sheer idolaters. Many nations worshipped the surve the most glomons object in nature but these worship the most tasignificant of jects-aming others, mores, and above all the river Ganges. They have a curious was part of its course where its banks are flat Benares. One of the writers in an adjoin the wife of one of the Missionaries in Cal- gracious to her, which must have happened of proving that it is alive. In the lower and the country produces the greatest part ing military establishment happened to jerk cutta, who had a school of 400. From at your instance. I should therefore think of the Bengal silk, one number and fifty out a stone which feel on the slab, and remained | Calcutta, he (Mr Eteson) would proceed to myself very ungrateful (putting the bank bill of every two hundred of the inhabitants, there. It was immediately given out that Benaics, which was his home. This town into his pocket) if I were to refuse the favor knowing nothing of the cause of the tides, this was the god, and thousands of pilgrims contains 359,000 inhabitants. It is a sacred you are now pleased to ask of me. savit must be alive the ause it flaws alter. flocked to pay their adoration to it. They town, being at once the Oxford and Jerusanately up and down. Beyond the reach of had a also a belief that the soul at death lem of India. Its temples were, in former the tides the same conclusion is come to, be passes from the body of one animal to times, filled with silver and gold. Mr Ete- traordinary thing that ever happened in the cause at some verices it saells to four or another; and the idea had sometimes pro- som then proceeded to give some details of world. Here is one man, said to be only 60 five times its usual bolk, and they compare duced snicide. In the village in which he his mission there. At first, things went on years old. Thirty years ago, his credit in its alternate rising and falling to the heaving [Mr E eson] had lived, there were two wo- slowly. They had the greatest difficulty to England was not worth one thousand dolof the cliest in a living abilital. They sup- men both wives of one man. They were get the natives to listen to them preach, and lars. Yet he dies, and has left by will four pose that its waters wash awa the status of constantly quarrelling, and getting all the as to prayer the Hindoos had no idea of it. millions sterling; in round numbers, over sin; and it is surprising to witness the im inhabitants of the village into their quarrels The only thing resembling it that they had 17,000,000.dols .- Why, if he had been in petnosity with which die natives rush down The inhabitants were on one occasion alarm- was a constant repetition of the name of some useful business, a business for which to bathe the moment an collipse takes place. ed by a shrick, and found that one of the God. They had, at first, but and imperfect he had given value in goods; the simple re-Their gagerness on these becastons arises wives had thrown herself into a well. She knowledge of the language, and they were turn of the amount of seventeen million of from another fable which they nurversally was got out and found not to be much hurt. always careful to enquire whether they had believe, and which is contained in one of On being asked why she attempted to kill made themselves understood. One of thera their sacred broks, viz., that the good and herself she said that she did it that she had, on one occasion, been explaining the evil go.'s at one time occupied themselves might become a tiger, and tear the other Lord's prayer; and after he had finished, he in churning the ocean in order to extract wife in pieces, or a snake, and sting her to asked a hearer whether he understood what from it the water permortality. The good death. They were also taught that God did he had said about forgiving our enemies .- | never been doing any thing for the last thirgods succeeded and determined to keep a everything, and that men were mere puppets "Oh! yes," he answered, "I understand ty years; only dealing in government secuto themselves, but by some accident one of me chess men with which God played, and perfectly; if we forgive our enemies God rities, and shuffling about paper the bad gods. Rahoo, got one drop, upon whose actions could therefore be neither sin- will destroy them for us." They had also there constantly endeavorring to catch hold enemy s army, and came to Krishna begging them to teach them to be good, when they out a large piece of it ; and they fancy it cy that he or any one else did anything seen carrying down the sick to the Ganges. Thus they believed the there will in fact no the worken taken in adultery and after besmearing them with its mud, evil in sin. Another doetrie which they drew the p leaving then to die, exposed to the heats of held was, that the soul, in certain curvas- them, and chabled them to gain their atten- Journal we find the following account of a the day, and the cold dews of the night. In stances of the body, does, goes toto (1) then. The cave had now become different.- new manufacture, which has already acquir-this way it had been calculated that 1,900 and is absorbed in him, just as a drop of They row come readily and cheerfully to be a considerable success, and promises to in a single month. In many second second not leave them to die naturalise to the fore to the person is once earned down to the fices be is not, if he recovers, allowed to extra home asked him how he could believe that on man ed by the natives," in connexion with the to which naturalists give the name of Phoragain to be welcomed with joy by ore friends pure a soul as his could be absorbed in so Char h Missionary Society. He had been miuni tenax, is the hemp of the natives .and relatives, but he must go and invester remainder of his life in one of two villages "you see the Ganges; you see the vast much his return to Chunar, and on his return to then separate with their nails the hemp from called the villages of the dead, where he ber of dead bodies rolling down it. These Benares he found a great alteration. There the flax. They weave it afterwards into a must not work, but he supported by his corpses are so impure, continued the Hin- was a large c ngregation of Hindoo women, sort of net, like lace, which they bleach in relatives. These, therefore, frequendy push doo that it is a great defilement even for us who, as well as the Hindoo wives of Euro- the dew. The beauty of this fabric has stothem into the river, to prevent any chance to touch them; but the water of the river pean soldiers who attended, displayed an at- nished navigators. Cook, Foster, and Duof their becoming burdensome to them. It we can drink, because the defilement, though Ention in which few Europeans could com- mont D'Urville have spoken of it. Messrs. was not a mere supposition that persons thus so great, is lost in the vast quantity of was pete with them; and as a proof that some of Lisson and Richard described it in their botaken down to the river were seldom or ever ter with which it is surrounded. God is a them profited, he mentioned that one woman tanical work on Australia. Since 1827 sevepermitted to return. While he (Mr Eteson) great ocean or spirit, in which individual who had an income of 35 shillings a month, ral English merchants have attempted to was floating down the river to come to Eag- impurity is lost, and has no more effect than (which is there an handsome income, a la- make use of this plant; capital, mechanical land, he saw an instance of this kind. His a drop of muddy water in the Ganges."attention was attracted to a group on the There is, therefore, continued Mr Eteson, no bank, consisting of two women and a man. e il in sin if the siuner is thus to be shield-Another elderly man stord at a strace. - ed from all consequences. He would next ciety. This woman had since died from a for weaving. An ingenious countryman of The sick man was up to his knews in the proceed to show what progress had been cancer, by which she suffered the greatest our own, M. Lienard, has just regulated and water, and women size rubits in the line and in I made in India. Twenty three intesionaries pain; but she bore all with the most chris- brought to perfection the attempts which so mud and water. They not medianted pro find been sent out to the emancipated slaves tian patience. Mr Eteson concluded by far remained stationary among the English. about his louns, et, scently to He was isaving to them in the longhand, "Do not throw me in : I shall not die to Do not throw me in before I an low - 3.162! In the south India many thousands But they said "Mother Ganges and called i of blacks attended their churches. In north him ;" and threw him forward into the day India their progress had not been so great, part, where he sunk and they saw him no as they had not been in operation there for no more. Such was their superstition - more than twenty years. Calcuna had been While in the hour of sickness we look for the first scene of their operations. The the attention and the kindness of our fe- had there two congregations one of Mussul males thus embitter and shorten the last me- mans consisting of 70, of show 3) and ments of their relatives. It might be the communicants, and one of Hundows of 91 posed from this that the natives were a lost | with 45 communicants. Since the societ hearted race; but it was not so. ?! of this conduct was, that the wave can ht ence had been extended among the native no better; that they had not a gosfiel - population; but to prove how little mere Such things are disconntenanced by the Bri- | science availed, he must mention that in the tish government, but so long as the laws institution of science for the Hindocs, almust be lenforced by a heathen twise, so most all the pupils had turned from idolatry long will these scenes be efacted, another to atheism; and for his part he thought the object of their adoration is the bull and T have many sacred bulls about their stand feeding upon the growing comes when the lestation. The reason of illes is a sellism, because he saw so much evil in the they fancy that the bull is the reed of one world which he could not reconcile with the of their gods. In the golden age they say | existence of an infinitely just and powerful the bull had sixteen legs; in the silver me 'ac was reduced to twelve; in the brazen age he had eight; and now in this present iron | ed to him, he then saw the explanation of the great general of the monkeys, did some one manifested so much meekness and reliresent the killing of any of them; while the streets are crowded with the poon, aged and of creed, till her relatives were compelied. infirm, for whom there is not the slighest | by law, to fulfil their contract He had gra provision to prevent them from dying starvation. One of their gods is an image adorned with a necklace of human skulls. with ear-rings of sna es, and extending ma-

spaceless masses. In 1829, Bishop Heber admit that a woman could be taught to read and here is a bank bill of £2000, which he aw at Chunar a slab of black marble, or even to sew. Now women of respectabi- put into his hands. The member made this which was said to be the throne of one of lity are found to attend the schools in all answer-". Sir Robert, you have lately servtheir gods, who passed three hours out of the towns. The great change in this respect ed some of my particular friends ; and when the twelve there, and the remaining nine at was, in a great degree, owing to Mrs Wilson my wife was last at court the king was very being informed of which one of the good ful nor meritorious. Krishna was at one many prejudices to overcome. Thus the gods, M-hadey, drew has sword, and cut off nine engaged in war with the Cshepteree eating of flesh they considered the greatest menting each other's subjects. Rahoo's head, which, being immortal, wend- tribe. One of his leaders found himself op- of all sins. They had been asked by one ed away into the arkash or ether, and to posed to his own friends and relatives in the person how they could think of coming to with his teeth of the sun and moon. This him to give him his post in some other part; were so had that they eat their own mother's cried, shame on them ! Yet where is the he succeeds in doing sometimes, and bites | but Krishna told him it was all a mere fan- flesh, explaining that the cow was their fos- difference, whether a government votes this they run down immediately to the Garges themselves. All their actions were done by milk. One prejudice against them, which which an individual can appropriate the and bathe, and make a great noise that they | bim (Krishna) and in proof of it he bid him arose from the drunkenness of the soldiers same amount in an indirect manner? And will frighten him away before he does any look into his mouth. He looked and saw in the garrison, they were never able to where does this money come from ? Why serious damage. Notwithstanding this, the whole world in the months of Krishna, clear themselves from. Mr Eteson then most assuredly from she labor of the people they have a considerable knowledge of a who told him that though he saw the men proceeded to mention the course they pur- Every honest, industrous man, in the food tronomy, and are not much behind us in m. appear to be doing all the actions in m, it sued to attract the attention of the natives, he eats, the clothes he wears, the house he They have the Ptolemane system Another was he (Krishna) alone that was doing them. For this purpose they set up schools in cow- occupies, and the things he uses, contributes superstition connected with the Gauges is, Convinced that there could be no harm in houses, or other such places, by the road- to this most infamous species of plunder .that they imagine fif a person dies in that slaughtering his relations, seeing that it was sides, where the boys were taught to write Every honest, industrous man, must either river he is sure to go to heaven. It was on not himself, but Krishna that would do it, with their fingers on the ground, in the labor harder, or fare worse in consequence this account that persons were continually the leader then went obediently to his post, same way as our Saviour did in the case of of this paper money state of things,

THE STAR WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 8 may of them being mutilated images, or woman that could read. They never would | tion comes on to-day, give me your vote, ter mother, inasmuch as they drank her sum direct or adopts a state of things by ple about them sater is absorbed in the occase. It the men, to ask for gespels, but the fact was, be of great importance on the borders of the Eteson) was once expostulating with even the could supply them? with very few of streams in the valleys of New Zealand, there theman who held this belief, but which resembles at the same was far from blameless. He (Me Eastar) they had also four dative tea diers, support, time the corn flag and the aloes. This plant. pure a spirit fas God. "Oh sir," said he, removed for five years t Chunar, and on They break it with large muscle shells and bouting man's wages being about 12,) brought power, nothing was spared. But they did 20 of them regularly to his brother mission- not succeed in ridding it of the restinous. arv, to be applied to the purposes of the so- gam which it distils, and softening it enough in the West Indies. If they were to assign moving the resolution, which was carried He has established at Port Remy, a manu-

and the second of the second o

The Rothschild affair seems the most exdollars would be a great business; it would be at the rate of 566,666 per year, 10,897 per week, or 1556 per day. Yet it appears this one man has left by will this great amount; and from what I can perceive, has money; aiding all the old governments of the world in fighting, and taxing, and tor-

What would be said, if the different governments of Europe had voted him this sum of money? All the world would have

A NEW MANUFACTURE .- In a late Paris factory of the Phormium tenax. The cloths that were shown at the public expositions GROWTH OF RUSSIA-At the accession of appeared to be beautiful, but more substan-Peter the First, in 1809, the population of tial, more pliable, and lighter than linen the Russian Empire was 15 millions; at the cloth. They seemed to be apdrepriate for accession of Catherine II in 1792, 25 mil- sails and for the covering of carriages lions; at her death in 1793, thirty-six mil- Amateurs have made renewed demands for lions: and at the death of the Emperor it. One of the great propertiys of the Phor-Alexander, now eleven years since, fifty-eight mium is, that it can remain under water millions. The acquisitions of Russia from fi e, six, or seven months, without being in-Sweden are greater than what remains of jured. Numerous experiments on ropes and that king lom. Her acquisitions in Poland bables leave no doubt in that respect .- The are nearly equal to the Austrian Empire .- | factory of M. Leinard, situated at Port Re-Her acquisitions from Turkey in Europe, my, employs more than a thousand workare of greater extent than the Prussian do- men. Before many months we are assured minions, inclusive of the Rhenish Provinces | that the great increase of this fabric will Her acquisitions from Turkey in Asia are cause the number to amount to three thounearly equal in dimensions to the whole of sand. Before being brought to the weaving the smaller states in Germany. Her acqui- state, this plant goes through seven operatisitions from Persia are equal in extent to ons, which are so little costly, that all in-England. Her acquisitions in Tartary have cluded, even to the combing, does not amount to six francs the quintal. FASHIONABLE FOLLY .--- The fashionable dandies of England, among other artifices resorted to, to retain what the ; conceive good looks, pencil their veins with blue cra-Berlin, Dresden, Munich, Vienna, and Paris, yon, when they no longer show, through their saffrond skin. This as well as painting 500 miles; towards Stockholm, about 630 is used by many fashionable ladies of the south, who use four colors, to keep up appearances, when nature has shed her blight an their complexion. They apply for white pole's Administration, when bribery was the pearl powder to their checks, then a recommon, if not universal, there was one fixed and costly rouge, to a part of their particular question which he wanted to car- cheeks and lips, and even ears : then paint ry in the House of Commons, to which evebrows black, pencil their veins with blue which he knew there would be violent op- and perfume themselves with musk or other unsition, and which has disliked by some perfumers. After being about two or shree hars at mere to lat, the are really to recerce though the Concrete Remests of the Loomonte It was formally the fashion in member of the opposite parts whose corre | England to place silver plumpers in their

age, or ble son diculo

MAG

pasian

his vo

and t

if he

conse

was 1 so un

ever

ue i

do s

and

shal

2011

Bist

an equal proportion to the inhabitants of unanimously. Hindostan, they would have to send out was formed, a knowledge of European scichange was for the worse. One young man who had since become a christian, had stated that he had failen from idelatry to athebeing. When christianity, however, was explain-age he is reduced to four. They also wor- all the difficulties. Out of these young men ship a sort of monkey, because Hummann, only three had become christians. Of these good to one of their gods, who was obliged gion, that he gave great promise of becomto flee across the Straits of Sunda. They ing a valuable apostle to his countrymen. A feed these with the utmost care, and would young Hindoo girl to whom he had been betrothed, was refused to him on his change dually got over most of her preindices. such as that of eating with him. the somen being forbidden to eat with men by the Ilmloo faith, and he had now great hopes of ny arms around him, each indding some im- her becoming a christian. Another simple plement of death. Nor were their dettes fact deserved to be mentioned ; twenty years he imagined, would not reject a targe brice months to poff out their checks, when the recommended by any beauties of sculpture, ago such a thing was not to be found as . He took him aside, and said, "Such a ques- had become somewhat sunken' by leannes au area not inferior to Turkey io Europe, Greece, Italy and Spain. The acquisitions she has made within the last sixty-four years are equal in extent 'and' importance to the whole empire before that time. The Russian frontier has been advanced towards about 100 miles; towards Constantinople miles; towards Teheran, 1000 miles.

PLAIN DEALING-During Sir Robert Walof his own dependents. As he was passing [

