

German and Hebrew, that is, one class from each of these two groups must be taken.

The examination for passing in any one class is independent of the examinations for passing in other classes, and may be taken either at the close of the session in which the class is attended or at the beginning of the following session.

BURSARIES.

These are sums of money awarded to deserving matriculants who have in view the ministry of the Presbyterian Church in Canada, and do not require to be repaid unless the recipients fail to enter the ministry. Recommendations accompanying contributions for the benefit of particular students, whether matriculants or not, are duly observed.

SCHOLARSHIPS.

Scholarships varying from $32 to $120 are awarded upon the results of examinations. A sum of over $1,800 is available for this purpose in each session.

In compliance with the wishes of the donors about one-third of this amount is awarded without distinction of church or creed, the balance of $1,200 being for the special benefit of students for the ministry of the Presbyterian Church. Scholarships can be held only by matriculated students, and hence one advantage of matriculating.

PRIZES.

Besides prizes in books given for distinction in class-work, there are this session seven prizes of $25 each and one of $40 for the best essays upon special subjects. The Elocution Association also gives three prizes for superiority in reading.

It will be seen from what has been said above that while Queen's College allows great freedom in the selection of classes to those who desire to take only a part of the curriculum and to students preparing for
