

ANNEX 7PARTIAL LIST OF NEW PRODUCTS THAT WERE DISPLAYED
AT SEA FARE INTERNATIONAL 1990

- smoked whitefish or salmon breakfast sausage
- fish sausages
- surimi (imitation) smoked salmon
- "shrimp creole" and "crawfish etaffe" entrees
- mussels in a sauce and already prepared to be eaten as soup or with pasta
- fresh and frozen salmon fillets in a vacuum pack
- alder-smoked chinook salmon fillet
- breaded mussels and frozen mussels
- lobster broth in cans
- breaded squid rings
- frozen Atlantic Canadian surf clams
- catfish products such as "fish for fajitas", "char-grilled fish without a grill" and "thin and crispy catfish"
- frozen lobster tails
- Pacific oysters on the half-shell and frozen in a plastic display case
- black tiger shrimp, cooked shrimp and cooked shrimp ring, frozen and packed in an attractive black box
- Alaskan pollock-based products meant to be used as a replacement for lean ground beef, such as "Chicken Alaska" and "Shaped and Formed Alaskan Whitefish"
- ground halibut
- Indian-style smoked salmon
- smoked Atlantic salmon from Ireland
- steam-baked Alaskan fish with artificial lobster flavour
- northern walleye pike fillet
- gravlax-cured Pacific steelhead
- smoked salmon strips (jerky style)
- stuffed clams in half shell
- frozen-at-sea Alaskan king crab