

DANGER OF SERBS

FOUR GREATER

Bulgars Extend Grip on Railway North and South of Nish.

ALLIES' AID IS FELT

Anglo-French Forces in South Carry on Energetic Offensive.

LONDON, Nov. 9.—Everyday, every hour adds to the peril of the Serbian army which is fighting desperately to hold back the Austro-Germans, pressing them from the north and the Bulgarians, invading their country from the east, until the assistance their allies are sending can reach them.

The Bulgarians have extended their grip on the Belgrade-Saloniki railway north and south of Nish, and have captured Leskovac, south of the capital, and Kraljevo, in the north. At the latter point they are in close touch with the German army, which after occupying Kraljevo, extended its left wing as far as Djurdjevo, the left bank of the Danube. In the Balkan country, the Austro-Germans, advancing southward, are making progress except in the west, where they are being held by the Montenegrins. The invading forces are now reaching the most difficult part of Serbia, the mountainous region where the natives, knowing every hill and gully, can offer the strongest resistance.

The Austrians and Germans, however, are plentifully supplied with mountain guns, with which they expect to drive the defenders from their positions.

In the south the ever-growing strength of the French and British forces, beginning to feel their way, carrying on an energetic offensive against the Bulgarians, have managed to keep the railway clear as far as Velest and are barring the Bulgarians' route to Monastir.

While it will be some time before the Germans can reach the northern end of the railway for the transport of troops and munitions, their successes have enabled them to send supplies to the Bulgarians and Turks by the Danube as far as Nikolaev, from which point they can be sent by rail to Sofia and Constantinople.

Greece Weakening? There is no change in the attitude of Greece, although it is considered significant that at the moment that Bulgaria has again protested against the Bulgarian army's advance, the Greek Government has applied to the allies for financial assistance, an application which is receiving favorable consideration.

The Greek Government has also reported to the allies an expression of its firm determination to maintain neutrality and of its sincere good-will toward the entente powers.

The Greek army, which has been reported to have been repulsed, after which the French occupied the village of Krivopal, is being retrained by the French.

Will Shatter Dream. He made reference to the execution of Miss Edith Cavell, saying: 'Quite recently we saw a German military tribunal sentence a noble woman to death for the crime of generosity, and a German officer indulging in the pleasure, tho' not compelled to do so, of executing the sentence himself by shooting her, a defenceless victim.'

The ambassador concluded: 'When the hour strikes for the enemy to realize that all his schemes for world domination are broken down, we shall see him prey to moral depression which will make him fall suddenly from the height of his dreams.'

The High Commissioner of New Zealand, Hon. Thomas Williams Macdonald, in a speech, said that the moral objects for which the allies were fighting, he had seen with the means and weapons by which the great ends were to be attained.
