

FOR AND ABOUT WOMEN

To Supply Domestic Help in Canada

With the support of the Dominion and Provincial Governments and some leading business men a strong association is being formed for providing an adequate supply of women and girls as domestics for town and country households.

Among the leading Ottawa and Toronto women interested in the movement are Mrs. Aylesworth, Mrs. Wm. Mackenzie, Lady Meredith, Lady Pitt-Rivers, Mrs. Clifford Sifton, Lady Pitt-Rivers, Lady Davies, Mrs. Sweeney, Mrs. Falconer and Mrs. Reeve.

Excellent arrangements have been made with old established firms in Great Britain to collect and send out capable domestics. In addition, Mrs. Bevan, wife of a leading London manufacturer, who traveled thru Canada last year was so impressed by the crying need, that she is extensively co-operating with the Canadian association, starting a scheme of courses at Colonial Training Colleges in Great Britain for suitable candidates to prepare for positions as mother's help on farms. Good arrangements have been made for providing each newcomer with 24 hours rest and accommodation free on arrival.

A gentlemen's advisory board has been formed, consisting of a number of members of the Dominion and Provincial parliaments. A medical man has also been attached to the association.

The organizing secretary of the movement is Miss St. John Wildman, who was in close touch with leading Colonial representatives and took an active interest in colonization problems in London, England.

Footwear Fashions.

It is to be a season of white and colored fashions for the fickle fancy of Dame Fashion is inclined towards shoes matching or contrasting in color with one's gown. Low pumps with a square Louis buckle in gun metal, silver and leather will be worn in dull mat leather, tan Russian calf, patent leather and suede kid. Suede kid is now firmly established in favor and takes the place of the patent leather shoes and boots for dressy wear with many people. Suede is much more comfortable than shiny leather for warm weather, and nowadays one may match a gown of any shade in this soft leather.

White buckskin shoes and boots are smart and really economical, as the leather will stand endless cleaning, and then they look well not only with white, but light-colored cloth and linen suits and dresses. For dressy wear white shoes are made with white heels covered with leather, while the outsole has tan leather heels with extended soles. There is a decided tendency toward elaborate stitching, the tips and foxing being heavily perforated on street shoes. The brogue or wing tip, is exceedingly popular, as it breaks the width of the vamp and gives a narrow appearance to the foot. Pointed tips and perfectly plain styles are also shown among the new footwear in exclusive shops.

This tendency toward various colored footwear has not diminished the popularity of plain shoes and boots. Both styles with from one to four eyelets and buckles are being worn. Fancy footwear, combining two different kinds of leather, has never before been so much worn. Tan leather is very effective with white buckskin, the tan being used for the vamp with white heel portion, or vice versa. This same tan is carried out in gray suede with dull black mat kid and it is wonderfully good-looking in pumps with oblong silver buckles.

Epigrams About Women

Countess Vera de Tallyrand of Paris has just written for private circulation a little volume of aphorisms on life and love, entitled "Thoughts and Remembrances." Here is advice to men couched in epigrams on women: To please women one must adhere to only one.

Woman is like the dew. It is a tear dawn, a fall of pure alabaster, it is a pearl. If it falls to earth it is mild. When woman loves she pardons even crime; when she ceases to love she does not forgive even virtue.

Of her own sex the countess remarks: The countess remarks her desire to please is not to love.

The first thing that women know is that they are beautiful; the last thing they realize is that they are old.

Women are always more or less children. Sentiment leads them to the more and reasoning irritates them.

New Y.W.C.A. Home For Working Girls

Business Men Will Be Asked to Finance an Institution for Comfortably Housing Young Women.

The launching of a company for the purpose of building and equipping a home for working girls has come about as the result of the report of a special committee of the C. M. A., who have been gathering information from the Y.W.C.A. and the Salvation Army on this question.

At a luncheon tendered by the committee to members of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association at McConell's yesterday, Thomas Roden stated that it was proposed to organize a company with a capital of $50,000, consisting of 500 shares of $100 each, to build and equip a home for 100 working girls. The property is to be held in trust by a board of directors elected from the subscribers and rented at a nominal figure to the Y.W.C.A., and the management to be composed of a joint committee selected from the shareholders and the Y.W.C.A., who after providing for maintenance are to divert any balance to the extension of the work.

Mr. Roden pointed out the object of the company is to look after the girls coming into the city and provide them with a temporary, comfortable home at nominal rate, $5 a week being considered a sufficient sum to guarantee good board.

Among those present were: Messrs. Gannon, Miss L. Gayhart, Miss G. McMahon, Miss L. Anglin, Miss K. Jenkins, Miss M. Burke, Miss Cruckshank, Miss E. Lynch, Mrs. Redmond, Miss K. McGinnis, Miss L. Gribbin, Miss M. Henry, Mrs. W. Corbett, Misses McCrohen, Miss A. Reddy, Mrs. J. Murphy and Mrs. Burke. Messrs. McGinnis, W. Burke, P. McGarragle, E. McDonald, F. Lynch, G. Redmond, E. Doherty, G. ### For the First Time.

WASHINGTON, D.C., April 19.—(Special.)—The senate of the United States has promised to report the arguments of the petition in favor of woman's suffrage.

This is the first time this body ever promised to report a woman's suffrage petition. The deputations to both the senate and house were the largest in the history of the American movement, also not as large as the deputations last year to the Ontario legislature at Toronto.

This closes the largest and most representative convention ever held in the United States.

Revival in China

Two Thousand Sign Names to Study the Christian Religion.

Dr. R. P. MacKay is in receipt of a letter from Dr. McGilivray, from Shanghai, telling of the great increase in the hope which the Christian faith is taking on the Chinese in that district. A wonderful movement is being carried on at Ichow, Shantung, where 2000 persons have recorded their names as being willing to study the Christian religion. In other days, the Chinese would have been frightened away if they had been asked to sign.

TEMPERANCE NOT A FACTOR

In Refusal of Mr. Bruchesi to Allow Those Addresses.

There is no disposition on the part of the officers of the Dominion Alliance here to make exception to the course of Archbishop Bruchesi of Montreal in connection with the edict preventing Justice Lemaire and Dr. Dube from addressing the temperance meeting in St. James' Methodist Church of Montreal.

Rev. Ben. Spence yesterday said: "The Dominion Alliance and the Anti-Alcoholic League, which is a Roman Catholic institution, have been working hand in hand. When the arrangements were made it was decided that Protestant speakers should address the Catholic meeting to be held in the Protestant hall, and Catholic speakers were to address the Protestant body in St. James' Church."

The subject matter has nothing at all to do with the order of the archbishop, who addressed the "Protestant" Catholics in a non-sectarian hall. It was simply that there was exception taken to the address being given in a Protestant church, and had the committee known that objection would be taken to it, it would have been provided against by holding the meeting in some other place.

The Anti-Alcoholic League and the Dominion Alliance were both addressed by Mr. Roberts, president of the Dominion Alliance. Both of these associations will go down to Quebec to-morrow night, picking up deputations on the way. The purpose of asking the government to enforce the law and cut off about 50 hotels and saloons in Montreal, reduce the number of houses in which liquor may be sold, and to prohibit the sale of liquor on St. Patrick's Day and St. Jean Baptiste Day, as well as separating the liquor business and the grocery business, which are now run together.

"Archbishop Bruchesi will not accompany the deputations, but has promised to share in the application to the legislature by sending a strong letter."

Twenty-two deaths were registered, while 28 were sent to the hospital for operations, 70 prescriptions were also filled.

The secretary's report showed the number of inmates as 223, while 1235 families, or 4529 people, had been assisted by the out-door relief department. Total expenses were $29,940.85, of which $12,014.67 was for maintenance of the inmates; $14,635.88 for out-door relief, and $3290.31 for casual poor department.
