Mercantile Summary.— The revised assessment of Toronto for 1878 is $400,050,096.— Samples of cheese from Uxbridge, Ont., sent to England, have been pronounced equal to Cheshire cheese.— The Polynesian, which arrived at Halifax on Monday morning, discharged 1220 tons of freight there, 920 tons of which was for the Upper Provinces.— W. W. Colwell & Bro., lumber merchants, Toronto, have made an assignment. They have been looked upon as a firm in good standing. Their liabilities are not stated.— The stock of crockery of Cleverdon & Martin of Toronto, and the stock and tools of John Taylor & Co., safe makers, of the same place, are to be sold by auction to wind up their estates in insolvency.— Since the opening of the Q. M. O. & O. Railway to Ottawa the fare to the capital by the Grand Trunk and St. Lawrence and Ottawa roads has been reduced to the same figure as by the new line.
