set at the works. At least 12 have been killed.

It is said the explosion started in a car of powder, and spread to all the buildings of the plant. One of the odd eatures of the affair is that a passenger train on the Baltimore and Ohio, sorthbound, from Morgantown to Constitution of the action of the time the explosions occurred. The rain was jarred tremendously, avoid very window was broken. A number of the passengers were cut by the thowers of glass which fell about them. The concussion was like an earth-quake to the country round about, and, a the surrounding towns, caused great excitement, which was not lessened by he fact that communication on the rolley line was broken off several miles from here.

alive. Manager Rand was seriously invrt.

The scene of complete devastation in the vicinity of the site of the Rand Powder Works, beggars description. Men were at work Saturday plowing over and digging in the debris in the hope of finding more bodies, but only an arm, shoulder, foot or portion of charred bone could be found now and then, and it is likely that the bodies of the twelve missing will never be identified.

A child of Isnac Mathews of Leith was run over by a wagon on its way to the scene of the explosion and killed.

The hole where the magazine stood is about 16 feet deep and 50 yards square. The earth, black and soggy, is thrown up in huge chunks.

This is the third explosion at the Rand plant within two years. Three men were killed in the first explosion and two weep hurt in the second.

None of the ten buildings that made up the big powder works remains standing.

Later.—Nineteen out of thirty-two men working in the mills are now known to be dead.

Boston Fishing Schooner.

Boston, Sept. 11.—The death of Capt Isaac Frazer by suicide, and the loss of eight men by going astray in a fog, was reported by the remaining members of the crew of the Boston fishing schooner Joseph H. Cromwell, who brought the vessel into this port. The missing men were lost while out in dories on the Georges last Wedmesday. The captain jumped everboard, and was drowned early on Friedry. He left a note declaring his intention to commit suicide.

Capt. Frazer hailed from Cape Breton. Four of the missing salors also came from-there. The other four were from Ireland.

Mistake Costs Five Lives.

York, Pa., Bept. 11.—Five persons were killed and 75 injured in a collision between a passenger and freight trolley car Saturday on the New York and Dallas Town Electric Railway, about six miles from here.

Two of the victims were killed instantly and three died later at a hospital here.

The accident is supposed to have been due to a mistake in signals.

Their Lives For Others.

Dover, N. S., Sept. 11.—Four persons were drowned in the Cocheco River here yesterday as the result of two accidents. In each case one of the victims met death in trying to save another person.

As the schooner Kimball was passing Dover Point house the main boom struck Thomas Keenan, a seaman, and knocked him overboard. George Jones was preparing to go to the rescue when he lost his balance and fell from the railing, striking his head on the small boat lowered. He sank instantly, Keenan, too, disappeared.

An hour and a half later, while Edward Durkin was out in a rowboat with three of his children, one of the little ones fell into the river. The ather dived for the child, but was inable to reach him, and becoming exhausted also sank.

Henry McGreevy Drowned.

Quebec, Sept. 11.—Henry McGreevy, employed in the Signal Service Department in this city, was drowned Saturday night at Lake St. Joseph by the upsetting of a rowboat in which he was making his way alone from the wharf to a yacht lying some distance out. Deceased was a son of the late Hon. Thomas McGreevy, formerly Federal member for West Quebec, and was about 30 years of age. The body has not yet been recovered.

Godsyadni, Manchuria, Sept. 11.—At 1 o'clock Saturday afternoon a Japanese commissioner, bearing a white fleg, and escorted by 50 soldiers, arrived at a peat near the railway and handed to the Russian officers who went to meet him a letter from Field Marshal Oyama to Gen. Linevitch, congratulating him en the conclusion of peace, and begging him to appoint Russian plenipolntiaries to arrange an armistice. Field Marshal Oyama appointed Gen. Tukushima as pisnipotentiary for his side, the letter aninounced, and he suggested Chakinedza as the infeting place. Russian Soldiers Feasted. Gunshu Pass, Manchuria, Sept. 11.—The peace negotiations received no official recognition in the field prior to their successful conclusion, the army keeping in a state of preparedness for cuttines of the peace conditions were printed in the same publication Saturday.

Glad its Over.

The result of these notifications was to bring to the officers a heavy sense of military decorum, while the soldiers, often with the consent and through the generosity of the officers, engaged in feasting and other forms of celebration. It will be a week before the conclusion of peace. To the great majority of the officers and men so far informed, the news that the war is at an end is most welcome.

With the exception of the loss of another have been no casualities. The cessation of hostilities was preceded only by unimportant reconnaissances, involving small parties of scouts.

New Must Travel Far.

Care has been taken to prevent further loss of life, though, owing to the consumer tract of country east of Mallungoheng, and between the Russian lines along the Viadivostock Railroad and the Japanese positions in the Changpalshan Range, it will require some time to reach all the elements operating in the interests of both armies along the Viadivostock Railroad and the Japanese positions in the Changpalshan Range, it will require some time to reach all the elements operating in the interests of both armies and in restoring the regions co-coupled by both flanks to order.

It is reported that Gen. Linevitch will leave soon. The general staff is engaged in plans, for changing the commanders throughout the army, preparatory to evacuation.

Join the Tartars in Their Rebellion in Baku District.

Tisils, Sept. 11.—The Governor of Baku reports that firing continued Saturday night—and yesterday, though on a smaller scale, and that few were killed or wounded. The troops and police, he says, are still engaged in preventing incendiarism and pillaging. The director of the Technological Institute at Baku telegraphs: "We are starving, dying," and implores the despatch of necessaries.

The worst news yesterday comes from the Zangezurski district, where it is reported that many Armenian villages were wiped out and hundeds of persons killed. Help is slow in reaching there, owing to the distance from the military centres. The whole of the Tartar population has risen, and has been Joined by 4,000 armed Kurds from the Persian bank of the Atlas River. The viceroy has protested to the Persian auphorities.
