PLAYS, PICTURES AND MUSIC

"A DAUGHTER OF THE GODS."

Despite a current report to the contrary, the engagement of "A Daughter of the Gods," the William Fox $100,000 film spectacle, the attraction at the Alexandra Theatre next week will not be extended, as the ever increasing demand for this wonderful production and outstanding contracts with other cities make it imperative that the engagement in this city terminate on the date originally set. Matinees will be given every day at the Alexandra Theatre, with the exception of Monday.

"VERY GOOD EDDIE."

Excellent comedy, catchy music and pretty girls, with a wonderful supporting cast have made "Very Good Eddie" the smartest and brightest musical comedy success of the season. It is the companion play of "Nobly Home." The Marbury-Comstock Company present "Very Good Eddie," at the Royal Alexandra Theatre all next week with usual matinees. In the cast will be seen Ada Lewis, George Mack, Laura Hamilton, Helen Raymond, Mignon Gibson, Earl Benham, John Willard, etc.

MUSICAL NUMBERS IN "ALADDIN"

The musical numbers of "Aladdin" are particularly tuneful. Chief among them must be noted "The Silver Moon," by Aladdin, and "The Lantern and the Moth," by the princess. The grand finale is one of the most attractive numbers of the production. A patriotic turn is given the closing, members of the chorus appearing attired as soldiers of the allied forces. With Aladdin, and chorus, the curtain comes down on "The March of the Nations," the entire company grouped round Britannia and her allies, singing more delightful can be imagined than "Aladdin" and the performances of this pantomime. The grand next week should see the house taxed to capacity.

"DADDY LONG LEGS" COMING.

Doubtless a great many Toronto theatregoers will read with particular delight that "Daddy Long Legs," the bright play, in which comedy and sentiment are so pleasantly intermingled, is coming to the Grand Opera House for a week's return engagement, beginning on Monday evening, January 15th.

LOEWS.

"The Paris Fashion Show," a melange of musical comedy, singing, dancing and remarkable display of the latest fashions, will be featured at Loew's the coming week. Another feature on this bill will be a clever sketch called "Danny," a tale of Broadway and the bright lights. It is a story of a lightweight fighter who fought himself to fame and fortune by his fists alone.

Laurie Ordway, the great singing comedienne, will be another feature on this bill. Howard and Sadler, two clever girl humorists and singers, presenting a revue of the latest song hits, are sure to be popular. Others will include the Namba Four, White, Stull and White, and others.

"The Straight Way," featuring Valeska Suratt in a story of a woman's quest for happiness, will be the feature film.

GAYETY.

What many burlesque managers have striven in vain to accomplish in past seasons, "Ritzy" Cooper, the well-known producer, has attained in "The Sightseers," coming next week to the Gayety. That is a book and lyrics away from the beaten path, in fact something new. Mr. Cooper has

THE CHERNIAVSKYS COMING.

No matter what important paper one picks up no matter what language, something wonderful is almost sure to be written there concerning Leo, Jan and Mischel Cherniavsky, the great Russian violinist, pianist and cellist.

The "Citizen," Ottawa, under date of Nov. 4, 1915, says of these great artists:

"It is not an exaggeration to say that the evening's performance was one of the most truly delightful entertainments ever held in Ottawa, which is no mean claim. Audience cello up to 23 in D minor, Arensky, Allegro moderato; Scherzo, allegro molto; Elegia Adagio; Finale, allegro

ALBERT SPALDING TODAY AT WILLIAMS' HOME OF MUSIC

Hear America's Greatest Violinist, as Re-created By Mr. Edison, 1 to 5.30 p. m.

Albert Spalding, America's greatest violinist, will be the feature at the re-creation of Saturday afternoon Edison musicals at Williams' "Home of Music," 145 Yonge St., today.

Mr. Edison's re-creation of the masterly bowing of Albert Spalding is superb. Hundreds of critics have confessed their inability to distinguish the original from Mr. Edison's re-creation when heard side by side.

Come in and hear the latest Edison records this afternoon. Whether you have five minutes or half an hour to spare you are welcome. Drop in any time and go out when you please. The new records from Mr. Edison's laboratory will delight you.

The program for today will be as follows:

Caprice Viennese, violin solo, Albert Spalding.
Bonnie Sweet Besie, soprano solo, Anna Case.
Cavatina, violin solo, Albert Spalding.
Poet and Peasant, overture, Edison Concert Band.

Alabama, violin solo, Albert Spalding.
Albion With Me, contralto solo, Christine Fulton.
I Left Her on the Beach at Honoring.
