarmid, Edward Aston, Hugh Cameron, D. G. S. Connery, and Gordon Watson was appointed to consider and report upon the proposed selections. These recommendations were agreed to. It was further agreed that the music of the Hymnal should be thoroughly revised, that the pages should be cut as in the pasiter, that the new Hymnal should be more thoroughly indexed as to opics and that an index of Scripture passages referred to should be added. The Presbytery's referred to should be added. The Preabytery's report on Sabbath observance recommended that members of Presby tery and congregations that members of resaytery and congregations be urged to resist every infringement of Sabhath laws, and that they set a good example in the matter of Sabhath observance to others. Messrs J. H. Macdiarmid and William Campbell were appointed to represent the I'reabytery on the Synod's committee on buils and overtures. It was agreed to buils and overtures. mittee on bills and overtures. It was agreed to hold a conference on Sabbath observance at the next regular meeting. Mr. Macfarland presented the report on the state of religion. With the exception of the particulating to the duties of cliers and family worship, the report was of encouraging nature and recommended: 1. That congregations be divided into districts each under the supervision of an elder. 2. That an effort be put forth to b mg about a more general observance of the family worship. 3. That church members be urged to refrain from social pleasures and games in so far as they tend to weaken and destroy spiritual life. Standing weaken and destroy spiritual life. Standing committees for the current year were ap-pointed as follows:—On the State of Re-ligion—Messrs. Macfarland, Stewart A. Ross, James Moodie; on Home Missions— Messrs. James Stuart, J. J. Wright, and Hugh Montgomery; on Sabbath Schools— Mesars, H. Cameron, For, Kilgour, Watson; on Augmentation of Stipends—Mesars, C. J. Cameron, Aston, Cossit; on Sabbath Observance Mesars, D. G. S. Connery, Macalister, Heily; on Systematic Beneficence Messrs. Robert Toye, Lauchlin, Cameron, on Examination of Students—Messrs. W. A. Mackenzie, Sinclair, Macarthur, t. J. Cameron, Poye; on Statistica-Messra.
t. Macaethur, Macalister, Thompson; on Isenita Messra, J. J. Wright, L. S. Burns, corion Watson; on Temperance-Mossra, Graham, Macdiarund, Clark, Campbell, Tho report on systematic Beneficence presented by Mr. Robert Toyo showed that con-gregations were far from adopting a uniform method of raising funds for church purposes.

Mr. H. Cameron presented the report on Sabbath schools which was received and Salbath schools which was received and adopted. The following were appointed delegates to the next General Assembly, viz. ministers—Messrs. Wright, Macalister, C. J. Cameron, Hugh Cameron, Mackenzio; elders. Messrs. N. Cossitt, Andrew Reily, Gordon Watson, Robert Toyc, William Cochrane. Mr. Graham presented the report on temperance. Full reports were received and considerable progress made. The next on temperance. Full reports were received and considerable progress made. The next regular meeting was appointed to be held on the second Monday in July, at 1.30 p.m. The report on Home Missions, presented by Mr. Stuart, recommended: 1. That Mr. Turnbull be appointed to Morton. 2. That deputations be sent to visit any augmented churges. 3 That a grant of $175 be asked for Stone's Corners. Mr. Cameron, of Woodlands, was appointed to Athens for a period of six months as an ordained missionary.—George Macarthur, Clerk.

Presbytery of Glengarry.

Presbytery of Glengarry.

The Presbytery of Glengarry met at Cornwall on the 13th inst, a large number of members present. In the absence of Mr. Cormack, through alliction in his family, Rev Mr Burnet was appointed Moderator pro tem. Deputations to augmented charges reported, recommending the continuance of former grants in each ease, and the recommendations were adopted. The committee appointed to consider the best mode of conducting Presbyterial visitations reported through its convener, Rev. John MacLeod, making valuable recommendations. Rev. R. MacLeod reported on behalf of the committee appointed to consider the remit on the relation of the Colleges to the Church; upon which the following recommendation was which the following recommendation was adopted; Uniformity should be aimed at, so far as the circumstances of each college will permit, in the mode of appointing professors in all our colleges. It was agreed some representation be given to mission stations in the church courts under such conditions as the Assembly may approve of. On the report of Rev. A. K. MacLennan, a union between St. Luke's, Finch and South Finch was agreed upon. The congregation of Cote St. George was admitted to the Church and Preshytery. The Rev. J. J. Co. 1970. St. George was admitted to the Church and Presbytery. The Rev. J. J. Ca aeron tendered his resignation of the charge of St. Matthew's church, Osnabruck. It was allowed to lie on the table. The following ministers were appointed commissioners to next General Assembly —Jno. MacKenzie, D. MacLennan, and M. MacLennan. Lay commissioners will be appointed at the adjourned MacLennan, and M. MacLennan. Lay commissioners will be appointed at the adjourned neeting to be held on the 27th inst. Rev. J. Hastie, and Mr. D. B. MacLennan were nominated to represent the Presbytery on the Synod's committee on bills and overtures. Rev. J. A. G. Calder was nominated for the moderatorship of the Synod of Montreal and Ottawa, and Dr. MacKay, of Formosa, for that of the General Assembly. The next that of the General Assembly. The next regular meeting will be held in Alexandria, on the second Tuesday of July next. Presbytery adjourned to meet at South Finch on the 27th inst. at 11 a.m.—M. MacLennan,

Presbytery of Orangeville.

The Presbytery of Orangeville met at Shelburne, March 13th, sixteen ministers and two elders present. Mr. Aldcorn, a delegate from St. Androw's, Proton, asked for probation service with a view to a call. The two stations agreed to give $500 and manse, and asked the Presbytery to apply for a supplement of $250, conditional on for a supplement of $250, conditional on settlement. The application was granted. The Presbytery agreed to apply for the following supplements: For Osprey, $150; for Dundalk and Ventry, $150; for Laurel and Black's Corners, $250, for Caledon East and St. Andrew's, Caledon, $175. In this case the latter station has reduced the supplement by $75. For Corbetton, Riverview and Gandier, $150. These stations have lately had their first pastor settled. Mr. Bell stated that the people of Knox church, Vanatter, and Waldemar desired to call, and requested that leave be granted him to moderate in a call, and that the Presbylery apply for a supplement of $150, conditional on settlement. The request was granted. Mr. Orr reported that, after intimation duly given, he had mot with the people of Camilla and Mono Centre and moderated in a call in favor of Rev. A. McClelland, of Toronto. The call was signed by 105 members and 12 adherents. They promised $600 stipend annually and manse. Messrs. Scott and Turnbull, from Mono Centre, and Mr. and furnout, from Mono Ceure, and Mr. Anderson, from Camilla, stated that the very bad state of the roads accounted for the small number signing the call, but that it was hearty and unanimous. The call was small number signing the call, but that it was hearty and unanimous. The call was austained and ordered to be forwarded to Mr. McClolland. Provisional arrangement was made for Mr. McClolland's induction at Camilla at the call of the clerk, Mr. Orr to precide, Mr Morrison to preach, Mr. McKenzie to address the minister, and Mr. Bell the people. The Presbytery considered Mr. Emes resignation of the pastoral charge of Ballinafad and Melville church. Messrs. Footer and Share, from Melville church, were Foster and Sharp, from Melvillo church, were heard, and stated that complete harmony existed in their congregation between paster existed in their congregation between pastor and people, but as slight troubles existed in the other station they would not oppose the resignation. Mr. Emes stated that he would would leave the matter in the hands of the Presbytery, but expressed his 'preference to be released. Moved by Dr. McRobbie, seconded by Mr. Wells, that the resignation of the part of the p on the table and a presbyterial deputation be appointed to visit these congregations and report next meeting. Moved in amendment by Mr. Farquharson, seconded by Mr. Orr, that Mr. Emes' resignation be accepted, to that Mr. Emes' resignation be accepted, to take effect on the twenty-third day of April next. The amendment was carried. Mr. Campbell was appointed interim moderator of the session of Ballinafad and Melville church, and requested to preach at said church on April 29th and declare the pulpits vacant. Messrs Campbell and Elliott were appointed a committee to draft a minute anent Mr. Emes' resignation and report at next regular meeting. Messrs. Hughes, Orr, Elliott, McRobbie and Wells were appointed commissioners to the General Assembly. The appointment of elders was Orr, Elliott, McRobbie and Wells were appointed commissioners to the General Assembly. The appointment of elders was deferred till next meeting. Mr. McKenzie, on behalf of Mr. Steele, submitted the treasurer's report, which was received and adopted and ordered to be printed Circular letters were read to the effect that the Presbytery of Picton will ask leave of Assembly to receive Rev. Willard P. Anderson, formerly a minister of the Baptist Church, and the Presbytery of London will ask leave of Assembly to receive Rev. Robert Aylward, B.A., of the Congregational Church. Mr. Farquharson submitted a report on the state of religion. Mr. Wilson gave a report on Sabbath schools, and Mr. Wells on systematic beneficence. These reports were received and adopted and the thanks of Presbytry tendered for their able reports. Mr. McKenzie reported on the draft book for the psalter and recommended: 1st. That the remit of the Assembly be sustained, including remit of the Assembly be sustained, including the entire pashter in the Book of Praise.

2nd. That no change be made in the version of the pashms. 3rd. That selections of the pralms and paraphrases be incorporated in the hymnal. The report was received and its recommendations adopted. Mr. Campbell reported anent the hymnal and recommended—lat. That it is adviable to await the report of the committee of the Presbyterian Alliance anent a hymnal. 2nd. That we endorse the action of the committee in adding a number of hymns for special occasions. 3rd. That more of the familiar Gospel hymns of the Moody and Sankey collection be added in addition to these already proposed. 4th. That a children's hymnal be prepared separately from the church hymnal. The report was received and its recommend-Mr. Campits recommendations adopted. The report was received and its recommendations adopted. Mr. Wells reported on the romit anent the enlargement of synodical powers, and recommended that no change be made. Also on the remit anent the representation of mission stations, and recommended that no change be made in the law of the Church. Both of these recom-mendations were adopted. In the evening the Presbytery held a conference, when Messrs. Fernile and Hughes gave addresses