Mr. Speaker: I therefore declare the motion carried.

Mr. Blais: Mr. Speaker, I rise on a point of order. As the result of the change in the time of voting, there seems to be some confusion. I should like to indicate to the House that we will be voting this evening, at 8 p.m., on Bill C-68.

Some hon. Members: Now.

Some hon. Members: Here's Mitch.

Some hon. Members: Hear, hear!

Mr. Baker (Grenville-Carleton): Mr. Speaker, I rise on a point of order. I want to welcome the government House leader back to the fold. It is obvious, from the vote, that he would have been the only one to have voted against the motion, and therefore, because of the freedom that was so obvious on the other side, he was left outside, behind the curtains. In any event, Mr. Speaker, I wonder if there would be a disposition in the House to consider taking now the vote which would be postponed until eight o'clock.

Some hon. Members: Hear, hear!

Mr. Speaker: Order, please. The status of the vote at eight o'clock this evening is enshrined in a House order which was made last night. I wish to make it clear that really there is no procedure even for seeking the unanimous consent for any departure from this order. I think it would be contrary to our procedures to even ask for this at this moment.

Mr. Knowles (Winnipeg North Centre): Mr. Speaker, the order for the vote to take place this evening was made after much consultation and after certain hon. members had made plans. We do not wish to see it changed.

Some hon. Members: Oh, oh!

Order Paper Questions

Mr. Speaker: May I remind the House that we are still in routine proceedings; we are still on the taking of motions. We have yet to take questions on the order paper to finalize routine proceedings, following which we will proceed to orders of the day, which will bring about the calling of the report stage of Bill C-84.

Mr. Horner: Mr. Speaker, I rise on a point of order. Before we proceed much further, I wonder if the government House leader, or you, Mr. Speaker, could explain the motion on which we just voted. Exactly what will take place, and how?

Some hon. Members: Oh, oh!

Mr. Horner: As I understand it, all amendments accepted by the House will be dealt with at the report stage. Then, before a vote is held on them, they will be set aside and we will debate third reading of the bill.

Some hon. Members: No.

Mr. Speaker: Order, please. I do not think we should get into a discussion on how the proceedings will take place at the report stage of Bill C-84. We will be in the report stage on Bill C-84 in a few minutes. When we come to that point, there can be some clarification, but first of all there will be a point of order on a number of the motions appearing in the order paper. Surely the intended arrangement is to follow the practice in the past of deferring divisions. The difference here is to have them come forward at some agreed time. That will be clarified as we get into the report stage of the bill.

NATIONAL DEFENCE—MILITARY AND CIVILIAN PERSONNEL

Question No. 5,110—Mr. Forrestall:

What are the major military bases and installations in Atlantic Canada and how many (a) civilian employees (b) regular force members were employed at each in (i) 1967 (ii) 1969 (iii) 1972 (iv) 1975?

Hon. James Richardson (Minister of National Defence): (a) and (b). The major military bases and installations and the number of civilian and military employees at each as of December 31, 1967, 1969, 1972, and 1975 are tabulated by provinces in the following Annexes: Statement A—Newfoundland and Prince Edward Island. Statement B—Nova Scotia. Statement C—New Brunswick.
