Report Starts Breezy Discussion. The report of the special committee of the episcopal endowment fund reported that $2357 had been added to the funds during the past year. About $24,000 of the $30,000 promised had been paid and the committee hoped that a special effort would be put forth by those parishes which had not paid their allotments.

The diocesan mission board reported that the income for 1907-8 was $17,011 that the income for 1907-8 was $17,011 and the balance on hand $9130, which was less than the balance on hand a year ago by $1117. The expenditure was $18,128 as compared with $15,377 last year.

Archdeacon Warren, diocesan mis sion secretary, explained that the in-creased estimated expenditure for the coming year was made so in order to allow for increased grants to suburban allow for increased grants to suburban churches. He resented the attack "indecently" made upon him by the secretary. No one could accuse him, he continued, of lacking in interest in the suburban parishes. At present his accounts showed about $800 to the credit of these parishes. He had collected almost all of the $9000 that had been collected for this purpose. "I can, fairly say," he declared that no one has done as much for church extension as I, have been able to do." thank God, Rev. F. Vipond paid a tribute to the good work done by Mr. Blake. The diocesan machinery, in spite of its excellent personnel, was antiquated so long. But it was not a speech cal-culated to set the blood tingling. Cheers for Taft.

Not until the senator made the first mention of "Rooseveit" did the word seem to start the assemblage as by a magic thrill. Instantly the speech was drowned in a great shout which went up from every side as delegates sprang to their feet, waved their hazs, echoing back the tumult of the galleries, where fluttering handkerchiefs, fans and parasols broke into moving color, and the whole assemblage joined in vociferous demonstrations. For a moment it seemed as the one of those record-breaking uproars of the days of Blaine and McKinley would sweep the convention from its moorings. But the first outbreak spent itself within a minute; gradually it subsided until calm came again, and soon the orator was proceeding with the records of the party's achievements. Cheers for Taft.

Every succeeding mention of the president's name brought their wave enthusiastic tribute.

The names of Taft and Root also sent the cheers ringing from gallery to gallery. But those whirlwinds of noisy demonstration which have fairly carried some conventions off their feet, did not occur.

Aside from the names of popular idols, the speaker's words awakened a stir of enthusiasm for the navy, the nan behind the gun," the continued occupation of the Philippines, and a tariff revision which would give "just and adequate protection to American industry." These policies appeared to appeol strongly to the as-semblage, but the greatest enthusiasm on a question of policy came when he delivered his fervid apotheosis to the American judiciary as the great con-servative bulwark of the country.
