

financial statement to the Annual Meeting, and at other times when required to do so.

ART. IX.—Secretary.

The Secretary shall keep a Roll of members' names, and the date of their admission. He shall keep a record of the minutes of the Club, notify members of the time and place of meetings and shall present the reports of the General Committee to the Club.

ART. X.—Meetings.

Meetings shall be held whenever deemed advisable by the General Committee, or at any time upon a requisition addressed to the Secretary by five members of the Committee, or ten members of the Club.

ART. XI.—Quorum.

Fifteen members of the Club shall form a quorum for the transaction of business. The quorum of the General Committee shall be five.

ART. XII.—Annual Subscription.

The Annual Subscription shall be one dollar. Members in arrears shall not have the right to vote or hold office.

ART. XIII.—Voters.

No member shall have the right to vote at the election of officers, unless he has paid his subscription for the ensuing year.

ART. XIV.—Friends.

Members may introduce friends to all meetings of the Club which are not declared private.

ART. XV.—General Committee.

The General Committee may make By-Laws for conducting the affairs of the Club, and shall arrange a programme for each meeting.

ART. XVI.—Alterations in Constitution.

Alterations in this Constitution shall be made only at the Annual Meeting, or at a Special Meeting called for the purpose. Two weeks previous notice of any proposed change shall in each case be given to the Secretary, who shall notify the members thereof.