

- Merchants, Cartier's tribute to, 169.
 Merritt, W. H., advocates Confederation in Parliament, 173.
 Metcalfe, Lord, 88.
 Metis, the, their rising, 301.
 Militia Bill, Cartier's, introduced in Parliament, 290-291; Cartier's speech on, 292.
 Minister of, Cartier's services as, 290-295.
 question, Cartier-Macdonald Government defeated on, 128.
 Monk, Hon. F. D., on the struggle for responsible government, 83, 90; in Cartier's last election, 50 (note.)
 Monck, Viscount, in negotiations for Confederation, 268; Cartier at dinner to first Governor-General of the Dominion, 282.
 Montreal, City of, Cartier elected to Parliament as one of its representatives, 126; his work for, 170; predicts its great future, 170.
 College of, Cartier's alma mater, history, 23; Cartier at, 23-24.
 East, Cartier's election, 126; Cartier's defeat by Jetté, 320-321.
 Moore, Col., early advocate of union of B. N. A. Colonies, 172.
 Morin, Hon. Auguste Norbert, his career and character, 75; his policy, 76; elected Speaker, 94; joins forces with Hincks, 105; coalition with Conservatives, 109; MacNab-Morin Government, 110; retirement from public life, 111.
 Morin, Louis Simeon, 112.
 Morris, Hon. Alexander, his advocacy of Confederation, 180; part in negotiations leading up to, 186.
 Neilson, John, 38.
 Nelson, Robert, unsuccessful expedition of 1838, 67.
 Wolfred, patriot leader, his career, 52-53; in command of the patriots at St. Denis, 53; his tribute to Cartier, 56; on the rising, 64-65; on the Rebellion Losses Bill, 98.
 New Brunswick, defeat of the Government on Confederation, 244; legislature approves Confederation project, 266.
 Newcastle, Duke of, 123.
 Ninety-two Resolutions, the, 39.
 Normal Schools established through Cartier's efforts, 149.
 Northwest Territories, Cartier's part in their acquisition, 296.
 Nova Scotia Legislature, action on Confederation, 266.
 O'Callaghan, Dr., 43, 50.
 "O Canada, Mon Pays, Mes Amours," Canadian national song composed by Cartier, history of, 383; French and English versions of, 384-385.
 Ouimet, André, President of Sons of Liberty, 46.
 Ottawa, city of, chosen as seat of government, 122; its choice supported by Cartier, 122.
 Papineau, Joseph, his plea for parliamentary institutions, 32.
 Louis Joseph, Hon., his career and policy, 34; his demands, 37-38; political agitation, 41; addresses at public meetings, 42-43; at St. Ours, 42; at St. Charles, 43; warrant issued against, 50; escapes to the Richelieu district, 50; at St. Denis on eve of engagement, 64; escapes to the States and goes to Europe, 64; his long exile, 76; return to Canada, 76; his hostility to the Union, 77; Parliamentary duel with LaFontaine, 77-78; his later attitude, 82; retires from public life, 82; his services in the cause of political freedom, 82.
 Parliament building at Montreal burning of, 100.
 buildings at Ottawa, opened by Prince of Wales, 125; Cartier at, 125.
 Patriots, the, their victory at St. Denis, 54-56; their defeat at St. Charles, 57-60; their bravery and devotion, 59.
 Pecaudy, Sieur Antoine, first Seigneur of Centrecoeur, founder of St. Antoine, 10.
 Perrault, Charles Ovide, death at St. Denis, 55.
 J. X., member for Richelieu, speech against the Confederation project, 238.
 Pius IX, Pope, Cartier's visit to, 273.
 Plessis, Bishop, his services, 64.
 Political struggle in Lower Canada, 27-44.
 Pope, Hon. John Henry, his part in Confederation negotiations, 186; his tribute to Cartier, 401.
 Sir Joseph, his Memoirs of Sir John A. Macdonald (notes) letter from, 186; Sir John A. Macdonald's remark on Cartier to, 394.
 Prulier in France, ancestral home of Cartier family, 3.
 Prefontaine, C., 113.
 Prince Edward Island rejects Confederation project, 244; admitted to the Dominion, 309.
 Prince of Wales (afterwards King Edward VII), visit to Canada, 123; meetings with Cartier, 124; his high opinion of Cartier, 126.