RECORD-BREAKING PRICES.

(Toronto Globe, Saturday.)

This has been a week of record-breaking prices at the live stock markets. Hogs have reached the $21 mark, fed and watered. Lambs have sold at $20.70 and baby hives at $18 per cwt. The demand for choice butchers, especially for Easter trade, has brought the price of this grade of cattle up from 25c to 30c in advance of the previous week.

While some are of the opinion that the top price of hogs has been reached, there are others who argue that so long as the packing houses are only running, as at present, at about half capacity, and while the Imperial authorities continue to place orders for greater amounts of pork, prices will continue on an upward trend. At any rate the market may be spoken of as being strong at the present time, and with little expectancy of any immediate change.

DOG-TIRED BUT THEY FIGHT ON

Wonderful Exhibition Given By British Troops

A DRAMATIC INCIDENT

German Initial Success Attributed to Great Concentration of Artillery, But Full Advantage of That is Now Being Lost

London, Mar. 26.—(Via Reuter's Ottawa Agency.)—Telegraphing from British headquarters in France this evening, Reuter's correspondent says: "Never has the traditional quality of British steadfastness been more wonderfully illustrated than now. Time and time again troops have been overwhelmed and even by swarming legions and as often they have managed to emerge and regain their line. What would be regarded as consummate feats of skill in field manoeuvres are being constantly performed in the most grim struggle."

"One of the dramatic incidents was when our most weary troops were fighting hopeless odds and striving to prevent the Germans from securing a certain crossing of the Somme. The French reinforcements arrived and without hesitation poured in amongst the British, infusing fresh vigor and saving the situation."

"Prisoners attributed the German success to the wonderful concentration of fighting power along most of the battle line are many of them so dog-weary that they do not remember where they came from or what day of the week it is, but in this respect the situation is improving steadily as reserves are moving into position."

"The German army is now operating in the open our great superiority in mechanical transport is giving us the advantage of facility over the enemy. The back areas are teeming with motor buses packed with soldiers speeding to the threatened points."

"So far the enemy's intentions, beyond securing a general breakthrough, are not revealed. Some German divisions appear to have been ordered to go as far as possible."

"Today's fighting has been of the most bitter character along most of the front, but the latest reports indicate less movement than heretofore, probably due to the German infantry outstripping the artillery."

Canadian Killed By Outlaws.
