NEW STAGE OF WAR BEGINS IN RUSSIA

General Korniloff Repudiates Possibility of Surrender to Enemy.

London, Aug. 8.—The correspondent of The Times at the headquarters of the seventh Russian army talked with General Korniloff on the eve of his departure to take over the supreme command. General Korniloff said: "The first stage of the war is over. The second phase begins today." The correspondent says the Russian commander repudiates the possibility of the Russians surrendering. He holds that if Russia concludes a dishonorable peace, to which traitors have been driving her, she will become a German colony forever. The Germans would seize her foodstuffs, enroll her men and treat her as a conquered country. There could be no choice between the evil of war and the evil of surrender. The new government must realize the necessity of inviting the allies to help in reorganizing the railway service for warlike. If Germany decided, as all signs indicate, to transfer the main pressure to the Russian front, it would be hopeless to rely on methods that availed against the inferior Austrian troops. Russia is full of splendid fighting men. Ten millions have already been enrolled, but they are scarcely trained, as all signs indicate, to transfer the main pressure to the Russian front, it would be hopeless to rely on methods that availed against the inferior Austrian troops. ### London Papers Make Comment on Debate in House of Lords.

Canadian Associated Press Cable.
London, Aug. 8.—Commenting on the debate in the house of lords last night on the sale of honors, The Times today says the debate gave no real answer to the demand for reform. Many have risen under the old system do not wish to disturb the machinery which has served them, and which they know how to manipulate. The view of the public, which is alive to the scandal. The Morning Post says officers of state have got too much into their hands, and a clique of professional politicians are looking upon the government as a means of livelihood for themselves and friends. The Daily Telegraph remarks that the system of attack does unquestionably play an important part in the life of the parties. It is exposed, discredited, and interlarded with the ideas of the present time, for which all men realize, public life must be greatly changed in spirit and practice.
