Radway's Pills

Always Reliable, Purely Vegetable.

Perfectly tasteless, elegantly coated, purge, regulate, purify, cleanse and strengthen. RAD-WAY'S PILLS for the cure of all disorders of the Stomach, Bowels, Kidneys, Bladder, Nervous Diseases, Dizziness, Vertigo, Constipation, Piles.

Sick Headache, Female Complaints, Biliousness, Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Constipation and all Disorders of the Liver.

True Comfort for the Aged and Others afflicted with Constipation and Paralysis of the Bowels.

One to three of Radway's Pills, one in twenty-four hours, will secure regular evacuations from the bowels. Persons who, for 20 years, have not enjoyed a natural stool, and have been compelled to use injections, have been cured by a few doses of Radway's Pills.

Persons advanced in life often suffer from indigestion, and from paralysis or inability to evacuate from the bowels; likewise from urinary difficulty. We have the evidence of a large number of aged persons, from 70 to 80 years of age, who have been cured of this defect (who were compelled to resort to injections to empty their bowels) by the use of Radway's Pills. Two or three pills every night, in all cases insure a natural evacuation from the bowels and a regular flow of urine. In cases where there is irritation of the bladder, the Re-solvent should be used alternately with the pills. If these organs are kept regular, life may be extended to a much longer period. By keeping the Liver, Stomach, Bowels and Kidneys in a healthy condition, the blood will be purified and disintegration checked. This great benefit is within the reach of all by the use of Radway's Pills and Resolvent are used by the aged, life will be prolonged to the full measure of time. In persons of advanced age, the bowels and coats of the stomach, destroys the absorbents, so that these vessels are incapable of absorbing in the course of the body's waste.

THE RAILWAYS

Grand Trunk Earnings—The T. L. E. and P. R.

Grand Trunk Railway earnings, 8th to the 14th February, 1898, $409,408, corresponding week in 1898, $515,437; decrease, $10,029.

Mr. Henry W. Gays, late general manager of the Chicago, Peoria and St.
Louis Railway, has been appointed general manager of the Ottawa and New York Railway.

A cable was received at Montreal on Monday from London, saying that the C. P. R. and G. T. R. were preparing to raise rates, and although the C.P.R. officials deny the story, the receiver states that the sender is in a position to know whereof he speaks, and that there is certainly something of this nature on the tapis.

Hamilton Times: Mr. A. L. Baker, the energetic general freight and passenger agent of the Tilsonburg, Lake Erie and Pacific Railway, was in the city today. The T. L. E. and P. R. road, which has been in operation about three years, connects Port Burwell with Tilsonburg. Through extensions and improvements have put the road in good shape, and negotiations for connections with the Grand Trunk have been brought to a successful end.
Commencing today all Grand Trunk trains will stop just opposite the new T. L. E. and P. R. depot at Tilsonburg.
Passengers will thus be able to make good connections to and from Port Burwell, Vienna, Grifflins, Stratford-ville, Eden and Acacia. The line runs through a very pretty country.

LA GRIPPE A BLESSING.
Kingston, Feb. 21.—Mr. Thos. Keyes, White Island, recovered his voice in a remarkable manner. Several years ago he received an injury, and his voice failed him. He had entered suit for damages, but in December he was seized with grippe, and after a severe siege, recovered, and with it his voice returned as clear and strong as ever.

PATTI IN TEARS AT HER WEDDING

Forgot to Bring Her Marriage Permit and Could Not Sign the Register.

Lady Faudel-Phillips Ultimately Won Over the Obdurate Functionary.

London, Feb. 21.—An exciting incident at the recent marriage of Madame Patti-Nicochini with Baron Rudolph Ceder-strom, which threatened for a time to introduce a discordant undertone into that nuptial symphony in South Wales, has just leaked out, and is affording a topic for merriment at tea-tables in London.

Baron Cederstrom, as is known, belonged to an ancient Swedish family that for generations has belonged to the Lutheran fellowship. Patti, now the Baroness Cederstrom, is a faithful member of the Roman Catholic communion.
The difference in their religious faith made a number of ecclesiastical as well as legal preliminaries, necessary.

From the arrival of the carriages at Penwyll, to the quick trip to Brecon, the procession through that city attended by an ovation by the people and the beautiful ceremony in the church, everything was joyous, and well ordered, and it seemed that the celebrated diva was moving along smoothly to an unobstructed marriage.

"BUT."
But after the priests had performed their part of the sacred rite there was one more step in the proceedings. That was the signing of the registry in the sacristy. It was there that the trouble and excitement arose.

Patti did not have her special wedding permit. She remembered that she had put it away securely in a desk in her gothic castle at Craig-y-nos, which is 20 miles from the church at Brecon. She promised faithfully to send the document, assuring the dignified official in charge of the registration that the law and the church would both condone any leniency he might show.

But that functionary was stern and uncompromising. No marriage was legal until the register was signed, and he could not and would not permit the registration until the certificate of special permission had been presented to him.

THE DIVA WENT.
Patti never put more sincere effort into her voice than she did in her prayer to the registrar. He was silent and obdurate. He called attention to the delay in all their honeymoon plans if they were compelled to wait until a messenger could go back to Craig-y-nos and return.

He would not yield and the diva burst into tears.

ALL'S WELL THAT ENDS WELL.
Then Lady Faudel-Phillips, who was with the wedding party, began to talk.
Instead of trying to beat a Welshman in argument she attracted him by her even ideals of duty, and so won his heart that he finally consented, and with her husband, Patti went her way, smiling through her tears.

WILHELMINA DANCES AT A BALL

Given in the House of Sir Henry Howard, British Ambassador.

The Hague, Feb. 21.—One of the gala events of the season was the ball given by Sir Henry Howard, the British ambassador to The Hague, at which Queen Wilhelmina and the queen mother were present. This was the first appearance of the young sovereign at a private function. On the queen's arrival a bouquet of white orchids was handed to her majesty, the queen mother receiving from the Misses How a crown of yellow tea roses and pink carnations.

After a few minutes' conversation in the salons their majesties led the way to the ball room, their entrance being hailed by the Dutch National Anthem.

The young queen was attired in a white brocade satin dress, which was bordered in silver. The front opening of the skirt disclosed a plain underpetticoat of the same material, over which hung a lace setting, which terminated in a silver fringe. For jewels the queen wore a diamond necklace, consisting of fine stones, set in small pendants, and diamond earrings. On her breast her majesty carried several diamond ornaments, including a quaint enamel miniature, with a setting of the same precious stones.

The queen mother wore a robe of mauve velvet, partly opened to disclose an under-skirting of white velvet. The whole dress was covered with embroidery of pearls and gold. From her head to within a few inches of the gown hung a veil of fine lace, caught up like a white cap by a handsome ornament of pearls and diamonds. The queen mother's other adornments were a pearl necklace, earrings and pendants.

Following the opening valse, a quadrille d'honneur took place, the queen dancing with Sir Henry Howard, and Lady Howard with her majesty's visa-vis.

It was shortly before 11:30 that their majesties took leave of the brilliant scene.

63 BELOW ZERO.

St. Thomas, Feb. 21.—Mr. T. Coffey has received a letter dated Feb. 9, from his son, Joseph, who was at the time between Edmonton and Athabasca, on the Thompsoneter on the tent Landing. The thermometer at the tent marked 45 degrees below zero, and on Feb. 18, it was 55 degrees below in the evening and 63 degrees below outside. Joe says the party didn't mind it at all.

RIOT AT A CHICAGO THEATER.

Chicago, Feb. 21.—A riot, in which 2,000 men, women and children took part, occurred Thursday afternoon, at the Star Theater, Sedgewick and Division streets. Scenery, which was to have been used in the presentation of a play had been tied up by legal proceedings, and after the audience had waited until 4:30 p.m. for the curtain to go up, many began to clamor for the return of their money. They were refused at the box office, and two minutes afterwards chairs were broken in pieces and hurled at the stage, chan-diers were broken, carpets were torn up, and theater and outside was one mass of fighting, yelling humanity. The clanging of the patrol wagon bells scattered the crowd. Later the money was refunded to those presenting their coupons.

ABOUT LONDON AND VICINITY

BELTON.

Belton, Feb. 20.—A very pleasant event took place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Davis, of West Nisouri, on the evening of Wednesday, Feb. 15, when their eldest daughter, Laura, was united in matrimony to Mr. Simeon J. Henry, a highly esteemed young man of West Nisouri.
The ceremony was performed by Rev.
W. W. Cray, B.A., Presbyterian minister, Thorndale, in the presence of over 50 invited guests from London, St. Marys, Thorndale, Medina, Plover Mills, Cherry Grove and Belton. Miss Mary Stuart played the wedding march as the bride party entered the parlor. The bride looked charming, robed in brown satin, trimmed with white corded satin and Spanish lace, and carried white carnations. She was attended by Miss Teresa Davis, attired in a dark costume, trimmed with white corded satin and lace, and also carried white carnations. The groom was ably supported by his brother George.
After the ceremony and the usual congratulations, the company repaired to the dining-room, and partook of an elegant repast, prepared for the occasion by the kind host and hostess. The presents were varied and numerous, costly and useful, testifying to the high esteem in which both bride and groom were held by their many friends. An enjoyable night was spent by all presented by the people and the beautiful ceremony in the church, every-Rescue For All Suffering and Helpless "Grippe" Victims.

PAINE'S CELERY COMPOUND Quickly Banishes All the Terrible After-Effects of the Dread Disease.

The Nerves Are Fed and Braced—The Blood Is Made Pure—Flesh Is Solidly Built Up and Weight Increased—A Permanent Foundation of Health Is Laid for Future Years.

At this time our thoughts naturally revert to our "Grippe-sick" relatives and friends, who are truly the most miserable of afflicted mortals.

We have all beheld the agony of body and mind that grippe victims endure.
Suffering is clearly depicted in face and eyes, and the very soul is sorely waxed and cast down. Kindly hands minister in vain, and the sympathies and tears of near and dear ones are of no avail in this time of misery. The vice-like grip of the fiendish disease works havoc on the brain and nerves of its poor victims, and they become so It is after the fury of the disease has been passed—when the patient is weak and frail as an infant—that the grand work of rebuilding should begin. This work of re-establishing sound health for "Grippe-sick" men and women must be commenced with intelligence and great care. A move in the wrong direction will quickly prove fatal or bring on complications more to be dreaded than the original disease.

Those who have just passed the critical stages of grippe must avoid the weakening effects of ordinary drugs and medicines. Medical science and a world-wide experience point directly to refreshing sleep each night adds its quota to new health, flesh gained, the brain is clear and active and the whole system works so harmoniously that with ordinary care a big and happy life can be enjoyed.

To those who have thus far escaped grippe, but are nervous strong and robust as they should be at this season, we say, beware! A bottle or two of Paine's Celery Compound to restore your vitality and strength will save you from all impending dangers.

Paine's Celery Compound has, during this season of disease and death, won a name and recognition that can never be racked and frenzied with aches and pains that, in many instances, death is invoked as a relief.

Until the mysterious and terribly fatal enemy has completed its work of torment, but a small measure of relief can be afforded by physicians. Dosing with quinine, narcotics and opiates, mustard applications and liniments, may lull pain for a brief hour, but they cannot drive off the implacable foe because he has accomplished his mission—the bestowment of broken health, un-strung nerves, heart troubles, confused brain power, poisoned blood, rheumatism and neuralgia.

that marvelously successful remedy of nature, Paine's Celery Compound, the builder that medical science has so far devised.

Paine's Celery Compound with its life-giving virtues commences by brace-ing the unstrung nerves. While this foundation work is progressing, the blood is rapidly purified; it becomes rich and red, and all parts of the body soon feel its vitalizing power. The result is a new and pure, rich blood influence the digestive organs. The stomach is put in a healthy condition, food is relished, assimilation is perfect, re-reached by other medicines. Thousands of grippe convalescents have frequently thanked heaven for its life-giving powers. Scores of thankful men and women have publicly declared that Paine's Celery Compound and it alone, saved their lives. 150 value life; if you would avoid treacherous after-effects of grippe you must do as thousands are doing, place your faith and confidence in Paine's Celery Compound. You can be deceived or disappointed. Paine's Celery Compound is a great phan's prescription—the only medicine guarantees a perfect cure.
