Stay connected—join our online community

The Business Women in International Trade team has launched a LinkedIn page to keep Canada's growing ranks of women entrepreneurs informed of opportunities, news and events that matter to them. It's the perfect place to connect with like-minded international business women, organizations, trade commissioners and other service providers. Topics include everything from certification to supplier diversity, market research, entry strategies, best practices, partnerships and much more. Join the dialogue on our LinkedIn page.

Business Women in International Trade is published annually by Foreign Affairs and International Trade Canada.
