VARSITY WINS FROM QUEENS

Toronto Students Below Championship Form, and Are Closely Pressed by Presbyterians.

Varsity did not play championship Rusby when they defeated Queens by 11 to 11 on Saturday at the stadium. They won a game that was replete with thrills, a few good runs, some excellent punting and some bad fumbling. The game was never on ice until the final quarter was nearly over. It was close throughout, and almost any minute it looked dangerous for the Blue and White. There was a strong breeze from the north for three-quarters of the time. Varsity had the advantage of this for the last game. In the last quarter the breeze subsided, a place of good luck for Varsity, for it was then the Queens' turn to play with it at their backs.

Varsity's line was not as strong as the Presbyterians', but they managed to pull out of narrow squeaks when Queens had worked the ball close to the local goal line. Queens fell down on the half-back division. Erskine, Macdonnell and Has-lett did not have the speed of Cusner, Gunter and Brock, and they did not pass as well, though they had the better hands.
Eddie Cusner played the star game. He was generally sure in passing. He caught well, and tore loose with a few big gains.
The most sensational play of the day was when Cusner carried the pigskin right up the centre of the field for a gain of fifty or sixty yards in the last quarter. Mel Brock fumbled badly, but he has the makings of a superb Rugby player. He has speed to burn. Gunter kicked an excellent game. Varsity did not seem to have the same snap as of yore and their catching at times was away below par. The local squad must play a better game to win the flag.

The wind had considerable to do with the scoring. Except for two tries, one by each side, all the scoring was the result of ruses, and most of these one-point tries happened by the wind carrying the ball. Both touches were scored in the first quarter, Varsity getting first blood, Gage carrying the ball over the line from a play five yards out. Queens got their only touch thru Brock's fumble behind the line.

The line-up:
Varsity (11)—Flying wing, Gage; half-backs, Brock, Gunter, Cusner; quarterbacks, Bell, Curtis; wings, Clarke, Gorman, Sinclair, Brown, Taylor, Clarkson.
Queens (11)—Flying wing, Fournier; halfback, Macdonnell; Erskine, Hazlett; quarter, Reid; right wing, McLeod; scrummage, Elliot, Kennedy, Dunlop, Rodden, Slater.
Referee—Ben Simpson. Umpire—Frank Robbins.

ARGOS DEFEAT JUNGLE KINGS 7-5

Binkley Breaks His Arm, Dis-sette Replaces — Tigers

Are Out of the Running.

HAMILTON, Oct. 26.—About 700 Rugby enthusiasts saw the Argos beat the Tigers again by the score of 7 to 5, and today Tigerville is walling, as they needed that game to stay in the running. Tigers were rather crippled without "Red" Dixon on the back line, but Argos lost their star man, Binkley, in the second half, when he broke his arm.

The teams lined up as follows: Argos (11)—Flying wing, Newton; half-backs, Binkley and O'Connor; quarterbacks, Scrimmage, Sinclair, Mulligan and Murphy; inside wings, Whale and Kin-nella; middle wings, Gale and Heather;
outside wings, Murray and Beaune.

Tigers (11)—Flying wing, Galloway; half-backs, Binkley and McKelvey; quarter-
nella; middle wings, Gale and Heather;
outside wings, Murray and Beaune.

Referee—Dr. W. B. Hendrie.

First quarter: Tigers chose to defend the north half. Alerts kicked off.
Punting and running plays, with loss of yards for offside plays on both teams, kept things pretty even for the first five minutes, till Argos scored the ball ten yards out and kicked over. Argos 6, Tigers 0.

Second quarter: Tigers chose to defend the north half. Alerts kicked off.

Fourth quarter: Alerts chose to defend the north half. Alerts kicked off.
yards out and kicked over. Argos 6, Tigers 0.

Final score: Argos 7, Tigers 5.

Argos' victory was due to a number of factors. Their line was much stronger than the Tigers'. They had more speed in their backs. They were better punters. They were better kickers. They were better players in general.

The Tigers' defeat was a heavy blow to their hopes of winning the championship.
They will have to play a better game in their next match.

The Argos' victory was a great boost to their confidence. They will be more determined to win the championship.

RUGBY GOSSIP

Hugh Gall will have a busy day today, leading his Paddlers against the Alerts this morning at Rosedale, and also handling the Varsity Old Boys against the Indians in the afternoon at the stadium.

Captain Gall will pick his team to play Carlisle on the field immediately preceding the game. He will have twenty or more old boys in uniform and is assured a strong line-up.

Manager Kennedy states that the Argonauts had a rough time of it Saturday in Hamilton, the casualties including the stars of the half-back line, O'Connor being the only man to escape. Ross Binkley suffered a compound fracture of the wrist and has a black eye. He will be out for the year. Dr. Smirle Lawson had the cartilage torn from his rib. Mr. Hendrie says the Tigers scraped unsuccessfully. Price will replace Binkley at Ottawa next Saturday.

Montreal was no opposition to Ottawa on Saturday, and thus Argos are left almost alone in their effort to stop the Rough Riders. They meet next Saturday at the capital, and must win at to win in the running, unless a miracle would force Montreal to win today at Ottawa.
Saturday, Nov. 2, the Rough Riders play the Osageans at Rosedale.

In the College Union, Varsity and Mc-Gill settled, with chances even for the honors. Each has a game at Queens, where a victory for either will decide matters. Should both win or lose, a playoff will be necessary.

The O. R. F. U. lies between the Torontos and Alerts. However, there may be a surprise today, as the Parkdale Pa-dies are in the pink for the game at Rosedale this morning.
