Ashley, returned from overseas, scored those who would, deprive the boys at the front of their cigarettes, tobacco and rum. The speaker waxed quite warm, and in terms that could not be mistaken, gave his opinions of those who had recently gone on record as opposed to the practice of sending the smokes to the boys. Pastor Charles H. Geer of East Nissouri occupied the pulpit in the absence of Rev. A. C. Bingham. Lieut. H. W. Ashley, returned, gave a short address also. Khaki-clad men filled the chorloft, while Corp. Anthony Adair officiated as organist. Sergt. W. Doring rendered a solo after the evening sermon. Miss M. Blinkhorn also contributed a solo, accompanied by George Pierce. The centre seats of the church were filled with soldlers, and relatives of the three heroes.

Pastor Geer read the following letter from Rev. A. C. Bingham:

Advertising Made Bond Buyers Of 17,000,000 American People

"When war was declared with Germany, the United States had 350,-000 bond owners. Now, there are 17,000,000," declares a bulletin which has been received here by John J. Foot, president of the London Advertising Club, from the Associated Advertising Clubs of the World, with which the local advertising body is affiliated. "Advertising," declares this bulletin, "has played a most important role in making this a nation of bond buyers," and it suggests that there could scarcely be a stronger demonstration of the power of advertising.

The application of advertising to the needs of this nation at war—in the sale of Victory Bonds, the Y. M. C. A., and other war activities—has been of inestimable aid. The increase from 350,000 to 17,000,000 bond buyers is suggestive of
