

ANNEX

1. Article 8 of the Treaty is amended by adding thereto a paragraph (5) reading as follows:

“(5) A statement on oath or affirmation, a deposition or any other statement made in accordance with the law of the requesting state shall be admissible as evidence in extradition proceedings in the requested state”.

2. A consequential amendment is made to Article 9 by deleting therefrom the words “and any statement on oath or affirmation, taken in the requesting state, or certified copies thereof,” and substituting in their place the words “or copies thereof,” so that the said Article would commence as follows: “The documents required by Article 8, or copies thereof, shall be admitted ... etc.”
