Nipissino, Nov. 28th, 1884.

DEAR SIR.—I have received the splendid reward which I won in TRUTH Bible Competition, for which please accept my thanks. It is the World's Cyclopedia, a book containing an endless amount of information.

Yours truly, CHARLES GRASLEY.

HAMILTON, Ont., Dec. 8th, 1884. S. FRANK WILSON, Esq.

S. Frank Wilson, Esq.

Dear Sir I beg to congratulate you most heartily upon the greatly improved appearance of Incre. It is now, I believe, fully equal to any similar journal on the continent. Not only is its appearance vestly improved, but owing to the employment of new type of a smaller class, the paper now contains considerably more reading matter than previously. In addition to this, the determination you have evinced to weed out unnecessary matter and exclude from its columns everything not fit to be read aloud by every one in the family calle, must certainly. I think, tend to a realization of your hopes that Tretti shall ultivately be the leading periodical of its kind in the Dominion. Spe 'ing for myself and a large frum ber of friends who are subscribers, I can safely say that 'in paper has so far given every satisfactica, containing as it does matter both amusing and instructive both to old and J ung of both texes; and this satisfaction will, I am sure, be enhanced by the practical enlargement of the paper, as a result of the use of the improved type. Wishing you every success, I am, dear sir,

Yours truly, A. Graco.

NAP .NEE, Dec. 15th, 1884.

Mr. S. Frank Wilson.

DEAR SIR,—Please accept my thanks for the brooch awarded me in Trutti Competi-tion No. 11. I am mue i pleased with it, as it is better than I expected. Hoping you will excuse me for not writing before and wishing you every success, I remain, Yours truly, Stzerra Wagar.

TORONTO, Dec. 6, 18$4.

SHUGLEY, P. O., 29th Nov., 1884. S. FRANK WILSON.

S. FRANK WILSON.

DEAR SIR.—I beg leave to acknowledge receipt of The World's Encyclopædia, prize 194, in the 11th Competition. It is well got up, and contains a great amount of information in small compass. Thurn is one of the best papers I have seen, and is always a welcome visitor to the family circle. Wishing it every success, I ann,

Yours truly, ALEX. SHIRRAN, M. A.

The succeeding year of this sprightly publication promises a great addition to its honors, and a valuable collection of interesting and instructive reading for its subscrib-honors, and a valuable collection of interesting and instructive reading for its subscribers. — Toronto News.

"TRUTH."—The publisher of Toronto TRUTH announces that he is making arrangements to make it journal much more interesting to its readers in the future. That, we think, is saying a good deal, as TRUTH has always been a wide-awake weekly visitor in thousands of homes. However, in looking over the announcements of what may be expected, we notice that some prominent gentlemen are named who will be added to the large list of contributors, such as Rev. Dr. Grant, of Queen's University, Dr. W. Canniff, Dr. Daniel Clark, Hon. Sir Francis Huncks, R. Matheson, Superintend of the Provincial Deaf and Dumb Institute, Rev. Hugh Johnston, D. D., Hon. Neal Dow, the great Temperance advocate, and others. With such an array of talent, Truth should stand at the head of all competitors. – Ingersoll Sun. potitors. - Ingernoll Sun.

TRUTH, published in Toronto by S. F. Wilson, has lately been much improved and Wilson, has lately been much improved and promises still further advancement. We always enjoy Thurn and the new features will make it more entertaining. It is, we might say, the most popular family magazine in Canada, and its popularity is deserved.—Uxbridge Journal.

What Canada's great comic journal says

in all seriousness:—
TRETH.—We are atraid the publisher of TRETH has done his journal an injustice by his unheard of liberality in the way of rewards to subscribers who correctly answer Bible questions. For a year past the name of Trurn has been a household word in connection with his prizes; it deserves to be so for the intrinsic excellence of the paper itself. for the intrinsic excellence of the paper itself. With the last issue comes a new cover, splendidly designed, and a table of contents that would not discredit any magazine. There is room in Canada for a paper on the line of Thurm, and Mr. Wilson appears to be the very man to make it go. He has enlisted the pensofmany leading Canadians and Americans, and proposes to give his readers hereafter the best literary things procurable. Grip is pleased to note the success of his contemporary.—Grip.

TRUTH came to hand last week in an improved manner. This weekly journal is one of the best for the family circle in Canada, and its circulation is enormous, reaching all parts of the world. Its moral tone is beyond question; the serial stories are of a character occupantically interesting and prizes are question; the scrial stories are of a character enchantingly interesting, and prizes are continually being offered for Biblo questions at an enormous expense. $50,000 are now being offered in prizes to the first 2,400 persons who can tell where husband and wife are first mentioned in the Bible.
