ROOTERS' PRACTICE

Rooters' Practice will take place in Convocation Hall, on Wednesday and Friday at 4.30. It is important that all students not having grand stand seats should attend.

RESERVED SEATS FOR STUDENTS

In Rooters' Stand on Saturday—50 Cents Each

GENERAL ADMISSION

One Dollar—Team is in Good Shape for Contest

It is announced by Mr. Galbraith that there will be no seats in the grandstand for sale. All the accommodation is required by the season ticket holders. However, every student properly registered in the University will be able to obtain one seat by attending the rooters' practices which take place this afternoon and on Friday. Cards will be handed out this afternoon on which the students are to write their name and faculty.

These cards will be checked with the class lists. By this system, outsiders will be prevented from depriving the students of their rightful privileges, and all students are ensured of obtaining tickets. These tickets will cost 50 cents each to students, and if there be any left over they will be sold to outsiders at $1.00. The Rugby Club is making a sacrifice of 50 cents a ticket on all sold to its student supporters. The south half of the rooters' stand will be kept for University students, the north half will go to the Argos. Every seat in this stand will be reserved.

Season ticket holders will get their new seats by applying at Spalding's on Thursday at noon. The authorities are providing that if anyone by impersonating a season-ticket holder does obtain possession of that person's tickets, the latter by being identified can obtain duplicate tickets, and those stolen by the impersonator will be cancelled. The public are therefore warned not to buy from speculators. They do so solely at their own risk, for should these tickets have been wrongfully obtained the buyer of them will have to suffer. In fact the object of this system is to prevent speculation.

THE TEAM READY

The Varsity squad are keeping in fine shape for the big game. The wings dash up and down the field in a way that shows both speed and stamina. German, Cory and Grass are all fully recovered and if they are not all in the game they will be ready to jump in and play the game of their lives if called on. The halves had half an hour of running and passing. The ball was handled from almost any angle, both men and ball travelling at full speed. The unselfish habit has been formed and that is just where Varsity will show her superiority after the non-combining Argonauts. Varsity is also superior in resourcefulness. Every man is keen to take advantage of every opportunity offered for heady play.

In kicking, if their backs play to form, the Argonauts are slightly superior. The wings afford good protection and are down on the ball fast but last Saturday's game proved that they have not the impregnable defence that was considered their unassailable source of strength.

The Argonauts with Smirle Lawson playing, will be strong in three departments, kicking, bucking and running, but for the most part the excellence in these departments will depend on individual effort. Varsity will have to match speed, skill and combination against the Argonauts, strong array and we firmly believe that once more it will be proved that intelligent, combined effort will land the victory.

The average age of the students at the University of Nebraska is 24 years. The average was the same a few years ago.

BASKET BALL SCHEDULE

Three Groups—First Game To Be Played Nov. 28

At a meeting of the Basket Ball Club on Nov. 20, the following schedule was drawn up for the Sifton series. The managers of teams and those interested are requested to keep the schedule before them as this will save the Sec.-Treas. considerable trouble. The groups are:

A.—Senior S.P.S., Senior Meds., Senior Arts, Senior Dents.

C.—Victoria, Wycliffe, Forestry, Education, Vets.

Nov. 28.—Education vs. Vets.; Jr. School vs. Jr. Meds.

Nov. 30.—Wycliffe vs. Education; Jr. S.P.S. vs. Meds.

Dec. 5.—Jr. Arts. vs S.P.S.; Vets. vs. Vets.

Dec. 7.—Forestry vs. Education; Jr. Arts vs. Dents.

Dec. 12.—Wycliffe vs. Vict.; Jr. Meds vs. Arts.

Dec. 14.—Forestry vs. Vets.; Jr. S.P.S. vs. Arts.

GREAT EVENT FRIDAY EVENING

Mock Parliament Will Be Held—Students Will Learn Their Good Qualities

It is seldom, indeed, that the students of the University are favored with the opportunity of seeing and hearing at their best such eminent Canadians as Mr. R. L. Borden and Sir Wilfrid Laurier. This opportunity is, however, to be presented next Friday evening when the distinguished leaders of both parties will make their bow before the students in Convocation Hall.

Sumptuous as was the late opening of Parliament at Ottawa under the direction of royalty, something equally dazzling is promised at the opening of the Mock Parliament, Friday evening. No time will be lost in approaching immediately to a discussion of the condition of the student body in general and a few more "prominent" ones in particular. In the Speech from the Throne will be included an honor roll, not that compiled by the Faculty—which will doubtless be a revelation to many students of the rapid progress they have made along certain lines of academic (?) pursuit. Needless to say the Profs. will not be forgotten either.

"The Evening Blast" which fulfils its name as perhaps no other journal, will be issued in its entirety on the evening in question. Those who have made the acquaintance of this latest addition to the University journals may feel certain that its high standard will be adhered to. To those poor individuals who have not experienced this intellectual treat, we would urge that they do not let pass this their veritable pearl of literary and artistic achievement.

It is understood that the suffragette's cause will be upheld by a most indefatigable worker and it is hoped to have this knotty problem solved on Friday for now and forever.

No more need be said to convince the students that the Mock Parliament, Friday night, is to be one of the biggest nights of the year. In conclusion for those who may still be a little dubious, let us state (sub rosa) that the shades of one Mr. Ritchie is scheduled to appear and communicate some vital things in regard to the great event which is to transpire the next day.

JOHN R. MOTT HERE SUNDAY

Admission Will Be Solely By Ticket

DISTINGUISHED SPEAKER

Service To Be Held In The Evening As Well As Morning

One of the outstanding events in the student life of the year will be the visit to Toronto next Sunday of Dr. John R. Mott. The College Sermon Committee have been fortunate in again securing this widely experienced and wonderfully gifted student leader as one of its speakers. A graduate of Cornell University, the way to political preferment in New York City early lay open to him. He preferred to take up Christian work in Colleges and Universities and, undoubtedly, stands today as one of the world's great men. As a student leader and preacher he is known to the student bodies of all countries. He is a leader of Christian missionary enterprise and an author of repute. Perhaps his two greatest works are "The Future Leadership of the Church" and "The Decisive Hour of Christian Missions." Convocation Hall should be filled to the doors both morning and evening when he speaks next Sunday.

Tickets will be required for admittance to each of these services. They may be procured from the Y.M.C.A. on and after Thursday morning. Dr. Mott has asked that his evening audience be exclusively a university and student one. During his visit he will speak at the Student Volunteer Banquet and at the sessions of the Life Work Conference. He will also address the General Ministerial Association of Toronto.

FORESTERS' CLUB MEETS

Address by Mr. H. R. Macmillan on Forest Reserves

Mr. H. R. Macmillan of the Forestry Branch, Ottawa, spoke before the Forester's Club last week, and outlined a plan for handling the forest reserves that are under the Federal Government. The large tracts are divided into smaller areas of roughly 100,000 acres, each under the care of a technically trained Forester, who has under him a staff of Rangers. These Rangers will be required to live on the reserves.

The first three years are to be spent in improvement work, building roads, offices and rangers' Camps, telephone lines and look-out stations, and in cutting trails and otherwise making provision for fire-protection.

Meanwhile the Forester is making working plans for the development of the tract in a scientific manner. These plans are submitted to Ottawa for approval, and if passed, are put into practice at once, on the completion of the improvement work.

Mr. Macmillan's talk was a clear exposition of the work and conditions that a man will face on graduating from a Forest School in this country. There is an immense amount of work to be done and the Government is anxious to go on with it but the trained men necessary, are not available. Each man in his own district represents the entire Forestry Branch to the people of that district and as his work is done well or ill, the people's opinion of forestry methods will be good or poor, therefore it is important that men of sterling quality and ability be sent out for this work.

SCHOOL SOPHS TRIM FRESHMEN

Desperate Struggle on Greasy Campus—Score was 6 to 5

Messrs. Wright and Wadell, School of Science Seniors, were the heroes of the day on Friday afternoon, when they undertook to break in the school Freshies and Sophs a la Rugby. This is how it happened.

Junior School, having determined to challenge Wycliffe next season for Inter-faculty championship, decided that they would mine for new material and hit on the highly commendable plan of a match between the Freshmen and Sophs, an absolute ignorance of the game being the one and only qualification for the players. The availability of this "raw material" was most encouraging, and Captains Mechin ('14), and Galbraith ('15), accordingly, appeared triumphant on the campus at 3 p.m. Friday, with their husky foot ball men at their backs, eager for the gory fray.

"A mud-lark" one wit called the game; certainly the grid-iron was decidedly greasy and the gay foot-ball regalia, so recently decorating Eaton's athletic department was "dyed in ooze and gore"—mostly mud.

Considerable indignation was displayed by the private bookmakers, not only at the paucity of betting freshmen, but also at the recklessness of certain of the athletes who, despite the fact that they were "in training," persisted in the use of the pipe and cigarette.

When the opposing ranks managed, after some difficulty, to get properly lined up, enthusiasm bounded to a climax among players and spectators—especially players.

The game was at first rather desultory and aimless; men might be seen in all parts of the field engaged in life and death struggles while the ball crouched unobtrusively in a distant puddle quite unobserved by the players. This, indeed, was a main characteristic of the game; after the scrim the whereabouts of the ball seemed to be an unknown quantity to both teams whose main endeavour was to attempt to pile as many players as possible in one small puddle and then to jump on top.

A score was eventually made, however, when a freshman, happening upon the "pig-skin" made a long distance forward pass; upon a protestation by the spectators, '14 was given the ball at the goal line; although the heavier team they failed to buck across the line and were forced to kick, resulting in a rouge.

Fifteen's "running halves" then got busy and reciprocated. Then right half, Christie, by the way, promises to be another Maynard; his dodging runs are quite promising. It was about this time also that the middle wing, Raymond, by
