${f STOMACH}$ BITTERS

READ AND REFLECT.

Believing that FACTS, IMPORTANT to the HEALTH and COMFORT of the PUBLIC, and which can be VERIFIED at ANY MOMENT by addressing the parties who vouch for them, ought not to be hid under a bushel, the undersigned publish below a few communications of recent date to which they invite the attention of the people, and at the same time ESPECIALLY REQUEST all readers who may feel interested in the subject to ADDRESS the individuals themselves, and ascertain the correctness of the particulars.

HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS

Brooklyn, N.Y., May 22, 1863.

Messrs. Hostetter & Smith: Gentlemen-I have used your Bitters during the last six weeks, and feel it due to you and to the publist six weeks, and fell it take to you and to the public to express my hearty approval of their effect upon me. I never wrote a 'puff for any one, and I abhor everything that savors of quackety. But your Bitters are entirely removed from the level of the mere nodrums of the day, being patent alike to all, and exactly what they profess to be. They are not addressed to compare areaching, but they are recomvertised to core everything, but they are recom-mended to assist nature in the alleviation and ulti-mate healing of many of the most most common in-firmities of the body, and this they will accomplish. I had been unwell for two months, as is usual with me during the suring. I was billous, and suffering from indigestion and a general disease of the mucuous memorane, and though compelled to keep at work in the discharge of my professional duties, was very weak, of a yellow complexion, no appetite, and much of the time confined to my bed. When I had been taking your Bitters a week my vigor returned; the sailow complexion was all gone—I relished my food, and now I enjoy the duties of the mental application which so recently were so very taksome and burdensome to me. When I used your Bitters, I felt a change every day. These are facts. All intercace must be made by each individual for himself.

Yours, respectfully. W. B. LEE. Pastor of Greene Avenue Presbyterian Church.

HOSTETTER'S

CELEBRATED Stomach Bitters.

Prospect Cottage, Georgetown, D.C., April 2, 1863. Messrs. Hostier & Smith:

Gentlemen-It gives me pleasure to add my testi-monial to those of others in favor of your excellent preparation. Several years of residence on the banks of a Southern river, and of close application to literary work, had so thoroughly exhausted my nervous system and undermined my health, that I had become a martyr to dyspepsia and nervous headache, recurring at short intervals, and defying all known remedies in the Materia Medica. I had come to the conclusion that nothing but a total change of residence and pursuits would restore my health, when a friend recommended Hostetter's Bitters. I procured s bottle as an experiment. It required but one bot tle to convince me that I had found at last the right combination of remedies. The relief it afforded me has been complete. It is now some years since I first tried Hostetter's Bitters, and it is but just to say that I have found the preparation all that it claims to be. It is a Standard Family Cordial with us, and even as a stimulent we like it better than anything else; but we use it in all nervous, bilious and dyspeptic cases, from fever down to toothache. It what I have now said will lead any dyspeptic or nervous invalid to a sure remedy, I shall have done some good.

I remain, geatlemen, respectfully yours,
E. D. E. N. SOUTHWORTH.

EGSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS.

New Convalescent Camp, Near Alexandria, Va., May 24, 1863. Messrs, Hostetter & Smith :

Eear Sirs-Will you do me the favor to forward by express one half-dozen Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, with bill, for which I will remit you on receipt of same, as I am unable to procure your medicine here; and if I had a quantity it could be sold readily, as it is known to be the best preparation in use for diseases having their origin with a diseased stomach. I have used and sold hundreds of preparations, but your Bitters are superior to anything of the kind I am cognizant with. Indeed, no soldier should be without it, should he be ever so robust at d healthy. for it is not only a restorative, but a preventative for almost all diseases a soldier is subject to. I have been afflicted with chronic indigestion, and no me-dicine has afforded me the relief yours has; and I trust you will lose no time in sending the Bitters orderec.

Yours, very respectfully, SAMUEL BYERS, Hospt. Prepared by HOSTETTER & SMITH, Pitt.burgh, Pa., U. S., and Sold by all Druggists everywhere. Agents tor Montreal-Devins & Bolton, LampM. KEARNEY & BROTHERS,
