

- Initiation of Countervailing Duty Investigation on Softwood Lumber:
Established in December 1991, the panel found that the United States had not met its obligations under the Subsidies Code when it imposed interim duties on imports of softwood lumber from Canada prior to a preliminary determination of subsidy. The panel also found, however, that the United States had met its obligations of sufficient evidence under the Code when it self-initiated its countervailing duty investigation. The panel report has not yet been adopted by the Subsidies Committee.
- Initiation of Countervailing Duty Investigation on Magnesium:
Established in January 1992, the panel process was terminated before the panel could complete its deliberations, as a result of satisfactory discussions between the Canadian company and the U.S. government.
