eon before

ded by the his decisat the Preno discussorthwith to during the h question rs present; on the matvote; this in the abo tempore ere should ince of the lic worship nt, nor that ion in celemmemora-nember the , shall noting their at-disorderly y, shall be resident or terrupt the may upon be expelled e members eeting, voll be guilty ne shall be liable to be expelled in the same manner as aforesaid; and such members so expelled shall forfeit all claims upon the Society.

24th. Should any officer of the Society neglect his duty, or conduct himself otherwise improperly, he shall upon notice given by any member at a monthly periodical meeting specifying the cause of complaint, and upon motion made and seconded at the next periodical meeting be impeached, and upon conviction, be liable to be reprimanded by the President or Chairman, as the case may be, or removed from office according to the decision of the meeting, to be determined by a majority of two-thirds of the members present, voting by ballot.

25th. That no alteration shall be made in any of the rules and regulations of the Society except at the annual general meeting; and any member wishing to propose an alteration shall give notice of such his intentions at a monthly periodical meeting immediately preceding the annual meeting, specifying the rule or rules which he may wish to alter, amend or annul, and what he means to propose as amendment or substitute, if any, in lieu thereof; provided always, that this rule shall not preclude the Society at a general meeting from the privilege of suspending a rule pro tempore upon any extraordinary emergency.

26th. A copy of the rules and regulations of the Society shall be furnished by the Secretary at cost price to each member of the Society.

26th. Each member on admission shall read the rules and regulations of the Society, and in the presence of the Secretary subscribe the following pledge :

I, A. B. member of the Saint Patrick's Benevolent Society do hereby pledge myself to conform to, and maintain to the utmost of my ability all rules and regulations which now are, or shall be hereafter adopted for the government of the Society, and I do further