

LEGISLATIVE LIBRARY

REPORT OF ALBERTA LIBERAL CONVENTION

CALGARY
JANUARY 16 to 18
1919

"The largest, the most enthusiastic and the most successful Liberal convention ever held in the Province of Alberta occurred in Calgary that past week commencing Monday before in this gathering has taken place such good representation of every class and every profession, every phase of Liberalism and every class of Albertan people, as any political gathering. Farmers, business men, professional men, professional women and members of business organizations from the three 'rivers' to the Southern boundary. There (1st) with a society of about 200, was packed at morning, afternoon and evening sessions."—Calgary Alberta (Unionist) Jan. 17th, 1919.